A Card of Thanks.

I desire to express my very hearty thanks to the good people of the town of Lexington and vicinity for a dona-tion of more than twenty-five dollars, presented as a surprise to the undersigned, for the purpose of defraying expenses incurred by his horse running away. Very appreciatingly,

J. W. Nease.

Second Loss Within Year.

Mrs. Jacob Long, residing near Prosperity, lost her house and con-tents by fire Sunday night, December 23rd. About a year ago she lost her home and she had not gotten over the loss, as no one can, and now the second time has met with misfortune. The people should go to her aid, while they can never return the loss.

Gunter vs. Fallaw.

A case of long standing in the civil courts entitled Lula Gunter vs. Martha and Burt Fallaw, envolving title to a large tract of land near the Edisto river, in Black Creek, claimed by both parties has just been awarded by Judge R. W. Memminger, who heard the case, to Mrs. Lula Gunter.

Kind Remembrances.

We feel more than thankful to Mrs. Catherine Meyer, of the River sec-tion, for kindly remembering us with a rich piece of turkey from her famia rich piece of turkey from her family dinner yesterday. She is one of the few good old souls left and whom it is a pity could not live always. We also wish to here thank another friend to partake of a turkey dinner with him and family on Sunday, but our physical inability prevented our accepting their kind invitation for which we are truly thankful and regret we could not be present.

In St. Louis.

Mr. W. H. Witt, of the firm of Reeves & Witt Live Stock and Vehicle Co., of Swansea, S. C., is in St. Louis, Mo., where he is buying a large lot of horses and mules for their trade. He will return about January 18th with a couple of cars of fine horses and mules ... Mr. Witt is a good judge of stock and always buys at the right prices. Go to Reeves & Witt Live Stock and Vehicle Co. for your stock. They will treat you right.

Christmas Tree Enjoyed.

The Christmas tree at Providence on last Wednesday, the day after Christmas, was greatly enjoyed by a large and appreciative crowd. The tree was large and heavily laden with many valuable and useful presents for both old and young, and furnished a lot of amusement for the young tolks. There were everging by the folks. There were exercises by the children, and the Rev. Mr. Nease, the speaker of the day, made an appropriate address. All passed off quietly and left feeling that it was good to have gathered together. Rev. Nease, the pastor, received a handsome purse a token of appreciation for his seras a token of appreciation for his services for which he returned his appreciative thanks in a few minutes speech.

To the Editor of The Dispatch: How about the resolution that you have made for 1907? Better still, how did you execute those you made last January?

As is usual, this is a moving time. People and things in general are on the move. What the outcome will be I don't know.

Your old scribe is back again for a few days. Glad to mingle with these good people.

Mr. William Crout has been quite sick for a few days, but at last report he is improving.

Mr. E. P. Shealey, one of our most enterprising country merchants, has moved into his new dwelling near Pond Branch church. Mr. Noah A. Lewis is erecting a very handsome residence on his place.

Leesville.

Monday evening was a season of much merriment and enjoyment at Mr. Geo. W. Smith's, despite the very inclement weather. In the parlor stood a beautiful cedar tree, laden with all kinds of suitable Christmas gifts. Santa Claus and his "better half," after making the children laugh and cry, proceeded to distribute the gifts.

ute the gifts.
On Tuesday the children and grand-On Tuesday the children and grandchildren of Mr. W. W. Koon gathered at his home to celebrate his birthday, which happened this year on Christmas day. These gatherings are sources of great pleasure, and from the smile on his face I believe a burden of fifteen years was rolled back, and I believe that 1907 will be brighter and more joyous for him and his dear wife, who have shared each others' burdens for well nigh these fifty years. May that same home be the scene of many more similar gatherings, is the wish of

GEO. W. HARMAN, VICTOR HARMAN, 4w10p JACOB K. HARMAN.

Notice, Trespassers!

This is to notify all persons not to trespass in any manner whatever, either by persons or their stock, roaming at large, upon my lands on Big Bever creek, on the line of Lexington and Orangeburg counties. The law will positively be enforced against any trespassing contrary to this notice.
VIRGIL D. F. RUCKER.

Dec. 11. 4w9.

Notice. The overseers of the public roads in Lexington County are hereby notified to put their respective sections of the roads in good condition at once; and to report, under oath, to the Supervisor's office by the 10th, of January next, all tools received, material used, or funds expended upon the roads during the present year. They shall also return a full and true list and statement of the names of all persons within their respective districts who have been ordered out to perform labor on the roads; the number of days each worked, and a list of those who have refused or neglected to perform road duty. They shall re-port, under oath, what tools and prop-erty, including unexpended funds, they have on hand, which belong to the county.
