New Lot Post Cards.

The Bazaar has just received this week a new line of post cards-the prettiest line they have ever carried. Come quick before the choice is pick-ed. Prices most reasonable.

A Large Crane.

S. Rufus Smith shot and killed on the 28th of May the largest crane the Black Creek ponds afford. He meas-ured in height 5 feet and 4 inches, and from tip to tip 6 feet and 3 inches. The gentleman had 3 yearling trout in his craw. Who can show a larger record on cranes?

Postmasters to Get Increase. Thirty-four postmasters in South Mrs. Kate L. Bostwright.

Seldom does it fall to our lot to record so sad a death as that of Mrs. Kate L. Boatwright, which occurred in Columbia Thursday, where she had gone for the purpose of having an operation performed; but upon her arri-val her condition was such that it was deemed best not to make the attempt. Only about six months ago her husband, Mr. R. W. Boatwright, died; and a little later, about two months ago, her aunt, Miss Margaret M. Lowman, a member of the same house-hold, passed into the "great beyond," leaving her alone with three little children. Now the situation is rendered more pathetic by the death of the mother. Three small children, the youngest an infant of only a few weeks, are left to make lifes struggles all alone.

Mrs. Boatwright, besides her chil-dren, is survived by two brothers and two sisters: Messrs. Henry D., and D. M. Lowman; Mrs. Geo. M. Adams and Mrs. Paul Shealy. Her remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground, near Baxter, her late home, on Friday afternoon, the last sad rites being performed by her pastor, Rev. D. B. Groseclose, of Leesville.

May the God of mercy in the plen-titude of His graciousness, look down with fatherly love upon these dear little ones, and lead them in the paths of righteousness!

Transfers of Real Estate.

The following transfers of real estate have been recorded in the Clerk of Court's office since our last issue: Mrs. Jesse Hendrix to R. A. Lancaster, 750 acres near Macedon for

$2,700. Joseph W. Areheart to F. C. Bigby, L. J. Frink and R. L. Shuler, 10 acres in Brookland for $800. F. C. Bigby and R. L. Shuler to L. J. Frink, all their interest in 10 acres in Brookland.

Luther J. Frink to R. A. Lancaster, M. D., one-half interest in 10 acres in Brookland.

W. B. Rast to Sarah A. Shealy, lot in Swansea for $300.

Miss Mary Viola Lowman.

The following from The Lutheran Visitor will be read with keen interest by the many friends of Miss Lowman; besides, it shows that the young ladies from Lexington county always take a high stand in whatever course they pursue:

"Miss Mary Viola Lowman, of Selwood, S. C., graduated from the school of expression, Lenoir College, Hickory, N. C., and on Friday, May 10, she gave her graduating recital in the large auditorium before an intelligent and appreciative audience. Since at the college Miss Lowman has made for herself a most excellent reputation as a reader. She has fine ural talent and memorizes perfectly and is entirely easy and graceful before an audience."

Brookland Council.

New Brookland, Columbia's thriving suburb across the Congaree, now has a new municipal administration, the annual elections having been held Saturday night.

There were three nominees for the position of intendant, but Mr. C. T. Weed withdrew. There were 120 votes cast, Mr. E. W. Weaver receiving the majority, 66. to 54 for his op-ponent, Mr. J. A. Gayden.

The vote for wardens was as follows: Ward 1 (two to be chosen)-F. H. Ward 1 (two to be chosen)—F. H. Lucas, 71; D. J. Shumpert, 55; H. L. Gable, 35; J. B. Mims, 22; S. A. Moak, 14; W. C. Addy, 25. Ward 2—P. H. Stallings, 83; J. W. Geiger, 59; J. B. McFarland, 14; Lem-uel Hall; 29; E. J. Thornhill, 41; P. C.

Shealy, 14.

The two first named in each ward were elected.

Intendant Weaver is a loomfixer in the Columbia mills; Shumpert and Geiger also are employed in the mills. Lucas and Stallings are in the mer-cantile business.—Columbia Record, 3

Carolina will get an increase in sal Carolina will get an increase in sar-ary after July 1. This will affect three postmasters in this county: The salary of the postmaster at Batesburg will be increased from $1,300 to $1,400; Leesville, from $1,000 to $1,100; Lex-ington, from $1,000 to $1,100.

A Coming Marriage at Shady Grove.

Mr. J. T. Dailey announces the en-gagment of his daughter, Miss Susie, to Mr. Sid Sites, of Spring Hill. The marriage will take place at Shady Grove Methodist church on June 16. Rev. Wayne Mill willofficiate. The public is invited to witness the ceremony.

New Depot for Leesville.

A number of the representative citizens of Leesville had a conference with the Railroad commission and Supt. H. A. Williams, of the Southern, last week in the interest of a new depot for Leesville. The meeting was satisfactory, and Leesville has the promise of a handsome and commodious new depot by August 31st.

Tapp's Great Lockhart Sale.

On the front page of this issue will be found an advertisement of the Jas. L. Tapp Co's., Great Lockhart "Mill-L. Tapp Co's., Great Locknart "Mill-End" Sale, which begins on Friday, June the 7th, at their great depart-ment stores in Columbia. If you eed anything now, or if you expect to need anything in the future, it will pay you to attend this mighty money saving event—the chance of a life time to get new and seasonable merchandise at new and seasonable merchandise at and below factory cost. Readers of The Dispatch should not fail to grasp this golden opportunity.

Bev. L. J. Coppin.

Rev. L. J. Coppin, a prominent colored divine, Bishop of the seventh Episcopal district of the A. M. E church, comprising South Carolina and Alabama, will preach in New Bethel church, Lexington, on the evening of June 6th. The pastor Rev. A. J. C. Johnson, requests us to state that there will be reserved seats for white people.

Mr. Caughman Commended.

To the Editor of The Dispatch: New Brookland's 420 who protested against a dispensary in our town, with many others, heartily commend the action of Mr. M. G. Caughman in refusing to serve as dispenser and thus co-operate with those who are persistent in their efforts to afflict the majority of peace-loving and Godfearing people of our town, just to please a few BUSINESS men. CITIZEN.

New Brookland, May 31.

Capt. Guignard in the Navy.

It is indeed gratifying to note the very high stand that the young men ter in what positions they occupy. Especially is it so in the case of Capt. Guignard, who is a son of the Capt. John Guignard and a brother, of G. A. Guignard, of this county. The Columbia State has the following to say anent Capt. Guignard: "Capt. William S. Guignard, A. B.,

'91, from Lexington county, com-pleted the course at West Point in 1896 and entered the artillery, which is the finest branch of the service. In 1901 he was promoted to a captancy. For the past two years Capt. Guignard has been military attache to the American embassy at Paris. He has been sent on several important missions, one of them being the escorting of the American representative to Morocco to that country."

Mr. Jacob L. Roof Dead.

Mr. Jacob L. Roof, one of the best known and highly esteemed citizens of Lexington county residing near New Brookland, died after a short illness of malarial fever Friday night. The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at Emanuel Lutheran church in the presence of one of the largest congregations ever assembled in that section to pay their respects to a departed friend. The last sad rites were performed by the Rev. E. L. Lybrand, of Brookland. Mr. Roof was sixty-five years old and fought gallantly for the Southland during the war of secession. He was a kind neighbor, a true and loyal friend, and in his death the county and community in which he lived looses one of her best citizens. He leaves many relatives and friends to mourn his death.

Dr. Lever Drowned in Creek.

Dr. J. D. F. Lever, a practicing physician living about 17 miles northwest of Columbia, near Bookman's, was drowned in Cedar Creek while attempting to cross the swollen stream with his daughter and her little child Friday. It was only by the heroic efforts of his son-in-law, Mr. Capers Lever, that the woman and child were saved from a like fate.

Dr. Lever was 73 years old and one of the oldest practitioners in the country.

Locals Won From Batesburg.

In a beautiful and at times exciting game of ball Saturday afternoon the locals won from Batesburg by a score of 6 to 3. This was the first of a series of games and the Lexington boys are justly proud of their victory. The Lexington team will probably go down to Batesburg the latter part of this week, at which time they hope

Notice.

To Teachers of Free Public Schools: The State Legislature, at last session, made no appropriation for Summer Schools, therefore, we will have no summer school or institute in Lexington this year.

It is advised by State Supt. of Education that all teachers, who can do so, will attend the Jamestown Exposition. The State made an appropriation for the exposition and it will be worth a great deal to teachers if they attend it. J. E. RAWL KYZER,
