Notice.

The Supervisor and public generally, will please take notice that after August 1, 1907, I will discontinue running a public ferry, therefore, I will not be responsible for passengers attempting to use the same. THOS. L. AMICK. 2w.

At the Poor House.

Rev. J. A. Cromer will preach at the poor house next Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Article Too Late.

The Dispatch received an interesting and lengthy article from "Justice" but on account of the lateness of the train yesterday afternoon, we are unable to get it in this week. However, it will appear in our next issue.

First Sweet Potatoes.

Mr. John Rish, of Edmund, laid on the editor's table yesterday, three sweet potatoes of this year's crop. They are not, of course, overly large, but fully large enough for ordinary use. Mr. Rish is a good farmer and an expert potato grower.

Business Increasing.

The partition in Derrick's Drug Store has been taken down, which adds much more room to the interior of the store. The increase in business of this well known firm necessitated the change.

Marriage in Brookland.

On Sunday afternoon Miss Mary Padgett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Padgett, of Brookland, was quietly married to Mr. H. E. Price, of Timmonsville. Rev. S. R. Bass performed the ceremony. Both are popular and numerous congratulations are being received.

Passenger Wreck.

A passenger train, with 20 passengers aboard, from Florence to Hartsville, was wrecked on a trestle about three miles from Hartsville, Sunday morning. Two passengers were more or less seriously injured. The spreading of the rails caused the wreck.

Masonic.

An extra communication of Pomaria Lodge No. 151, A. F. M., will convene in Masonic hall, Peak, S. C., Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. 23rd of July. The F. C. and E. A. degrees will be conferred. D. D. G. M. Hunter will be with us. Visiting brethren welcome. John C. Swygert, Master.

Fine Candies.

Everybody loves good, fresh candy. Realizing this fact we have purchased and just received a full line of the famous Lyon handmad candies, in peanut brittle, peanut taffy, cream cocoanut, rose and cream taffy, glazed cocoanut, sugar peanuts, salted peanuts. Try a pound of sugar peanuts and salted peanuts. Come now, while the line is fresh and complete.

Baseball.

There will be a game of baseball tomorrow at Mathias' Mineral Spring between Oak Grove and a Columbia team. Irmo defeated Oak Grove by a score of 3 to 1, at Mathias' Mineral Spring on Saturday afternoon last. Batteries—Irmo, Wingard and Wingard; Oak Grove, Cromer and Mathias. Lexington will play Red Bank tomorrow afternoon.

Other Cotton Blossoms.

Dr. Blue Mountain Joe Harman sent us on Thursday a cotton blossom, which came from his farm on Black Creek. On Friday, Mr. Darling L. Jefcoat, of Swasee, sent us one also which came from his farm of one hundred and twenty-five acres on the 26th. So, they were all close together. Mr. Dallas Wessinger, of Irene, also sent a blossom. His field is full of them.

Notice.

I have been requested to announce that there will be a display of Farmers' Institute exhibited from two cars by Clemson college at Peak, S. C., on Wednesday, 7th day of August, next, at about 11 o'clock a. m. Everybody is invited and urged to come and bring a basketful of something good to eat. Come, and let's give these people a hearty welcome, and have a good old time in general. 5w36 John C. Swygert.

Miss Annie Brown Ill.

It is indeed sad to chronicle the illness of Miss Annie Brown, who has been the popular milliner at W. P. Roof's during the season just closed. Miss Brown had made arrangements to go to her home in North Carolina to spend her vacation and was to leave here Friday, but now she is detained by illness which will make it impossible for her to leave for several days yet. But few young women are possessed of the many beautiful traits of character as is this beloved young woman, and it is the sincere wish of all that her recovery will be complete within a very short time.

Regular communication of Pomaria Lodge, No. 151, will be held in Masonic Hall, Peak, S. C., Saturday, 7:30 o'clock P. M., July 20th. Visiting brethren welcome. Jno. C. Swygert, W. M.

A Delightful Party.

The fish fry given by Miss Martha Hendrix Caughman in honor of her guest, Miss Francis Bull, of Columbia, last evening at the beautiful country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Caughman, was one of the most delightful events of the season despite the fact that it began to rain early in the evening and continued until late in the night. Fish were plentiful and other delightful delicacies were served during the evening. Miss Caughman proved—as she always does on like occasions—to be a charming and elegant little hostess, and her guests spent a most enjoyable evening. Those making up the party were:

Misses Annie Lou and Mae Taylor, Helen and Mae Corley, Viola Bickley, Mae Boozer, Iceline Harman, Sallie and Katie Roberts, Sadie Lealie, Lucy Daniel Wingard, Mary Graham and Cecil Mitchell, of Leesville. Messrs. Sam and Lucius Bickley, Robert and Roy Leslie, Robert Marks, Harry Roberts, Fred Corley, Willie Schwartz, Brooks and Frank Wingard, Ernest Meetze, Fort Graham, Walter Kleckley, Heber Barre, Irenus Warner and Dr. Frank Roberts.

Col. John F. Hobbs.

It was indeed a pleasure to see our old friend, Col. John F. Hobbs, now of New York but a former Lexington county man, on last Friday. Col. Hobbs, besides being a lawyer of great renown, is connected with several New York papers, chief ruler of the "Thirteen" club, and stands high in the social circles of his city.

Col. Hobbs is a man of most pleasing and charming personality and is unsurpassed as a conversationalist. He has been visiting his relatives at Leesville, Newberry and other points in the South. It is always a pleasure to meet Col. Hobbs.

Board of Education.

Supt. of Education, J. E. R. Kyzer, Prof. Thad W. Dreher and Col. John Bell Towill, board of school examiners, were busily engaged yesterday issuing commissions to the various school trustees of the county, a list of which will be published later. They also had under consideration other important matters pertaining to the interest of the schools of our county, and we are pleased to hear that the citizens in several school districts are alive as to better teachers and better educational advantages generally. This is the proper spirit and we feel satisfied that the time is near when we will have better schools in the county.

Ten Hour Law in Effect.

The ten hour law, passed by the last Legislature in reference to cotton mill operatives, went into effect Monday. They only work 62 hours a week now and after January 1, 1908, they will only work 60 hours. All the mills had arranged for the new schedule, and are now running without any inconvenience. The shorter hours are welcomed by the hands.

A Popular Restaurant.

The Parlor Restaurant, run by Mr. Ben David, in Columbia, is indeed a popular place to get a meal. There is no place in the city where you can get a meal better prepared or at a more reasonable price, than at Ben David's. Here you get everything that the market affords. Meals are served at all hours and nothing is left undone that would add to your enjoyment. Lexingtonians, while in Columbia on business or pleasure, can always find a good meal at the Parlor Restaurant.

Assessments Changed.

The State board of assessors at their adjourned meeting last Thursday, made a number of changes in the cotton mill assessments. Only one in this county is effected by the change. The assessment of the mill at Irene was reduced from $50,000 to $38,400.

Piney Woods News.

To the Editor of The Dispatch: The long, dry period has been broken by fine, refreshing showers, which was greatly needed.

Mrs. Jas. A. Epting, from near Leesville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. P. Amick.

Mr. J. B. Oswald and sons, William and Noah, Mr. Frank Price and son, Charlie, of the Priceville section, were fishing at Amick's Ferry, last week.

We notice in your last issue that Mr. T. L. Amick will soon stop running a public ferry. We hope that he will reconsider the matter and continue to run the ferry for the convenience of the general public.

N. S. Derrick and D. W. Frick have started on the rounds with their threshing machine.

The Sunday school convention at Piney Wood's church, will begin on Friday, before the first Sunday in August. The choir is getting up appropriate selections for the occasion. PATRON.

From Pine Ridge.

To the Editor of The Dispatch: The farmers of this section are busy sowing and planting peas. Crops are looking fine since the recent rains.

Mrs. Rosa Epting, of the Macedonia section, is improving. She is one of the oldest residents in the county, having reached the advanced age of 93 years.

Efforts are being made to have another rural route established from Chapin.

Blackberries are being gathered in place of peaches and apples. June 28th. T. H.

Swasee Locals.

To the Editor of the Dispatch: Miss Ellen Haigler, one of Cameron's pretty daughters and a favorite summer visitor of Swasee, returned home Monday after a three weeks visit here.

Little Miss Sarah Dantzier has gone to her home in Cameron after a visit to relatives here.

Mrs. Will Rogers, of Savannah, visited her parents here last week.

Mr. Dudley Langford, of Prosperity, spent several days with his brother, Dr. J. R. Langford, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. F. Rast, with their sons, Herbert and Carlisle, visited the Jamestown exposition recently. They report a delightful trip.

Mrs. W. T. Brooker has returned from a ten days stay in Norway.

Mrs. Yarborough and her talented and charming daughter, Miss Annie, left Wednesday for their home in Atlanta, after an extended visit to relatives here.

Mrs. W. B. Rast enjoyed a few days visit from her friend, Miss Isla Steadman, of Springfield, last week.

The Children's Day exercises were presented before a large and appreciative audience at the Baptist church Sunday evening. They were good and reflected credit on the ladies who trained them.

Dr. L. C. Brooker spent several days in Columbia last week in attendance upon the Hughes-Browning wedding.

Miss Lilla Gantt was in Columbia the greater part of last week.

Miss Marie Dukes has returned to her home in Branchville after visiting her brother, Rev. G. W. Dukes.

Mr. C. M. Varn has left Swasee for a vacation of several weeks. He will visit the exposition before returning.

Mr. W. H. Johnson, of Scotia, spent Sunday in town with relatives.

Farms around Swasee have improved very much within the past three weeks and are looking well. Tip.

Swasee, S. C., July 2, 1907.

Jas. W. Rutland Dead.

All Batesburg was shocked on Monday when it became known that Mr. Jas. W. Rutland had entered into that rest from whence no traveler ever returns. He had only been sick a few days—since Thursday of last week, when he was taken suddenly ill with pneumonia.

Jas. W. Rutland was just in the bloom of young manhood, only 27 years old, and the future seemed bright, prosperous and happy for him. For the past few years he had been book-keeper for his brother, Mr. M. E. Rutland, and his friends were numerous.

He is survived by his mother, two brothers and two sisters.

A Beautiful Souvenir.

Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell, of Charleston, are sending out beautiful Souvenirs in the shape of a very neatly printed and carefully gotten up pamphlet, which carries numerous information as to Charleston, and is very invaluable to those who desire to visit this delightful and quaint old city.

Negro Killed in Edgefield.

E. T. Chappell, a prominent farmer living near Edgefield, shot and killed an elderly negro, George Griffin, yesterday morning.

It is claimed that the killing was caused by the negro breaking a farm contract. Chappell was released on bail the same day.

Hon. J. Wm. Thurmond, of Edgefield, accompanied by his two handsome young sons, spent last Thursday in Lexington on legal business. Mr. Thurmond is one of the best lawyers in the State, and a former solicitor of this district.
