

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or setting indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Report of The Grand Jury.

His Honor, Judge John S. Wilson, presiding: We the grand jury desire to make this our presentment:

We have inspected the county jail and find it well kept by the Sheriff, but recommend to the Supervisor and County Commissioners that they have constructed, at once, a steel tower and steel tank, as the one on hand has become worthless.

We desire to respectfully ask the City Council of Lexington to remove the guard house adjoining the jail, if it be possible. The Sheriff and his family have made complaint that the same is objectionable and a nuisance. We desire to commend the efforts of our county authorities to establish a bridge across the Saluda river.

We again call attention to the Supervisor, the need of water-closets in the court house.

We ask our members of the Legislature to increase the pay of the expert for the grand jury, it being inadequate for the importance and amount of work done.

We have elected John Bell Towill, L. Bennett Frick and J. C. Reynolds as a committee to investigate the county offices, chain gang and poor house, to make its report at our next session.

We have elected Barrett Jones to assist us in our investigation.

We respectfully ask our members of the General Assembly to make an effort to have the pay for witnesses raised to one dollar per diem and mileage at six cents.

We have examined and reported on all bills and matters given us and returned them with our findings.

We desire to return our thanks to His Honor and all court officers for their kindness and courtesies shown.

Respectfully submitted, JOHN BELL TOWILL, Foreman.

An Insidious Danger.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. Derrick's Drug Store.

Condemned By Legislature.

Mr. Lane introduced a resolution on Wednesday which passed the house without a dissenting vote, condemning the action of the Aiken county dispensary board in establishing a dispensary at North Augusta over the protest of that town as "undemocratic and subversive of good government."

Obituary.

James Hook was born on the 10th of January, 1823, and died on January 4th, 1908, making him 85 years old, lacking six days. It was not the writer's privilege to know Brother Hook in his active days. He suffered a stroke of paralysis before I knew him. Uncle James Hook was a faithful good man—faithful to the church, and honest almost to a fault. On the 5th of January we laid his mortal remains away at the old home burying ground to await the morn of the resurrection. A. S. LESLIE.

To Create New Circuit.

A bill was introduced in the lower house last week which purports to create a new court circuit by placing Richland and Lexington in a circuit by themselves.

It is claimed by those who favor the bill that it will go a long way toward relieving the congested court dockets of the State, especially in these two counties.

The bill is favored, so it is said, by the representatives of both counties, and its passage is almost certain.

Prohibition Fight in Texas.

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 26.—The fight before the people for state wide prohibition for Texas began in earnest on Wednesday. Three mass meetings were held. Five speakers addressed nearly 1,000 persons at Bush Temple and twice that many were addressed at the First Methodist and First Baptist churches. W. D. Uphaw, known as "Earnest Willie" of Atlanta, Ga., was among the speakers at both places.

The Old, Old World.

This old, old world is a dreary place For the man whose pass is a frowning face: Who looks for the shadows instead of the light; For the sordid and dull instead of the bright; Who sees but the worry and labor and strife Instead of the glory and sunshine of life.

This old, old world is a sad abode For the man who travels along life's road With never a laugh and never a song To lighten the toil as he goes along: With never a smile or a word of cheer To shorten the way for his fellows here.

But for him who possesses the saving grace Of laughing heart and smiling face, Who sings at his work and laughs at defeat, And looks for the good and the bright and the sweet; Who cheers on his fellows by word and by deed, This world is a pleasant place indeed.

A Young Married Woman Victim of Jealousy.

Christianburg, Va.—Mrs. Sidney Jones, aged 19, was shot and killed at her home in Cambria by Frank Carthon, aged 20, whose suit she had rejected to marry Jones.

Her husband who is employed by the Norfolk and Western railroad, was at work, and Carthon found Mrs. Jones alone in the kitchen. He shot her three times with a pistol, one bullet taking effect in the center of her forehead, one in her breast, and one in her neck. Any one of the wounds would have been fatal.

After the shooting Carthon came to Christianburg and surrendered to the authorities, telling them that he had planned the death of the girl for a year, and asked that he be protected, as he feared her husband and relatives would kill him.

While Carthon fears lynching there is not at present any indication of mob violence.

It Does The Business.

Mr. E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c. at Kaufmann Drug Co. and Derrick's Drug Store.

Man Killed by Woman in New York Restaurant.

Frank Brady, a well known advertising man, was shot and instantly killed in a restaurant in Macy's department store in New York by a woman who emptied a five chambered revolver into his body.

Drawing a second revolver, she fired three bullets into her own head and was taken to New York hospital in a dying condition. She died a few minutes after reaching that institution.

The woman was identified as May Roberts Clarke, of No. 214 West 133rd street. No reason can at present be given for the tragedy.

Brave Woman Held Burglar.

At Waterbury, Connecticut, Mrs. Lizzie Wolf, a frail woman, wife of Adrian F. Wolf, superintendent of the tool room in the Scoville company's works, held up a flat thief in their home on Ridge street a few night's ago, made him disgorge, and then with a revolver, held him cowed in a corner until the police arrived, eighteen minutes later.

He is Arthur Rosenthal, a Boston crook, sentenced for burglary in Concord, March 28, 1906, and having a long criminal record.

Mrs. Wolf was at supper when, hearing a noise, she grabbed a revolver, swung the electric switch lighting the apartment, and found Rosenthal ransacking her chamber.
