THE HORDES OF FOREIGNERS

Threaten to Overwhelm the South Soon.

That the doors of the South must soon be opened to the hordes of foreigners flocking to this country for one reason or another is evidenced by the fact that while last year it was thought the high-water mark of immigration had been reached, figures for six months of the present year ending with September show an equal number with that of the whole of last year.

The increase is alarming to many people whose interests center in the Southern states and who see at no distant time trouble between incoming foreigners and negro laborers of the South. The large number of Russians who are fleeing to the United States, it is said, know positively nothing concerning agricultural conditions as carried on in this country and that they will never fraternize with the negro. In fear of their lives they are rushing here in large numbers, many of them with scarcely enough money to pay third class passage. Nor are these people of the class that is likely to become a desirable one here, caring little for agricultural or other conditions. They leave their home in terror only seeking to find an asylum from the awful reign of carnage and death that prevails among many of them. Besides Russians there are thousands of natives of other countries hurrying to the United States, a large percentage of them being Italians of the lowest character.

Many of the large cities of the North—New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and others—received their full quota of immigrants long ago, and the result now is that extra police vigilance is necessary to take care of these people, who, for want of a better title, are classed "vagrants" and sent to the workhouses of the different municipalities. Crime is on the increase among them, especially in New York, where many live in boxes and along the water fronts, gaining such an existence as the situation affords. These cities have long since tired of being the dumping ground for cast off foreigners and welcome only too gladly the efforts many States in the South are making to induce immigration.

Tyner's Dyspepsia Remedy. Many Have Dyspepsia and Don't Know It.

The Herald is Correct.

Evidently the Pee Dee Advocate had an acute attack of the jim-jams, and conjured up a big bag-a-boo about the counties of Horry and Lexington. The alleged municipal election fraud at Brookland happened during a family row in which local issues were involved. The dispensary question had nothing to do with the matter at all nor was it even considered. As to the alleged fraud in this county. It is said to have been at the second primary after the dispensary question had been settled and is condemned by dispensaryites and anti-dispensaryites alike. A good rule for the Advocate man to pin to is to see that his own dirty linen is well washed and he will have no time to stick his nose into that of his neighbors.—Horry Herald.

A Young Mother at 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. In the children's department "The Doll's Dressmaker" will help educate the little mothers in the fashioning of garments for their dollies. Call for Domestic Labor.

The recent scarcity of labor throughout the State has caused a flood of letters to be received by the State department of immigration in regard to the shipload of immigrants being brought to Charleston by Commissioner Watson. The ship will arrive in Charleston Saturday, November 3. It is not known how many immigrants will be aboard the ship, but it is thought that there will be somewhere between 400 and 600. One-half of these are Germans and in addition to the applications for domestic labor there have been many letters for farm help. The department is having application blanks printed for reply to these letters and they are being forwarded to inquirers to be filled out so that some apportionment can be made of the immigrants.

Are you troubled with piles? One application of ManZan will give you immediate relief. Sold by The Kaufmann Drug Co.
