

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

What About Hard Times?

In this State we believe in the whole country there is a great cry of wolf when there is no wolf in reach and none approaching. There is a disposition to grumble and many people are crying hard times. Some raise that cry to conceal their thriftless habits; others cry out hard times when they have plenty of money and do not wish to pay debts or purchase desirable things for the family. There is perhaps $480,000 worth of cotton in this county in the hands of producers. There is more corn in the country than has been the first of January for the last ten years. There is no unusual pressure brought to bear on debtors. The merchants have had a good trade for the last four months. More men are getting on a cash basis than have been there for years. Get this hard times idea out of your head. Quit talking about it. When cotton is 10 to 11 cents, corn 90 cents, peas $2.00 and a strong demand for all surplus farm products, there ought to be no hard times on the farms. Common laborers on heavy work can get 75 cents to $1.00 a day and skilled mechanics $2.00 to $4.00 a day. There is work at a fair price for all who wish to work. Let all go to work and cease this everlasting talk about hard times.—Carolina Spartan.

An Insidious Danger.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. Derrick's Drug Store.

Finds Ring in Cabbage.

One day last week Mr. M. D. Dickens bought a cabbage at Charlie Saleeby's which he carried home for his wife to prepare for dinner. When Mrs. Dickens attempted to quarter the cabbage she found that the knife would not cut through. With the assistance of Mr. Dickens the cabbage was finally cut in two, when it was discovered that a heavy gold ring was imbedded near the centre. The only plausible explanation that can be given is that when the cabbage was young some person working at or near it dropped the ring which lodged in one of the leaves. As the cabbage cost only 15 cents and the ring is valued at $18 Mr. Dickens is quite well satisfied with the transaction.—Dillon Herald.

Avoid Extreme Fatigue.

Exercise that brings into action every muscle of the body is absolutely necessary in the attainment of health and perfect physical development.

Tired brain workers especially need exercise to renew the supply of blood in the brain, for new blood will give clear thought and new ideas.

To avoid that "all in" feeling after any violent or unusual exercises, Sloan's Liniment should be used as a rub-down.

Mr. Harry K. Gilman, instructor of athletics, 417 Warren Street, Roxbury Mass., writes: "During my connection with athletics and athletes, will say that I have used Sloan's Liniment in extreme cases of fatigue after physical exertion, where an ordinary rub would not prove beneficial, with splendid success. I have also used it in massaging elderly men afflicted with rheumatism.

"We always keep a bottle around the house for household emergency, and I always carry one in my grip, and will in the future."

Nothing but the bull-headed opposition of Joe Cannon prevents the passage of the Appalachian bill, says a North Carolina contemporary. So long as that is all, the bill has almost as good a chance for life as the proverbial tomat in Tartarus without teeth or toe nails.—Louisville Courier Journal.

So you know that it is bound to be a prosperous year, with five pay days in its shortest month.—Augusta Herald.

A Kansan Stops His Paper.

About two months ago one of our farmer friends dropped in and stopped his Farmer. He said he couldn't afford to take the paper and just had to do without it. He dropped in again last Saturday and planked down $1.50 for a year in advance—and then heaved a big sigh of relief. Everything had gone wrong since the Farmer ceased to visit him. His chickens refused to lay, his cow got on the alfalfa and died, and his hogs got the cholera. The rats knawed holes in his grainary and his wheat ran out and the birds ate it up. His windmill blew over and killed a horse, and his best shepherd dog got a bone in his throat and choked to death. His children got the measles and his wife mashed her thumb in the wringer and couldn't do any housework. Thieves broke into his smokehouse and stole his winter's supply of meats, and fire destroyed several stacks of his alfalfa. He bought groceries of a travelling faker and never got them, while his neighbor escaped because he read in the Farmer to watch out for crooks. His days were filled with misfortune and his nights with bad dreams. He stood it two months and then gave up the unequal struggle.—Osborne Farmer.

It Does The Business.

Mr. E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve: "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c. at Kaufmann Drug Co. and Derrick's Drug Store.

Mysterious Figures.

Put down the number of your living brothers.
Double the number.
Add three.
Multiply result by five.
Add number of living sisters.
Multiply result by ten.
Add number of dead brothers and sisters.
Subtract 150 from the result.
The right hand figure will be the number of deaths.
The middle figure will be the number of living sisters.
The left-hand figure will be the number of living brothers.
Strange freak of figures, isn't it?—Dixie Home.
