Curing a Balking Horse.

A great deal has been written on the subject of the balky horse and mule. Very bad cases of the disease have often been cured. John Dimon, a really experienced horseman, in his very practical book on "American Horses and Horse Breeding," says: "When quite a young man I was conceited enough to believe myself able to swap horses and hold my own with the average horse jockeys of those days. A result was that I occasionally got more in a horse than I bargained for and anticipated getting, an occasional balker included. "I distinctly recollect that on one occasion I purchased a large bay mare, sound and apparently all right, but she considered it far beneath her to handle any load more than a buggy or occasionally a family carriage. When I hitched her to a load of fence-rails she utterly refused to take any part in their transportation. "At that time of life I was young and hasty in disposition. I was farming and annoyed. My plans were being delayed. I tried the use of the whip, but it did more harm than good. I changed the plan, going to the woods and tying her to a tree, leaving her alone for the afternoon. Toward night I made a visit and hitched her to a wagon. She refused to move. Once more I tied her to the tree. "She was thus left to reflect until the morning. Then she was evidently getting lonesome as well as hungry and thirsty. Again she was tired and left in her glory because she yet positively refused to work, as wanted. She was regularly visited. At last the time came for her to be glad to see the visitor. She whinnied with joy at his approach. "I again hitched her to the wagon, and you may be sure she was glad and anxious to move that wagon. The result of the whole matter was that I owned the mare upward of two years, and scarcely ever had a better pulling one along or in a team, and when I finally sold her I warranted her to pull in any or all harness." The evidence is that there is no use for mere force.—Home and Farm.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth.

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Guaranteed under the Food and Drug act, June 30, 1906. Serial number 1908. It is the best of all.

Sand Dam Items.

To the Editor of The Dispatch: We are glad to note that our good friend, Mr. Levi Rish, who has been quite sick with typhoid fever for the past several days, is able to be out again. Mr. Lloyd Gunter is all smiles over the arrival of another boy. Fodder pulling is a thing of the past and cotton picking is now in order. The crops in this section are fine, especially corn and peas. Sept. 21. E.

World's Oldest Mason.

James Bellows McGregor, the oldest Mason in the world, celebrated his 106th birthday with a public reception at Mount Sunapee, N. H., recently. McGregor is a native of that town and was born September 6, 1801. He is enjoying very good health, can read ordinary print and has a good memory. He is nearly as well preserved as is the average man at 60 or 70. He joined the Masons in 1827, Mount Vernon Lodge, of Newport, attended the reception in a body. He shook hands with a thousand people.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.

Overheard in The Country.

Wilfred: Mamma, we were up in Farmer Crosby's yard, watching the eggs in his incubator. His Mother: Did anything come out? Wilfred: Yep; Farmer Crosby—and he chased us.—The Circle.

A Get-Rich Quick Scheme.

Knicker: I save twenty cents every time I shave myself. Mrs. Knicker: Then why don't you shave five times a day and save more?—The Circle.

The New Pure Food and Drug Law.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. Derrick's Drug Store.

Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, the "witch of finance," is suffering from a nervous collapse and was for a time blind. The physician stated that the blindness was only temporary and was due to an exaggerated nervous attack. The first issue of the South Carolina Pythian, the official organ of the Grand Lodge of the order in the state, has made its appearance. Col. E. H. Aull, of Newberry, is managing editor, and Messrs. D. C. Heyward, M. Rutledge Rivers, J. Thos. Arnold and J. F. Williams constitute the publishing board. An onion poultice will extract the pain and heat from a scald or burn. To make this poultice take a certain quantity of onions and crush them and lay between cheesecloth and apply to the burn.

Personals.

Mr. W. P. Leaphart, of New Brookland, true to and thoughtful of his obligations, remitted his dues to The Dispatch last Thursday. Mr. J. Sol Dooley, one of our best truck farmers, on route 4, was in town one day last week and certainly did not forget the printers. Mr. J. R. W. Sease, a prosperous and energetic farmer of Gilbert, was here last week and gave our office a pleasant and profitable call. Mr. E. P. Shealy, of route one, Gilbert, a clever and good citizen, availed himself of the opportunity of Uncle Sam's mail facilities and kindly sent us his dues. Mr. Jno. W. Hendrix, an honest Christian gentleman, of Switzerneck, was in town Thursday and dropped in to see us which was pleasant and profitable.

Little Things.

A Good-Bye kiss is a little thing, With your hands on the door to go, But it takes the venom out of the sting Of a thoughtless word or a cruel fling, That you made an hour ago. A kiss of greeting is sweet and rare After the toil of the day, And it smoothes the furrows plowed by care The lines on your forehead you once called fair, In the years that have blown away. 'Tis a little thing to say, "You are kind, "I love you, dear," each night; But it sends a thrill through your heart, I find, For love is tender, love is blind, As we climb life's rugged height. We starve each other for love's caress, We take, but we do not give; It seems so easy some soul to bless, But we dole the love grudgingly less and less, Till 'tis bitter and hard to live. —Margaret E. Sangster.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best in my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Co., Greenville, Ala. For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.

Prohibition Won in Oklahoma.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 19.—Returns from yesterday's election that arrived today and tonight continue to indicate that the constitution was adopted 3 to 1, that prohibition was carried by at least 30,000 and that the whole Democratic State ticket, headed by Charles W. Haskell, of Muscogee, was elected by 20,000 plurality. In the congressional election, the democrats seem to have chosen four of the five representatives, according to the returns received tonight. The legislature is democratic by a large majority and will elect as United States senators Robert L. Owen, a Cherokee Indian, and T. P. Gore, a blind orator. They were nominated by primaries in June.

Will Hold For 15 Cents.

At a meeting of Greenwood county branch of the Southern Cotton Association held at the court house Monday and presided over by President W. J. Moore, W. L. Anderson, secretary, the price of 15 cents for cotton was enthusiastically ratified. The county union W. L. Anderson, president, met soon after in secret session and also ratified the price. Stirring speeches were made. The farmers were in earnest. They voted to sell their cotton through the Farmers' Warehouse.—Greenwood Index.
