

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A Poor Organ.
Dam(s) the bile. That's what your liver does if it's torpid. Then the bile overflows into the blood—poisons your system, causing sick headache, biliousness, sallow skin, coated tongue, sick stomach, dizziness, fainting spells, etc. Ramon's treatment of Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets strengthens the liver and makes it do its own work. Prevents and cures these troubles. It aids—doesn't force. Entire treatment 25c, Derrick's Drug Store and C. E. Corlay.

Saved Her Son's Life.

The happiest mother in the little town of Ava, Mo., is Mrs. S. Ruppe. She writes: "One year ago my son was down with such serious lung trouble that our physician was unable to help him; when, by our druggist's advice I began giving him Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed improvement. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks when he was perfectly well. He has worked steadily since at carpenter work. Dr. King's New Discovery saved his life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure by the Kaufman Drug Co., druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Fell On Saw; Killed Instantly.

Summit, Ga., March 14.—Mr. W. R. Gunn, the sawyer at the saw mill of his brother, Mr. T. J. Gunn, fell on the big saw today and was killed instantly. The details of the accident have not been learned, further than Mr. Gunn fell face toward the moving saw, and it cut his entire left shoulder off, and cut down deep into his body, the saw splitting his heart in half.

Mr. Gunn is a man about 35 years of age and unmarried. He leaves a mother and several brothers and sisters.

A woman thinks there is a sight of difference between shoes too small and feet too big.

Allen Leroy Locke, colored, of Philadelphia, who will graduate at Harvard university in June, has been awarded a Rhodes scholarship at Oxford university, England. He was chosen over four white candidates.

Found at Last.

J. A. Harman, of Lizeamore, West Va., says: "At last I have found the perfect pill that never disappoints me; and for the benefit of others afflicted with torpid liver and chronic constipation, will say: take Dr. King's New Life Pills." Guaranteed satisfactory. 25c at the Kaufman Drug Co.'s drug store.

A Thought For The Week.

If you possess such an unhappy nature as to make you refuse to lay up a little because you cannot lay up a great deal then you will never lay up anything.—Theodore Roosevelt.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup is a new remedy, an improvement on the laxatives of former years, as it does not gripe or nauseate and is pleasant to take. It is guaranteed. The Kaufman Drug Co.

Doe Nelson, colored, was convicted at Bamberg on Tuesday of the murder of Eddie Simmons at a hot supper and was sentenced to hang April 26th.

Frank C. Martin was arrested in Philadelphia last week on the charge of forging a check for $30,000 on a Brooklyn bank.

Twenty-two Greek railroad laborers were drowned while crossing the Sacramento river in California last week in a boat.

States Can Buy Tickets.

It is claimed that states have the right to buy tickets for immigrants, but they cannot receive aid from corporations or individuals directly or indirectly.

For Good Roads.

To the Editor of The Dispatch:

What do you think of the public road situation in South Carolina? I have traveled through the counties of Fairfield, Lexington, Newberry, Chester, Edgefield, Lancaster, Kershaw, Saluda, Laurens and Greenwood. The latter is the only one in which the roads are decently kept up. Mr. Editor, there is only one way in which the public roads of the State can be kept up, and that is by taxation. The times demand it. We should stand by Mr. Latimer in his efforts to get aid from the national government, and if congress will give half the amount required, we certainly should be willing to be taxed to pay the other half. After the bill is passed and the roads put in first class condition, we should have Dr. Crosson's broad tire wagons to run over them.

The dispensary is almost a dead issue now, the good road issue would be, in my opinion, a good issue for our little politicians to ride in office on.

The Grippe.

An ache in the back,
And a pain in the head—
That's the Grippe!

A choke in the throat,
And a yearning for bed—
That's the Grippe!

A river of heat,
Then a shiver of cold,
A feeling of being
Three hundred years old.
A willingness, even
To do as you're told—
That's the Grippe!

An arrow of pain, now
In this place, now in there—
That's the Grippe!

A feeling of doubt
As to where you are at—
That's the Grippe!

A stupid sensation—
Of course, wholly new!—
A foolish depression—
Why should you feel blue?—
A doubt as to whether
This really is you—
That's the Grippe!

Strange visions at night,
That deprive you of rest—
That's the Grippe!

A taste in your mouth, and
A weight on your chest—
That's the Grippe!

A tired sensation
That runs through your veins,
A queer combination
Of aches and of pains,
A rapid admission
Of absence of brains—
That's the Grippe!

Rev. Harold Thomas Resigns.

Orangeburg, March 14.—Rev. Harold Thomas, for a little more than a year pastor of the Episcopal church here, has resigned the charge and gone to Florence to serve the church there. Mr. Thomas was pastor of the Florence church some two years ago, but left it to go to Wilmington, and when asked to return, old ties of love won. He felt that the field was larger and he returned to his former flock.

A Prize That Caused No End of Trouble

HE was very short of money and was also out of a job. Wondering what on earth he could do to meet the rent, he happened to gaze in at the window of a grocery store, so that he might feast his eyes on the luxuries he could not purchase. A bag in the window caught his eye. On it was written:

"The person who guesses the exact number of beans in this bag by the 20th of this month will be rewarded with the sum of $50."

He went home, made a guess, wrote a number on a postal card and, to his intense astonishment, gained the prize when the count took place.

But he was not happy. Oh, dear, no! His troubles only just began at that moment. A small crowd of friends were awaiting him. They all wished to congratulate him in the same old way, and after leaving them he was quite $5 poorer. On leaving them he went home, only to find awaiting his arrival one or two book agents, an insurance man, the butcher, the baker, the shoemaker, the installment fiend and the landlord. They had in some way all heard of his good fortune.

He discovered his wife highly elated. She had, on receiving the intelligence of his good fortune, immediately gone out and purchased a new bonnet, which she had ordered sent home C. O. D. This was the last straw.

He hid himself in his bedroom, and later on a wild eyed individual might have been seen furtively stealing out of the back door and running at a breakneck speed down the street, followed by a band of shrieking derisives.

Such is good fortune.—Judge.

Carbing Extravagance.

"Some folks," remarked a well known autoist, who had just returned from a tour through some of the southern states, "have peculiar ideas of extravagance. Down in Virginia a few weeks ago I stopped at a farmhouse to refill my water jug and got into conversation with an old negro who came out to render me what assistance he might. During the process of drawing the water from the well he became somewhat confidential.

"My wife," said he, "is pow'ful stragvant. She's always askin' me fo' money. She wants 50 cents for this and a dollar for that, an' there's no end to it, sah."

"Why, uncle, what does she do with so much money?" I asked sympathetically.

"She don't do anything wild it," he answered.

"How is that, uncle?" I asked in surprise.

"Well, I tell yer, sah," he replied in the most matter of fact way, "I don't give it to her."—New York Times.

A "Nobel" Example.

Gunner—That poor poet who occupies the old garret has a strenuous time. All day he writes poetry, and at night he chases the cats that give serenades on the roof.

"There's Teddy gets made president for foightin', and then he's ag'in it and gets $40,000."

"Oh, the luck av him!"—New York Herald.

Sufficient Encouragement.

Ascum—I notice you're very attentive to Miss Roxley. Have you received any encouragement?

Hunter—I should say so. I received authoritative information that she's worth at least $500,000.—Philadelphia Press.

"Can't, eh?"

"No. Now, make it hash and prune days, and I've been there."—Pittsburg Post.

The Cowboy's Home Going.

I've been sweatin' for weeks on the roundup.

And I'm all fired glad that I'm done; I'm tired of ridin' and brandin' (It's only in books that it's fun).

I'm sick for a sight of the cabin In the pines, where it nestles so coy! It's me for the trail o'er the mountains—I want to get back to the boy.

In my dreams every night I can see him, As pink and as sweet as a rose; With his hands lined across with deep dimples (Those hands can clutch heartstrings, God knows); I can hear that small voice at the hearth-side

And can see that fair head o'er its toy, Small wonder I'm packin' and cinchin'—I want to get back to the boy.

The others are off for the cow town, And h—l will be raised there tonight, But the music and lights that I'm seekin' Will give a more lastin' delight: It's the light that shines out of the cabin And makes bright the pathway to joy; And the music's the glad cry of "Daddy!"

I want to get back to the boy. —Denver Republican.

Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers

Thousands of cotton planters have done so by using VIRGINIA-CAROLINA FERTILIZERS, and hundreds of them tell about it in our 1907 almanac. Deep preparation, and liberal use (400 to 1000 pounds) of per acre, concentrated on fewer acres, thoroughly cultivated, enables the tap roots to strike down deep to reach the moisture, and the feeding roots to take complete possession of the soil early in the season. Your plant will then be so strong, robust and healthy, that it fruits heavier, matures earlier, opens earlier, and can be gathered earlier to better advantage, and in better order—thus insuring best results in marketing as well as obtain the largest yield per acre.

Accept no substitute for Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers. Ask your dealer or write us for one of our new almanacs, valued at $1.00, but free to you.
