Lexington Exhibits.

The State of yesterday says this of the Lexington exhibit at the State Fair: Some of the exhibits from the Lexington fair were in evidence and this led a prominent official to remark the need of each county having a fair, as the experience of Lexington, among others, had proved its worth. Each year Lexington is better represented at the State fair than any other county, with the single exception of Horry two years ago. If each county had a similar fair and it was held just prior to the State fair, the task of getting superior exhibits would be much simplified.
