Joint Council To Meet.
 The Joint Council of the Lexington charge will meet in Roof's hall, April 13th, 1907, at 3 o'clock p. m. All members are earnestly requested to be present. J. SOL HENDRIX, Chairman Joint Council.

Dental Notice.
 I will be at Swansea Wednesday and Thursday, April the 10th and 11th, prepared to do all kinds of dental work. S. F. Killingsworth.

Ladies of Lexington
 You should see the nice display of beautiful white dress goods, and other dry goods now ready for your inspection at Wm. Platt & Son, Columbia, S. C. They carry all standard stock, suited to your taste. Be sure to call and see them whenever you are in Columbia.

Sale of Quarry.
 Receiver C. E. Corley, sold the Dalton & Marsh Company's quarry outfit below town yesterday for $3,500. This amount not being sufficient the creditors will not be paid in full. The property was bought by a northern firm and in all probability will soon be put in operation.

First Monday.
 Monday being the first Monday the county commissioners were in session, approving claims, and attending to other routine business. Nothing of great importance was transacted.

Price-Rawl.
 On March 28, 1907, Mr. Shurman Rawl and Miss Ola Price were married at the home of Mr. Walter Price, by Rev. B. D. Weesinger.

Discount on Cash Purchases.
 The Lexington Department Store people realize that cash is scarce in the spring, and should bring a premium, therefore they have decided to offer a discount of 5 per cent. on all cash purchases of $1 or more until further notice. This applies to all goods. Remember that 95c. buys a dollar at the Lexington Department Store.

Eggs
 From direct descendants of greatest prize winning strains at St. Louis exposition. Black Langshans, S. C. White Leghorns, S. C. Rhode Island Reds and Pekin Ducks. Eggs $2 per 15. Satisfaction guaranteed. A few birds for sale.
 Oakwood Poultry Yards,
 W. E. Lumley, Proprietor,
 Tullahoma, Tenn.

An Easter Party.
 The Easter party given by Mrs. W. P. Roof at her attractive home, was one of the most charming and pleasant occasions of the season. The little children were never happier than on this occasion, when their eyes beheld Easter eggs galore. The older ones, too, enjoyed the afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served throughout.

Why Not Close at 7 O'clock?
 Why don't the merchants of Lexington have some uniform hour for closing, say 7 o'clock, during the summer months? This would give the many young ladies and gentlemen, now clerking in the stores, an opportunity to take a little out door recreation, which is so very essential to their good health. Who will be first to champion this move?

Eggs for Hatching.
 Tennessee, bred birds and bred right; breeder for 12 years—B. P. Rocks. Rose comb, R. I. Reds, White Wyandotte, Buff, Orpingtons.
 Give me a trial order and you will be my customer in the future. Prize winning stock eggs $2.00 per 15. No stock for sale.

Hyer-Kaminer.
 On Sunday, March 30, at the bride's home, Mr. Tillman T. Kaminer and Miss Julia Belle Hyer were happily married by Rev. W. D. Quick.

24 Cents Cotton.
 In this issue you will find an advertisement of M. E. Rutland, of Batesburg, the champion cotton grower of Lexington county. Mr. Rutland has a limited supply of the celebrated long staple cotton seed for sale at $2 per bushel. Mr. Rutland made, last year, 13 bales on eleven acres, and sold the same to Mr. T. B. Kernaghan, cotton buyer at Batesburg, for 24 cents per pound.
 This cotton is as easy to grow as the other varieties and produces the same, if not better, results. You can get this seed by addressing Mr. Rutland at Batesburg.

Pasture Summer and Winter.
 I am prepared to graze one-hundred head of cattle, summer and winter. Pasture very fine Bermuda grass, upland and bottom, safe from floods. Cattle penned at night; best care taken. Received at Abram Geiger Est. place seven miles south of Columbia on State road and Congaree river, Lexington County. Price one dollar per month. Call on or write me at 1422 Main St. Columbia S. C.
 N. W. Brooker.

Rev. W. H. Hiller.
 Rev. W. H. Hiller, who recently accepted the pastorate of St. Stephen's Lutheran church, preached his first sermon Sunday to one of the largest congregations ever assembled in St. Stephen's. Rev. Hiller is a man of charming and pleasing personality, a smooth, fluent and eloquent speaker; his sermons show that he is a hard student, giving deep study to his subjects. Rev. Hiller succeeds Rev. J. G. Graichen, who was the beloved pastor of St. Stephen's for eighteen consecutive years, and we bespeak for him and his family a most cordial welcome.

Surprise Marriage.
 Quite a surprise marriage was consummated in Lexington Saturday morning, when Mr. James Richardson, of White Rock, led to the Hymenial altar, Miss Bessie Corley, of Lexington, the Rev. A. S. Leslie pronouncing the words which made the happy couple man and wife.
 Miss Corley is the adopted daughter of Mrs. Sim Corley and is quite popular, having numerous friends and admirers here and elsewhere.
 Mr. Richardson is a young man of sterling worth, with a high regard for all that is noble and true, and though quite young, is endowed with fine business qualifications.

Roof-Taylor.
 Mr. John Taylor, son of Mr. M. L. Taylor, and Miss Eunice Roof, daughter of Mr. Hamp Roof, were happily united in holy wedlock on Sunday afternoon, March 30, by Rev. W. D. Quick at his residence. Both of these young people are very popular, and The Dispatch joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

Married.
 At the residence of the bride's father, J. J. Cannon, near Little Mountain, S. C., on March 28, 1907, by the Rev. E. J. Sox, Charley Wilbur Long and Mary Ella Cannon were united in holy wedlock.

Attention Veterans.
 Members of Camp Steadman will meet at the court house on Monday, the 22nd instant, for the purpose of electing delegates to the State reunion at Columbia and also to the reunion at Richmond. The State reunion will take place 7, 8 and 9th of May, 1907; and the reunion at Richmond on the 30th of May to 3rd of June, inclusive. The Camp is entitled to three delegates to each reunion.
 By order of Commander,
 M. D. Harman.

What Our Reporter Saw in New York.
 A recent visit to one of the largest paint factories in the world, disclosed machinery that was producing 10,000 gallons of Paint, and doing it better and in less time than 100 gallons could be made by hand mixing.
 This was the celebrated L. & M. Paint.
 The L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years.
 4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil makes 7 gallons of paint at a cost of less than $1.20 per gallon.
 If any defect exists in L. & M. Paint, will repaint house for nothing. Donations of L. & M. made to churches.
 Sold by Dr. E. P. Derrick.

Local News Notes.
 Rev. W. D. Quick left Monday morning for Wagener, where he is assisting the Rev. Ike Stone in a series of meetings at that place. Rev. Quick is a preacher of profound thought, and no doubt that he will win many souls for Christ at Wagener.
 Dr. J. W. Geiger, a true old Vet and successful practitioner of the Congaree section, was here Monday in attendance upon the County Medical Society.
 Mr. J. C. Dunbar, and daughter, a prominent farmer and influential citizen of the Pelion section, was here yesterday. Mr. Dunbar is one of the best farmers in the county and we are always glad to see him.
 Mrs. H. A. Meetze, of Leesville, has been in Columbia for the past three weeks, where she has been receiving medical treatment. She is getting along nicely.
 Miss Hattie Roberts, a very handsome and pretty young lady, after teaching a most successful school at Providence, has accepted a position as saleslady with W. P. Roof. She is boarding with Mr. H. M. Wingard.
 Mrs. Samuel B. George gave an Easter egg hunt to the children of the town on Friday afternoon at her home on upper Main street, at which time a number of children were present.
 Dr. W. Price Timmerman, of Batesburg, big hearted, wholesouled and one of the best physicians and surgeons in the county, was here Monday attending the Medical Society of which he is a valuable member.
 Mr. Luther Craps, our former fellow townsman, now of Batesburg, true and prompt to all obligations, did not wait to come to town but favored the printers with his remittance for another year by mail.

Matthews-Rawl.
 Mr. Killian Rawl, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rawl, of Batesburg, was married on Sunday afternoon to Miss Nora Matthews, of Graniteville. They will make their home at Batesburg.
