Unwritten Law to be the Plea.

Spartanburg, S. C., May 5.—W. H. Mills, who early last March, shot and killed Frank Deal, manager Blacksburg cotton mills, made application for bail through his attorney, Stan-yarne Wilson, before Judge D. E. Hydrick yesterday afternoon, which was refused, Judge Hydrick holding that the case was not bailable. The killing of Deal was because of Deal's alleged attentions to Mrs. Mills.

The affidavit of Mrs. Mills, wife of defendant, was highly sensational. The affidavit submitted by her stated she had improper relations with Deal while she was teaching school at Grover, near Blacksburg. Deal, she affirmed, often visited her room and that he had offered her money. While she worked in a millinery store at Blacksburg Deal agreed to furnish her money to open business for herself.

Mills is in jail in Cherokee county, where he was committed shortly after the killing of Deal. The unwritten law will be his plea when the case is called for trial. Mrs. Mills is a member of a well known family of this county and is a former student of Converse college.

Shoots Wife and Friend, Then Commits Suicide.

Wilmington, N. C., May 9.—In a fit of anger Henry Hamilton, a private in the Nineteenth company, United States infantry, stationed at Fort Caswell, at the mouth of the Cape Fear river, yesterday evening shot his wife and Corporal Watson and then killed himself by firing a bullet into his left breast. Of late Hamilton had frequently quarrelled with his wife, it is said, and yesterday attacked her with murderous intent. After shooting her twice he turned his pistol on Watson, who had interfered. He then fired a bullet into his own heart.

Old, But Not Too Old to Marry

Anderson, May 7.—Jesse Mitchell, a negro man, who is reputed to be 103 years old and who is a well known individual in this city, took unto himself a wife in the person of the widow, Lou Vandiver, age 65. Sunday the Rev. Scott Jones, a negro preacher of the city, performed the marriage ceremony. Jesse was born in Mississippi. He was a grown plough hand, he says, when the war of 1812 commenced. He moved to Anderson about twenty years ago. His wife died several years ago.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.

Wishes Bamberg Success.

While the Carey-Cothran law was getting into working order, Bamberg county had prohibition for three weeks. Like the people of Union county, the citizens there saw and were convinced that prohibition meant less drunkenness, less disorder, more money spent in paying bills and buying the necessities and comforts of life. That short test of prohibition caused the thinking people of Bamberg county to sit up and take notice, and the result now is that a strong movement is on foot to do away with all their county dispensaries, and divert the $100,000 that was last year spent on liquor in that county into channels that will do more people more good. Bamberg is moving along the right line, and we wish for her the greatest possible success.—Union Progress.

For stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and liver tablets. Many remarkable cures have been effected by them. Price 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.

Wessinger-Williams.

At 119 Washington street, Miss Carrie C. Wessinger, formerly of Columbia, S. C., and Mr. Ray T. Williams, of Newburg, N. Y., were married Sunday afternoon at 7 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Cronk in the presence of a few friends and special guests, among whom were Miss Rose, Miss Norman, Miss Seago, Mr. R. W. McCullough and others. An informal reception followed the ceremony.

The bride wore a handsome gown of gray silk and Cluny lace.

The groom is with the Southern railway and is well known in railroad circles. Both young people have many friends interested in the announcement of their marriage. They are at home at 381 Whitehall street.—Atlanta Journal.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.

Liked Old Ways Best.

A painfully bashful young man proposed to his best girl by means of a photograph, to the waxen cylinders of which he had previously told his love. The girl was greatly surprised and not displeased to hear her lover's declaration, but the idea of this betrothal did not appeal to her. Accordingly she sent her little brother with a note which read as follows:

"Dear Sir—If you have courage enough, you might come over and tell me what you have to say, but if you haven't, stay at home, for I'll be jiggered if I am going to be hugged and kissed by a photograph if I never get a chance to say 'Yes.'"—Ex.

Wonderful Eczema Cure.

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters; bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at Kaufmann Drug Co's. drug store. 50c.

Hanged at Spartanburg.

Spartanburg, S. C., May 8.—John Shelton, colored, who killed Alf Briggs, his father-in-law, November, 1905, was hanged in the jail here Friday. The trap was sprung at 11:45 o'clock, the fall breaking his neck.

The prisoner walked to the gallows with a firm and steady step, and as he passed through the corridor in the jail he said to the prisoners, "Good-bye, boys."

After being placed on the trap door he was asked if he had anything to say and he replied in the negative.

At no time while preparations were being made did he show any nervousness.
