Dr. Dreher in Roanoke.

Dr. Julius D. Dreher and bride, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Salem, left Saturday for Washington. They were entertained Thursday night at a brilliant reception given by the faculty and trustees of Roanoke college, in their honor. Mrs. Dreher was a Miss Richmond, of Scranton, Pa., a member of a very wealthy and prominent family. Dr. Dreher will leave shortly with his bride for Tahiti, Society Islands, where he will be the consul general of the United States.—Cor. Richmond News-Leader.

Millinery Opening!

Mrs. Hutto, assisted by Miss Evans, from Armstrong, Cator & Co., Baltimore, Md., will have her regular fall millinery opening on October 12th and 13th, 1906. She will display Ready-to-Wear and Trimmed Hats of the latest creation, Children and Misses Hats and Infant Caps. Ladies', Misses and Children's Cloaks. Silks, Dry Goods and Notions. Also Ribbons, Laces and Embroideries. Come and see whether you buy or not.

County Medical Association.

The County Medical Association held their annual meeting in town on Monday of last week after which they, with a few invited friends, enjoyed their annual dinner for which the Editor especially wishes to extend his thanks for an invitation. This being their annual meeting officers for the ensuing year were elected: Dr. D. M. Crosson, Leesville, President; Dr. L. B. Etheredge, Leesville, Vice President; Dr. J. J. Wingard, Lexington, Secretary, and Dr. E. P. Derrick, Lexington, Treasurer. Mr. E. H. Corley served the dinner most admirably in the Masonic building.

AMUSEMENTS FOR COUNTY FAIR.

The Sistrunk Amusement Company will be on the Grounds the 16, 17 and 18 of October.

The fair committee has contracted with the Great Sistrunk Amusement Company to furnish the attractions, foremost among them being Capt. Hi Wallace, the champion of all high divers, diving from a ladder 100 feet high. Twice daily will he defy death, his dives being made at 10:30 a. m. and 4 p. m. His is the feature free act. Out on the midway standing before the brilliantly bannered tent fronts the spellers will vie with each other to impress on visitors the importance of their individual entertainment. Ponto, the horse with the tail and mane, the Plantation Electric Theatre and San Francisco disaster are but a few of the features that will be on exhibition. Of course the merry-go-round will be there too.

Piney Woods Knots.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

It seems that the rainy weather is over at last. We have had bad weather for gathering. Lots of peavines in the fields, some cut and were never gathered.

Cotton is being picked and ginned rapidly as help will admit. Prices are fair, but if farmers will only hold their cotton they will get higher prices.

Ernest Amick, son of Mr. Simon Amick, left home Sunday, Sept. 30, to attend college at Hickory, N. C. We wish him success.

The R. F. D. routes from Chapin certainly are a great convenience to the community, and handle a lot of mail matter.

A number of our people are looking forward to a good time at the County Fair. PATRON.
October 8.

They Will Be There.

The big fat woman, the lean and lank man, the snake eater, the high diver and rope walker, the funny minstrels, electric shows, train robbers and the man that serves circus lemonade and "hot-to-mollies" will be on the fair grounds next week, while the "flewing jenny" will please the children in their merry-go-round.

Telephone Branching Out.

The telephone system here is extending its lines. Linemen are now at work putting up poles and wires on Wyse ferry road out to Mr. Thos. L. Harman's residence, thence down to Senator D. F. Efrid's residence.

Now we would like to see Irene, Edmund, Macedon, Pelion, Mr. Jos. Reeder's and Swansea reached by the same means. Nothing would add more benefit to the country than this line. Interest yourselves and see what you can do.
