LEWIS FOUND NOT GUILTY.

Second Defendant in North Carolina Lynching Case Acquitted and Jury Has Been Discharged.

Charlotte, N. C., July 25.—The efforts of the State of North Carolina to bring to justice the twenty-odd citizens of Anson county who took J. V. Johnson from Wadesboro jail the night of May 28, 1906, and lynched him, came to an abrupt termination this afternoon when the jury in the case of Zeke Lewis, the second of the lynchers to be tried, returned a verdict of not guilty.

The jury was out an hour and three quarters and when the verdict was announced Judge Peebles, who has been presiding at Union county superior court, formally discharged it and stated that he would not go into the trial of another one of the men indicted, there being too much feeling in both Union and Anson counties in favor of the defendants to hope for a conviction. He urged Solicitor Robinson to move for a removal of the other cases to some other county. The other eighteen defendants were required to give bonds of five thousand dollars for their appearance at the January term of Union county court. Johnson, the victim of the mob's vengeance, was under indictment for the murder of relative Guin Johnson, and was awaiting trial at a special term of Anson county court when lynched. Twenty-three men were indicted for the crime, and three fled the State and have never been apprehended.

Little Willie leaves a father, mother, two sisters and one brother to mourn his loss. Three sisters having gone on before to welcome him to the mansions above.

Mother.

No sweeter woman ever trod the earth THAN mother!
A flower of sweetness, to her soul at birth
Hands of her infants clung with baby grace,
And little eyes looked up into her face
And little lips of love in childhood bliss
Felt the soft roseleaf of her velvet kiss;
With happiness too much for tongue to tell,
They wandered trustful in her beautiful spell!

No gentler spirit ever dwelt with men THAN mother.
Bringing the old time sweetness back again,
With charms of rapture, patient heart control,
No grander courage in a stronger soul,
Serene above disaster and content
With the sweet love she gathered as she went
From those who draw about her day by day
In the calm beauty of her motherway!

No sweeter name, no sweeter spell of life THAN mother!
Down the dark valley of the years of strife,
O mother, mother, we go our way
As men found fighting where the lightnings play,
Look back with longing to your arms of old,
And dream the dreaming of their sweet enfold,
And know your goodness, and are glad to creep
On the soft pillow of your breast to sleep!

Philadelphia, July 15.—Smashing windows, upsetting show cases, hurling entire stocks of Kosher meat dealers into the streets, soaking meat with kerosene, severely beating many persons, a mob of thousands of women swept the Jewish quarter today and it was several hours before the police could cope with the situation.

Increase of prices by the butchers caused the riot. A number of women were severely beaten and many women and children were trampled upon.

THE HARD TIMES 'LL GIT YOU.

[With apologies, of course.]
Mr. Edward Harriman is filling with dismay.
Says we're rollin' onward to a dark an' bitter day.
Says he's full o' silvers an' he's most tremendous skeered
'Cause there maybe won't be any more banks to be skeered.
First he gave a whisper, but today he gives a shout—
The hard times 'll git you if you don't watch out!

Mr. Rockefeller's got a new congestive chill;
Clamped a double lock upon his money box an' till;
Looks into the future, an' he can't see no relief;
Fears that you an' me are far upon the way to grief;
Combs his wig an' murmurs in a voice that's full of doubt,
The hard times 'll git you if you don't watch out!

Lawson's in a frenzy with his articles an' ads;
Warns us that the system's got the money of our dads;
Creeps right up behind us till his breath is on our neck,
Then he hisses hoarsely that we's bound to have a wreck;
Begg don't hock your jewels or you'll hustle up the spout—
The hard times 'll git you if you don't watch out!

Better save your money an' be keeful what you spend,
Pay back what you borrow an' look out for what you lend;
Put away your pennies an' git friendly with your job;
Old Hard Times is knockin' an' is turnin' at the knob.
Don't go livin' splendid till you're crippled with the gout—
The hard times 'll git you if you don't watch out!

—Willbur D. Nesbit in Chicago Evening Post.

The Green Eyed Monster.

Washerwoman (to poet)—I hope you won't write any more love poems on your cuffs. My husband is beginning to be jealous.—Meggendorfer Blatter.

Wouldn't Interrupt the Argument.
Down in Cochran, Ga., the affairs of civil justice are administered by Judge Edwards, who is also an enthusiastic farmer. One cloudy spring afternoon court was convened to try a peculiarly tortuous and perplexing case. Judge Edwards listened, with growing unrest. He was observed at last to seize a slip of paper, scribble a few words, place the document beneath a heavy paperweight and reach for his hat.

"Captain," he called cheerily, "excuse me fur interruptin' you, sub. You go right on with your argument, which is a darned good one. It's suah goin' to rain this evenin', gentlemen, an' I got to set out my potatoes right away. But you go right on, captain! When you an' the major get through you-all 'll find my decision under this heah paperweight."

The door closed upon an astonished orator.—Nashville Banner.

Couldn't Answer.
Mr. Brown is daffy on the subject of scientific problems, but his wife has no sympathy with him in this direction.

The other evening he laid down his paper and remarked to his wife:

"That's odd."

"What?" she inquired.

"Why, the statement that it would take 12,000,000 years to pump the sea dry at the rate of 1,000 gallons a second."

"She thought over the statement profoundly for a few seconds and then innocently asked:

"Where would they put all the water?"—Harper's Weekly.

Too Much.

First College Graduate—I hear you have a job. What doing?

Second College Graduate—Oh, running errands, cleaning ink wells, and so forth."

"Like it?"

"First rate—that is, until my employer had the nerve to ask me out to his house to dinner. It's pretty tough to have to associate with your social inferiors out of business hours."—New York Life.
