Presents at Sontz's.

In this issue of The Dispatch you will find a change in advertisement of Chas. F. Sontz, Columbia. This reliable firm has everything suitable for acceptable Christmas gifts.

Mr. W. D. Gray.

Mr. W. D. Gray, a prominent citizen of Brookland, died on Saturday night after an illness of several weeks. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and at one time an alderman of the town. He was buried in the Shuler cemetery Sunday, the last sad rites being performed by Rev. S. R. Bass in the absence of Rev. J. C. Holley, his beloved pastor.

"A Cooking Demonstration."

The Holman-Cullum Hardware Co., of Batesburg, will hold "A Cooking Demonstration" at their store for one week only, beginning next Monday, Dec. 9th. During this exhibition the "Great Majestic Range" will be in operation and hot biscuits and coffee will be served those in attendance free of charge.

Card From Mr. Hartley.

To the Citizens of Lexington: Please allow me to thank you for the many courtesies and kindnesses shown me during the 27 years in which I have been agent of the Southern railway at this place. During that time I have tried my best to do my duty, as I saw it, both to the company and to the public; and in handing in my resignation I do so with a feeling of satisfaction, realizing that I still have the confidence and esteem of the people of Lexington. Very cordially yours, A. L. HARTLEY.

Fruit Cake Ingredients.

Ladies, you will find a fresh stock of fruit cake ingredients such as seeded raisins, currants, citron, etc., and dressing, in all colors, icing tubes and sugar plums for Christmas and wedding cakes—all of these and much more you will find at The Bazaar.

Discussion of subjects as follows: The Teachers as an Example in Society—Prof E. R. Aycock. School Improvement—Miss Ethel Dreher. Can High School Studies find a place in the present system of country schools?—Prof. H. A. Brunson. 3rd. Election of delegate to the State Convention of School Improvement Association. Mary E. Wingard, Sec.

Seasonable Furniture.

When you are thinking about a Christmas present for your wife or daughter, think about the beautiful seasonable furniture just received at Scott Hendrix's Furniture Store. Bed room suites, parlor suites, dining suites, fine rockers, medium rockers, chairs of every description, baby carriages, go-carts, art squares, carpets, matings, rugs, etc., the equal of which has never been seen on this market. Just the thing for your house, and a more suitable present could not be found. The prices are most reasonable. You must see these goods to appreciate them.

Mr. Hartley Resigns.

Mr. A. L. Hartley, for 27 years depot agent of the Southern railway at this place, has resigned, his resignation going into effect on the 26th of November. He is succeeded by Mr. Kincaid. But few men have served the Southern so long and so well as Mr. Hartley, and his many friends received his resignation with regret. He will hereafter look after his extensive mercantile and farming interests.

Rutland's December Offerings.

On the front page of this issue we print an advertisement for that hustling business man and popular gentleman, Mr. M. E. Rutland, of Batesburg. Mr. Rutland has some wonderful bargains to offer you in buggies, wagons, harness, lap robes, etc. This is a special December offering and is due to the fact that he is going to put in one of the largest and most complete lines of hardware ever seen in this section of the State. When you go to Batesburg and you surely will go, to genial Mike Rutland's great big sale.

A Handkerchief Shower.

A "handkerchief Shower" will be a leading feature in an entertainment given by the School Improvement Association at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Clark, on the evening of Dec. 13. There will be an interesting program rendered, refreshments served and handkerchiefs sold. It will be an evening of pleasure for all who attend. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Lever Not A Candidate.

Congressman A. F. Lever passed through Columbia yesterday morning on his way to Washington to be present at the opening of congress. He stated positively that he is not a candidate for the United States senate. "I am not a candidate for the senate," he said, "and will not be in the coming campaign. My purpose is to ask for a reelection to the house."—The State, 30th.

Mrs. Bradley Acquitted.

Mrs. Anna Bradley, who has been on trial at Washington for the past four weeks for the murder of former U. S. Senator Browne, of Utah, has been acquitted. The trial attracted wide spread attention.

Letter to S. J. Leaphart.

Dear Sir: Every job Devoe is done with less gallons than ever before with any other paint. S. J. Field, Indiana, Fla. says: "All houses here are painted Devoe. The hot air is too trying for other paints. One coat Devoe is better than two of any other paint, so far as we know." Less gallons, less cost. Yours truly, F. W. Devoe & Co. P. S. The Kaufmann Drug Co. sells our paint.
