Masonic.

A regular communication of Boylston Lodge, A. F. M., will be held at Boylston on Saturday, the 22nd inst., at 3 p. m. All members of this lodge are earnestly requested to be present as business of importance is to be transacted. By order W. M.

Hallman-Browne.

Miss Daisy Hallman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Hallman, of Batesburg, was married to Mr. John Browne, of Abbeville, on the 3rd, the ceremony being performed by J. C. Glover, notary public.

Brookland's Dispenser.

The Dispensary Board has appointed Mr. Julian A. Gayden dispenser at Brookland. It will be recalled that Mr. M. G. Caughman had been previously appointed, but for several reasons refused to have the place, which necessitated another appointment. The dispensary opens on July 1.

Obituary.

Eva Pearl was born April 12, 1907, and died May 2, 1907. She was a sweet little angel which came to Isaiah and Agnes Shealey's home to stay the short period of eighteen days. God took her to himself to be an angel in the heavens above forever and ever.

To Teachers.

To the Lexington County Teachers: The State Teachers' Association meets at Chick Springs from June 24th to 26th. On Tuesday afternoon there will be a departmental session of the School Improvement Association. The entire program of the association is to be very attractive, and at its meeting you will have the opportunity of hearing, not only some of South Carolina's best educators, but also some of note from other states.
Reduced rates by railway.

Protracted Services.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Lexington Baptist church next Sunday night. The pastor will be assisted by the Rev. W. W. Glover, of Augusta, Ga. Our morning services will be called in on account of installation services at the Lutheran church in this place. We hope our congregation will attend that service. Remember our meeting will begin on Sunday night. The public cordially invited to attend these services.
W. L. Keel, Pastor.

Card of Thanks.

To the Editor of the Dispatch: Please allow me space in your paper to return my sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors at my home and in Brookland who assisted me and his dear wife during the illness of my dear son and her husband. May the blessings of an Allwise Providence rest upon them, as I feel I will never be able to return the great favors shown me and my family.
May God bless them is our sincere prayer.
D. I. Epting and Family.
Mrs. Maggie Epting.

House Burned.

A house belonging to Dr. D. M. Crosson and occupied by Mr. James Ford at Fredonia, was burned last Wednesday. The occupants of the house were absent at the time and Mr. Ford lost all of his household effects. Dr. Crosson carried partial insurance on the building. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue.

Butler-Meetze.

Mrs. John Henry Meetze has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Alice Victoria, to Capt. John Wilson Butler. The marriage will be solemnized in St. Stephen's Lutheran church on Monday morning, June 17th, at half past nine o'clock. The couple will leave immediately afterwards on an extended bridal tour, taking in the Jamestown Exposition and all the principle cities in the north.
