MRS. SALLIE GIBSON PUT UNDER $7,500 BOND.

Columbia Woman, Who Was Robbed of $61,000, Receives Many Proposals of Marriage.

San Antonio, Texas, June 27.—Mrs. Sallie Gibson, who was robbed and assaulted by Rufus Williams, has been put under a bond of $7,500 to remain and prosecute Williams. After making bond, her $61,000 in cash was turned over to her. Acting on the advice of Gen. Willie Jones of Columbia, S. C., Mrs. Gibson left the money on deposit with one of the local banks.

A charge of lunacy was preferred against her, but withdrawn in order that her evidence against Williams could be admitted.

Since the notoriety gained by the robbery, Mrs. Gibson has received proposals of marriage from all parts of the United States, but has not found a husband to her liking. She has been so besieged by real estate agents, trying to sell her property, that she had to apply for protection.

Rufus Williams has been indicted on four counts, one of them being assault and robbery with fire arms, which is a capital offense. For that reason he has been unable to give bond and will remain in jail until his trial this fall.—The State, June 28.

Best Medicine in the World for Colic and Diarrhoea.

"I find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to be the best remedy in the world," says Mr. C. L. Carter of Skirum, Ala. "I am subject to colic and diarrhoea. Last spring it seemed as though I would die, and I think I would if I hadn't taken Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a very severe attack and took half a bottle of the twenty-five cent size Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.

Girls Should Remember.

That the home kitchen, with mother for teacher, and a loving, willing daughter for pupil, is the best cooking school on earth.

That "the most excellent thing in woman"—a low voice—can only be acquired by home practice.

That true beauty of face is only possible where there is beauty of soul manifested in a beautiful character.

That the girl everybody likes is not affected, and never whines, but is just her sincere, earnest, helpful self.

And, finally, that one of the most beautiful things on earth is a pure, modest young girl—one who is her father's pride, her mother's comfort, her brother's inspiration, and her sister's ideal,—which girl we should all try to be.

Carrie Nation Fined.

Mrs. Carrie Nation was fined $25 in the police court in Washington, D. C., Wednesday night on charge of creating a disturbance at a saloon. She paid the fine and said it was the 29th penalty that had been imposed upon her by the courts of the country.

Confessed Crime on the Gallows

Mobile, Ala., June 21.—Willis McClelland, a negro, was hanged in the county jail yard here at 5:15 o'clock this morning for the murder of Michael McGovern, an aged resident of the city.

McClelland confessed to the murder, despite his denials of the crime up to yesterday.

McClelland was pronounced dead in 14 minutes after the trap fell.

Rev. W. A. Kelly Dead.

Rev. William Aiken Kelly, who, it will be remembered so mysteriously disappeared from North Augusta about two years ago and of whom no trace could be found, died in Charleston last Wednesday. He was a Methodist minister, and extremely popular with his congregation up to the time of his mysterious disappearance.

During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by The Kaufmann Drug Co.

N. M. Truax, aged 16, was drowned while in bathing in a stream near Lumpkin, Ga., last week.

W. S. Smith of Carlisle, Union county, aged 56, was thrown from his buggy in a runaway last Tuesday and killed.

Chew What You Know About and Know What You Are Chewing

There is real pleasure in chewing the best tobacco grown—where the best tobacco grows—in the famous Piedmont Country.

Only choice selections of this well-matured and thoroughly cured tobacco is used in making SCHNAPPS. That's why SCHNAPPS and others of the Reynold's brands, as shown by the Internal Revenue statistics for a fiscal year, made the wonderful growth of six and one-quarter million pounds, or a net gain of one-third of the entire increased consumption of chewing and smoking tobaccos in the United States.

Evidently, chewers cannot resist the flavor and they cheer SCHNAPPS because SCHNAPPS cheers them more than any other chewing tobacco, and every man that chews SCHNAPPS passes the good thing along—one chewer makes other chewers—until the fact is now established that there are many more chewers and pounds of tobacco chewed, to the population, in those States where SCHNAPPS tobacco was first sold than there are in the States where SCHNAPPS has not yet been offered to the trade.

SCHNAPPS is like a cup of fine Java coffee, sweetened just enough to bring out its natural, stimulating qualities. SCHNAPPS pleases all classes of chewers: the rich, because they do not find a chew that really pleases them better at any price; the poor, because it is more economical than the large 10c. or 15c. plugs and they get their money's worth of the real snappy, stimulating flavor so appreciated by tobacco lovers. All imitations contain much more sweetening than SCHNAPPS. They are made that way to hide poor tobacco improperly cured.

For the man who chews tobacco for tobacco's sake, there is no chew like SCHNAPPS.

Sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. Cuts, Strictly 10c. and 15c. Plugs

A Scientific Opinion.

There is a certain cooking school where every day in the week large classes of girls convene for instruction in the gentle art of raising the dough. Last week a class of 30 rather impractical girls, as most of them are, was studying the doughnut scientifically.

One of the dullest pupils in the class, who never could learn to boil water without burning it, was rather inattentive while the teacher was lecturing on "Sinkers."

Thinking to catch her and administer a rebuke on her inattention, the teacher suddenly broke off and asked: "Miss Smith, what is the healthiest part of the doughnut?"

Miss Smith straightened up, flushed up, stood up and replied: "Why—why, the hole I believe."

A Wonderful Happening.

W. Alva Jackson, one of the most prominent young business men of Aiken, was arrested and committed to jail on Wednesday charged with stealing brass and metal fixtures from the water works plant.
