A DIRE CALAMITY.

Predicted by a So-called Prophet in Pennsylvania—Says the World Will Come to an End in the Latter Part of December Next.

A York, Pa., prophet, at least one who claims to be a prophet and whose prophecies have attracted the attention of people who care for that sort of thing, has issued his 1908 bulletin. It is his habit and his livelihood, of course, but this one is more startling than some of those previously issued. The following is his last bulletin:

The end of the world. The end of this world will come to an end in winter, in the end of the month of December on a Sunday, in the year 1908. Heaven and earth will pass away. Nineteen hundred and eight will be a year of trouble, such as was never known before, nation shall rise against nation. Kingdom shall rise against kingdom, There shall be famines and pestilences and earthquakes. Rivers will dry up.

The fish of the sea will die. The sea will boil up with a great noise. The cities of the nation will fall. Mountains will not be found. Islands will pass away. The city of Boston will sink. New York will go up in smoke. People will flee to the mountains. The land will dry up to get ready for fire.

The crops will fail and prosperity will be cut off. The banks will keep on falling. This cannot be stopped. Roosevelt will get rid of all his money.

The treasury will go dry. People will carry their money in their pockets and hide it in their homes. Families will steal it from one another. This is the gold that is piled up for the last days. This gold will rust in your pockets. It will give you more trouble than good.

Labor organizations will come under one head and rule the land. There will be great wrath among the people. Hatred, killing one another, hanging themselves, and children will rise against their parents; two against three, and three against two; mother-in-law against daughter-in-law. All plagues that are written in the bible will be brought forth.

The land will be full of lice, frogs, crickets and locusts. Whosoever be stung of the locust will die. There will be signs in the sun, in the moon and in the stars. In the end of time the sun will be black, and the land will be in distress. The moon will be as blood, the stars will fall and the heavens will be shaken. This coming summer and fall the elect, the saints, will be gathered together "For unto Jesus shall the gathering be."

The bride is getting ready to meet Jesus, the bridegroom, and we will be changed in the twinkling of an eye and meet the Lord in the air.—Ex.

"Bucketshop" Bill.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas returned to Washington today. He announced that he would introduce a so-called "bucketshop" bill in the senate on Monday. The measure is designed to prevent stock gambling and dealing in future sales of cotton and other products.

Special Announcement Regarding the National Pure Food and Drug Law.

John C. Jerry, a young German farmer, was acquitted of murder at Laurens last week. He was charged with having killed his brother. WIFE SHOTS SELF.

Sitting On Husband's Lap They Struggled for Weapon.

"I'll shoot you," playfully said Mrs. Bessie Markham, wife of J. E. Markham, of Lynchburg, Va., as she was sitting on his lap with a 32-calibre revolver in her hand a few days ago. The husband cautioned her to be careful, and grabbed for the weapon. They struggled for it, and it was discharged, exploding the only cartridge in it, the ball penetrating Mrs. Markham's left breast, and death ensued in less than an hour. A coroner's jury decided that her death was accidental.

Mrs. Markham was 19-years old and had been married two years. She leaves no children.

Does It Pay?

Does advertising pay? That question is one which has been discussed a great deal in the past, but not so much of late. Merchant and business men of all kinds have come to the conclusion, as a rule, that it does pay when properly applied to a business. A merchant need not expect returns, however, by placing a small ad occasionally. He wants to buy space regularly and change the advertisement as often as he has something to offer if he would get proper results from advertising.

A new merchant in a town should, of all men, use considerable space—keep his name constantly before the people. He should use catchy expressions and make his name a by-word in the community in which he does business. The reader will notice that, as a general thing, the merchants who do the most business are the ones who continually advertise—week in and week out.

There is no use quibbling or parleying over the question as to whether advertising pays or not.

The merchants who use the most newspaper space will tell you IT DOES PAY TO ADVERTISE.—Seneca Farm and Factory.
