Calhoun County Election.

Gov. Ansel yesterday issued an order for an election for Calhoun county to be held on December 17. The territory embraced in the proposed new county takes in parts of Lexington and Orangeburg counties and there have been several legal objections raised to the election. However Gov. Ansel decided last Thursday to order an election after a report of the surveyors had been filed and yesterday issued the official proclamation. The people in the counties affected are taking much interest in the election and there will probably be a very close contest.—The State, Oct. 29.

Yes, Call and See Him.

Among the many attractions during Fair week in Columbia, our people should not fail to see the grand display of merchandise exhibited at J. L. Minnaugh & Co's., store. Everything in each department is elegantly arranged and if you should need anything handled by this firm you will find it marked at right prices. Four stores carrying a stock of goods equal to any house in the south. Mr. Minnaugh deserves a large share of the public's trade. He is an open hearted and public spirited gentleman and is always delighted to meet his friends and customers. He arrived in this country from Ireland, a poor boy, but by being full of business, pluck and energy, he has accumulated considerable wealth and is now considered one of the best men in Columbia. Call and see him.

Mr. R. D. Haltiwanger, Sick.

Our assistant editor and printer, Mr. R. D. Haltiwanger, who has suffered from catarrhal fever for nearly six weeks past, is now still very sick, his case developing into typhoid fever, but we hope with care and attention he may soon recover and be out again. Our citizens have been very kind to him and his dear wife, which they appreciate beyond expression.

Mr. F. W. Oswald, Sick.

We regret to state that on Thursday night Mr. F. W. Oswald, of Barra, president of The Home Bank, received a paralytic stroke, from which he now lies prostrate at his home. Mr. Oswald had been feeling unwell for some time, but this shock came unexpectedly. He is an excellent man and we trust he may soon recover.

Attended the Fair.

Mr. T. H. Meighan, the cashier of the Carolina National Bank and Mr. T. Alex Heise, were over at our County Fair last Wednesday. Mr. Heise drove his pacing stallion "Jim Kennedy" 2.09 1/4, which is one of the handsomest stallions in South Carolina. Mr. Meighan and Mr. Heise takes great interest in the Fair and have been attending it for ten years.

Pay Up.

We request all in anyway indebted to us either for subscription or advertising to please call or send and settle. At this season our paper and other bills are heavy and must be met promptly while the amounts due by each individual may seem small, yet when all are paid in they amount to considerable, so each one acting promptly will assist us greatly, and which we will appreciate.
