Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Put your business before pleasure, or by and by you won't have either.

Ladies and childrens' cloaks in profusion, the Lexington Store.

Bravery is reckoned by what we do, not by what we threaten to do.

See Clerk Samuel B. George's sales advertised on the seventh page.

The fire department of our town sent up yesterday the hose to sprinkle the fair ground.

Most people get better obituary notices than they are entitled to.

You will find the very best, candies, cakes and crackers always at the Bazaar.

Our hotels and boarding houses are over-taxed with guests, some having to take rooms at private houses.

The best Northern butter and full cream cheese is sold at M. D. Harman's grocery.

Many a sharp retort is made in blunt language.

We issue one day early this week in order that our force may enjoy themselves with the crowd at the Fair.

You certainly will miss bargains in shoes if you do not see the special counters at Roof's store.

Mrs. J. B. Meetze, of the Midway section, killed a hawk with a rock on Sunday which measured three feet from tip to tip.

There is a number of prominent people visiting here who are attending the fair, but our space will not admit giving each a personal notice.

A beautiful line of lap robes just opened at W. P. Roof's store, and the prices are moderate.

Consult Philip Epstein how to secure 1,000 bond paying 5 per cent. interest per annum. Headquarters at Col. G. T. Graham's office.

The Great Steel Range, "MALLEABLE" is undoubtedly the best range ever produced. It has everything other so-called ranges possess, besides many points that others have not.

Contractor John W. Fry is manufacturing concrete blocks on the ground where he is erecting the F. E. Dreher building, near the court house.

WANTED—Traveler for established house. Twelve dollars weekly to start. Expenses paid. References. Address George Clows, Lexington, S. C.

Lexington county will, as usual, send her quota of citizens to the State Fair next week. She will also bring back many premiums.

Mr. J. M. Horner has resigned his position at Eagan, Ga., and has accepted a position as overseer of the dye house at Hilland Park Mills, Charlotte, N. C.

Men's underwear at 50c.; children's underwear at 25c. No such goods were ever offered at these prices. At W. P. Roof's store.

Look out for pickpockets, three-finger jack and the greasy pig, on the fair grounds. Remember, too, the more you put down the less you pick up.

The number of attendants at the County Fair increases at every fair. It is a throng and a jam today and every one seems to be enjoying themselves.

Go to The Lexington Department Store for whatever you want. These people have an enormous quantity bought for future shipment and must get rid of present stock to get room for future deliveries. Go there for bargains.

The numerous shows and places of amusement on the Fair grounds equal the best carnivals. Mr. Sistrunk takes a pride in having all of his entertainments first class and to see that every one enjoys the performances.

It took two hours and a half, one day last week, for Chief of Police Daley, of Columbia, to inspect and review the hacks licensed in that city. Seventeen out of one hundred and forty-two were condemned, and a number promised repairs in time for the Fair next week.

Mr. W. S. Outz was nominated in the recent primary in Edgefield to fill the unexpired term of his father and has been commissioned by Gov. Heyward and has assumed the duties of the office of sheriff of that county.

But it takes money to buy land. The question of how little to pay for a ladies' every day wear shoe is for you to decide.

Here is what we advise:
Kangaroo calf, (mind you this is no imitation,) plain or cap toe lace shoes.
Solid leather soles and heels. One piece leather inner soles and counters. Some inner soles are made of so many pieces of leather pressed together that you would hardly know it was leather when wet.
At $1.50 a pair.
Grain and Glove Grain Lace Shoes, One piece leather insoles and counters. Solid leather soles and heels at, $1.25.
Good shoes, cost more than shoddy ones, but they are cheaper in the end.

A Rondeau of Vacation.
The wicked flee where none pursue To pastures green and waters new. In other words, the very rich. On whom it is the style to pitch. Seek cool and rest where men are few. In private yacht with well trained crew, in mountains high above the blue— To every far and costly niche The wicked flee.

Less rich and hence less wicked, too. We scrimp to buy two weeks of "view." For fourteen sleepless nights we twitch, And ceaselessly big fans we switch, For each night comes with cool and dew The wicked flee!
