Our merchants are doing a lively trade. This has become an excellent cotton market, the prices ranging above the medium.
The school is on the increase, and after the public term begins on the first Monday, will be full.

Dr. Oxner left yesterday to resume his studies in the Augusta Medical college. He has made many friends since he came here in May.
The young and blushing carrier of route 4 is off on a vacation. He left yesterday for Florida and expects to see summer time and "sketeers" plenty down there. During his absence his sub will distribute the U. S. business on his route.
Rev. Inabinet sees the marrying of all Rev. Wessinger's applicants for matrimony during his absence.
