TWO WOMEN WILL HANG FOR MURDER.

First Execution of Kind in New Mexico occurs on Friday, June 7th—Pretty Mexican Girl Gave Rat Poison to Her Aged Husband.

Albuquerque, N. M.—The first instances of the execution of a woman in New Mexico will occur at Hillsboro, Sierra county, on Friday, June 7th, when Valentin Madril, an educated Mexican woman, who administered poison to her husband, and Alma Lyons, a young negress, a servant in the Madril family, who assisted in the crime will be hanged.

Mrs. Madril is 19 years old, the negress is scarcely 20. Efforts are being made to have executive clemency extended to the women, but it is not likely that the governor will interiere. The crime for which the two women are to pay the penalty was a cold blooded one. The murder of Madril was carefully planned according to the statements of the two women between the wife, her paramour, Francisco Baca, and the negro servant.

Madril, the murdered man, was possessed of considerable property and was one of the stable citizens of Sierra county. Madril was much older than his wife, and she soon began to tire of him. Then Baca appeared on the scene. He was young, of powerful build, rode a horse as only the hill countrymen of New Mexico can ride, and he soon captivated the young wife.

Rough on rats was used by the woman, it being suggested by Baca. While the two women will hang, Baca has secured a continuance of his trial until the September term of court.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.

Shot Sweetheart By Accident.

Rome, Ga., May 16.—Yesterday afternoon at about 4:30 o'clock Miss Jessie Gilliam accidentally shot and killed Otis Daniel, a railway brakeman. The shot took effect in the left temple and died at 6 o'clock from the effects of the wound.

Miss Gilliam is a popular young lady and, it is said, was a sweetheart of Daniel.

The shooting occurred at the home of Miss Gilliam's uncle, W. M. Dunn, in East Rome, with whom she lives. Miss Gilliam claims that the shooting was accidental; that she was seated at the piano and Daniel handed her his pistol and asked her to oil and clean it and return it to him when he returned to Rome. In some way it was discharged. Daniel was a brother of Mather Daniel, a prominent merchant of this city.

South Carolinian Hurt.

Newbern, N. C., May 14.—A dynamite explosion in an abandoned tool house belonging to the Norfolk and Southern railway company, on the banks of the Neuse river, opposite this place, today probably fatally injured Frank McGhee, seriously injured Watson Fanning, of Sally, S. C., and slightly hurt several others. Standing at a distance of perhaps sixty feet and being ignorant of the contents of the tool house, McGhee fired at a knot on the building with a pistol. The bullet came in contact with the dynamite which has been stored for use in connection with construction work on the railroad, and an explosion followed, tearing the building into fragments, flying pieces striking those who were standing near-by.

Don't Pay Alimony

to be divorced from your appendix. There will be no occasion for it if you keep your bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Their action is so gentle that the appendix never has cause to make the least complaint. Guaranteed by the Kaufmann Drug Co., druggist. 25c. Try them.

Her Face Unwashed for Fifteen Years.

Miss Amanda Johnson, aged 50, of Webb City, Iowa, and one of the most beautiful women in northwest Iowa, has not washed her face for fifteen years. Though she is still unwed, she is bright, cheerful and fair. Her face is free from wrinkles and her complexion beautiful. She says she does not intend to wash her face in the next fifteen years.

How To Run a Newspaper.

When a man goes astray Keep it out. When the critic roasts a play Keep it out. When two men in anger clash; When a merchant goes to smash When the cashier steals the cash Keep it out. When they quarrel in the church Keep it out. When a teacher wields the birch Keep it out. When nine women fair to see Whisper something over tea—Print it? Goodness gracious me! Keep it out. When two statesmen make a deal Keep it out. When another tries to steal Keep it out. Stories thin and stories tall; Good and bad and big and small; Anything that's news at all—Hear 'em shout Keep it out. —Bamberg Herald.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.

The "Lost Art."

If our girls, whether contemplating marriage or not, who have homes and mothers, would study the "lost art of housekeeping," and seek to render themselves efficient and proficient in the business (for it really is a business) and profession of housekeeping and home making, there would be fewer sorrowful sinnings and unhappy, broken-down lives because of trying to "make a living" in the mad scramble for situations which are already overcrowded, and at best poorly paid. The young wife who has found that life is something of a failure when soggy bread and muddy coffee is the rule, or when "store-cooked" foods are all that her table can "set before its king," should learn to eliminate the merely ornate, and do first the every-day essentials, perfecting herself in the few substantial, and keeping within the limits of her untrained strength. Simplify and systematize should be her watchwords.—Ex.

The Mills Will Shut Down.

New Bedford, Mass., May 9.—Every mill in this city, it is believed, will shut down during the last week in August, according to a vote of the cotton mill operatives, to take their vacation at that time. While the vote was taken by the operatives in the weave mills only, it is the general opinion that the spinning plants will take the same step, which means that during the last week of August practically the entire business of the city will be suspended.

Wonderful Eczema Cure.

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters; bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at Kaufmann Drug Co.'s drug store. 50c.

Joining the "Lemon Club."

"Have you got 10 cents?" asked a well known man-about-town of a waiter in a Chestnut street cafe whom he knew. "Yes, sir," answered the white-aproned servitor, handing over a dime, and wondering why a moneyed man should want money from "Now," continued the man, "you are a full-fledged member of the Lemon Club," and with a laugh, he pocketed the coin and sat down at the table. The waiter smiled and served the customer and his guests with dinner. Then he presented his bill, which amounted to $4. The man handed the waiter a $5 bill, which the smiling hash slinger tucked away, saying: "Now, sir, you are a life member of the Lemon Club." What could the man do before his guests but laugh and let it go at that.—Philadelphia Record.

For stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and liver tablets. Many remarkable cures have been effected by them. Price 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.
