

A Cordial Welcome Awaits all Lexingtonians, AND THE PUBLIC GENERALLY, AT J. L. MIMNAUGH & COMPANY'S, Columbia.

Yes, you are welcome. Make our store your headquarters. Come in and look through one of the grandest displays of merchandise you ever witnessed. Four stores packed and crammed with every class of desirable goods manufactured and priced to suit every class of purchaser. We cannot enumerate if we wished, but ask you to call and look for yourselves, at the select lines in Dry Goods, Notions, Millinery, Ladies' Suits, Cloaks, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Carpets, Mattings, China and Crockery, House Furnishings, etc. Polite and attentive salesmen and ladies to show you through.
You will be pleased with your visit.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Why are Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

The County Treasurer's collections thus far are good.

We go to press early Wednesday morning in order to make the mail.

We certainly enjoyed ourselves in Columbia last week.

See the line of beautiful postal cards and postal card albums at the Bazaar.

FOR SALE—A good second-hand pheasant at a bargain. Apply to THOS. P. MEETZE.

Mr. John Snider, an industrious farmer on route 2, paid us a pleasant visit Monday.

The very latest styles in mens and boys felt hats can be found at Meeze & Sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rawl, of Lawley, Fla., is on a visit to the former's parents here.

Col. and Mrs. M. D. Harman and Miss Anna Lou are taking in the Augusta Fair.

Rev. W. H. Hiller and Mr. Jas. E. Hendrix left today to attend the S. C. Synod at Spartanburg.

We are pleased to state that Mr. D. E. Hiltwanger is now free of fever and is improving.

Mr. J. J. Schwartz is quite ill at his home on Lower Main street. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. Walter Shealy, one of Hollow Creek's best citizens, was in town Monday and made us a pleasant call.

We extend our thanks to Miss Martha Hendrix Caughman for a beautiful bunch of chrysanthemums and roses.

Mr. Dannie Gantt, one of the best "tellers" down on Black Creek, was up at court as a witness Monday and made us a pleasant call.

Say, are you due anything for your paper? Let us have it please. Call or send it by mail, or by your neighbor and oblige.

For your farm supplies, your groceries, standard hardware, etc., always go and see T. B. Anghtry & Co., Columbia, and they will treat you right.

Mrs. J. A. McClain, of Augusta, Ga., stopped over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Marks, while returning from the State Fair.

The school election at Irmo was held Friday and resulted in 13 votes in favor and 28 against the extra school levy.

Mr. J. J. Wessinger and M. N. Kleckley, two of Brookland's clever citizens, are in court and dropped in to see us.

Wheelwrights and blacksmiths will find it to their interest to call or send their orders for material to T. B. Anghtry & Co., Columbia, S. C.

Col. John Bell Towell was on our streets yesterday, shaking hands with his numerous friends. He is foreman of the grand jury.

Our friend S. P. Shumpert was in town Monday and renewed his subscription for another year. Sam is one of our oldest subscribers and is a clever man.

Messrs. Richardson & Son, White Rock, have just received a car load of Columbus wagons. If you are needing one see them before you buy.

FOR SALE—Buff Leghorn Cockerels, first and second premium at the State Fair. Will be sold for one dollar each. P. J. WESSINGER.

New Brookland.

Wilber, the youngest son of Mr. S. P. George had the misfortune to have his right arm terribly cut in a shingle mill last Saturday, but is doing very well at present.

Mr. Arthur N. Dreher, one of the Lower Fork's model farmers and a clever gentleman, paid us a pleasant and profitable call Monday.

Hon. N. B. Wannamaker was in town Monday. He will attend the Exposition at Jamestown and other points north and will be absent for about ten days.

LOST—Between Lexington and D. E. Ballentine's, on last Friday, a Lutheran hymn and service book. Liberal reward will be paid if left at The Dispatch office.

Miss Ellen Hendrix returned yesterday from Spartanburg where she attended the Missionary meeting of the Lutheran Synod in which she is an officer.

Mr. R. W. M. Eleazer, the very kind and courteous rural carrier, on route 2, from Peak, was here this week as a witness in court. Mr. Mc. D. Buhardt was also here on the same mission.

Have your money ready for the Editor when he calls on his rounds out in the county. See the tax collector's notice and his hours at the different places and be there promptly.

Mrs. W. E. Barre, of Waterloo, and Mrs. W. A. James, of Bishopville, have returned to their homes after a week's visit to Col. D. T. Barre, in the Boylston section.

Wedding and birthday presents and a line of beautiful goods are now ready for inspection at Harman's Bazaar. Call and see them whether you buy or not.

Col. D. T. Barr, one of our first subscribers, who has always kept in advance was here Monday and renewed his paper. We were sorry to see the Col. so feeble and trust his condition may improve.

Mr. Willie M. Schwartz, who is a popular clerk for the firm of Lorick & Lowrance, Columbia, came over yesterday afternoon to see his father who is sick at his home.

Miss Veda, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Barre, who has had typhoid fever for about five weeks, we are glad to say, is now free of fever and is doing very well.

Mr. Henry Layton, living on Mr. W. T. Barre's upper place, was badly bitten by a large moccasin last Saturday. The old reliable and popular remedy, "booze," was used freely and the patient is now doing very well.

Rev. J. J. Meyers has returned to his home in Congaree after spending a few days pleasantly with his sister, Mrs. J. J. Fox. He delivered two very interesting sermons in the Baptist church Sunday.

Leesville ginney was burned about 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning. Loss estimated at $8,000; insurance $2,000.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, It has come to our attention that our worthy brother, J. E. Barre, died on the 5th day of October, A. D. 1907, after a lingering illness; and

Whereas, he was a devoted and consistent member of this Lodge and Past Chancellor Commander thereof; and

Whereas, he, in his conduct during life, exemplified the true pythian spirit in his dealings with his fellows; and

Whereas, he lived the life of a noble minded gentleman and zealous Christian, concerning whom naught but good could be said, and thus reflected credit upon our Order;

Therefore, be it resolved, by Lexington Lodge, No. 134, Knights of Pythias;

1st. That we deeply deplore the early death of our brother, J. E. Barre, and that we mourn his death as a distinct loss, both to our Lodge and community.

2nd. That we extend to the bereaved relatives of our deceased brother deepest sympathy; and implore the supreme ruler of the universe to lend aid to their grief burdened hearts.

3rd. That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Lodge and a page thereof be dedicated to the memory of J. E. Barre; and that a copy of these resolutions suitable engraved be sent to his parents.

4th. That these resolutions be published in "The Lexington Dispatch and in South Carolina Pythian.

(Geo. Bell-Timmerman, Committee; Edwin G. Dreher, W. P. Roof.

New Brookland News.

Our town is steadily growing. Mr. Lemuel Hall has just started the erection of a nice residence. The Columbia Mill company has just completed a beautiful and commodious entertainment hall for the convenience of their people. Other improvements are noticed on all sides.

The New Brookland Graded school is in excellent condition. The trustees and patrons are highly pleased with the work being done by Prof. L. E. Whittle and his assistants, Miss Vera Houseal, in charge of the primary department, with Misses Teddy Mabyn, Pearl Youmans and Ella Wright in charge of the intermediate grades.

The New Brookland Bank opens this week for business. Mr. L. S. Trotti is president.

The Columbia Evening Record has established a news bureau in our town with W. R. Low as manager. Thus it can be seen that our town is beginning to receive deserved recognition from the business world.

Quite a number of our people are attending court this week.

We note that the Columbia Duck mill won the gold medal at the Jamestown exposition. Their operatives are residents of our town.

Mr. Steve B. Shipp, assistant "super" of the mill, had the misfortune to get his leg broken in a trolley car accident Saturday night.

Justice.

For Sale.

I have on hand some good young mules and horses and can save anyone money who wants to buy or trade. Come and see before you buy. I will have my stock at Barr, S. C., on next Saturday, November 9th.

DAVIS D. SMITH.

This is no hold-up. Every-time you spend a dollar with us we guarantee you a dollars' worth of value in exchange. That's fair.

Now while you are considering, make up your mind to come and see our $3.50 and $4.00 Men's Shoes the next time you come to Columbia. Come and see them, even if you are not ready to buy.

EHRlich's,

1643 Main St.,
1627 Main St., } COLUMBIA, S. C.

In the Shape of a Savings Account always at your command, has come to the rescue of many a business man.

Has paved the way for many a business opportunity, which usually comes but once in a lifetime.

Has saved much suffering for thousands in time of adversity.

Open your account at Our Savings Department, deposit often and have ready cash when needed. 4 per cent. interest paid quarterly on savings.

Carolina National Bank, COLUMBIA, S. C.

W. A. CLARK, President.
T. H. MEIGHAN, Cashier.

New Jersey elects a Democratic governor.

EXPERIENCE.

Years of Experience are at Your COMMAND.

Successful experience has been ours and we want everybody who has cause to feel that there is anything the matter with their eyes at all, to call and have us give them proper tests.

THERE ARE NO CHARGES FOR EXAMINATIONS.

CHARLES F. SENTZ,

OPTICIAN,
JEWELER,

1439 Main St., Columbia, S. C.

CARLOAD OF

BABCOCK BUGGIES.

This is the season to drive out and enjoy the fresh country air. The pleasure is greater when you go in a "BABCOCK" BUGGY. Ask your doctor! He uses a Babcock because it rides easier and lasts longer than any other make.

Full Line of all Styles of Surries and Runabouts.

We carry at all times a good assortment of medium and cheap buggies that will give you good service. Buying so often and in such large quantities we are in position to sell you as cheap as you can buy at the factory.

LOWEST PRICES. TERMS RIGHT. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN EVERY PURCHASE.

Gregory-Conder Mule Co.

1117 Hampton Avenue, Columbia, S. C.

1892. 1906.

Lexington Savings Bank.

LEXINGTON, S. C.

Oldest Bank in Lexington County.

Capital and Surplus $20,000.

DOES - A - GENERAL - BANKING - BUSINESS.

Accounts Invited on Favorable Terms. Interest at the Rate of 5 Per Cent Allowed in the Savings Department.

W. P. ROOF, Cashier.

ROBBINS & NOBLE,
1639 Main Street,
COLUMBIA, S. C.

The only exclusive Manufacturing Optical house in the city. We do a high class of work at reasonable prices. All work and material used absolutely guaranteed to give satisfaction. When in need of glasses come to headquarters and have your work done right. Do not be deceived by peddlers and fakers. They are with you today and are gone forever. Make our Optical Parlors your headquarters when in the city, whether you need glasses or not. We do our own lens grinding.

Warning.

This is to notify all persons not to hunt or trespass in any manner, whatever, upon my lands. I will positively enforce the law against all such trespassers.

John T. Warner.

Trespass Notice.

This is to notify all persons not to hunt, fish or trespass in any manner whatever upon my lands. The law will be enforced against all trespassing.

GEO. C. AREHART.

FROSTY WEATHER AND WINTER SUITS Go Together.

Come over to Columbia and look through our big stock.

Business Suits - $7.50 to 15.00
Fancy Worsteds Suits $13.50 to 16.50
Fine Dress Suits - $15.00 to 20.00
Overcoats - $6.50, $8.50, $10, $15
Felt Hats - $1, $1.50 to $2.50
Underwear-Suit - $1.00 to $3.00

ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING FOR MEN.

KINARD,

THE CLOTHIER,
1523 Main Street, Columbia, S. C.

Copyright 1907 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

Oct 21-4w.2p.