Shot by Young Girl.

Tunica, Miss., June 12.—Seeking revenge for the death of her father, Percy M. Houston, who was shot to death on the streets of this city hardly two months ago, Mrs. Jacob Weinstein walked up behind his slayer, J. T. Lowe, a prominent attorney, on the principal street of the town yesterday morning, and fired point blank into his back. A second shot, which was meant for Lowe, was deflected by her ten-year-old brother-in-law, who was accompanying her, and who grasped her arm after the first discharge of the revolver.

Thinking his assailant was a man Lowe wheeled to defend himself, and pulled his pistol as he turned. He saw a woman before him.

"Oh, you are a lady! I will not shoot you!" and the desperately wounded man quietly placed the weapon in his pocket and walked to a physician's office, where he collapsed. Mrs. Weinstein fled to the home of her mother, where she is now in custody of a deputy.

"Good as Gold."

There were a number of subscribers who were in arrears for a year and more for The Dispatch whom we were forced to stop, in compliance with the new postal laws. Some of them, "as good as gold," but it was not left to our discretion, for we had to stop their papers. Now, we want them to settle and let us continue to send The Dispatch. It will be interesting during the campaign.

Bryan's Daughter a Delegate.

Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt, daughter of William J. Bryan, has been named a delegate at large to the state democratic convention of Colorado, to be held at Glenwood Springs. She was named by the Denver county convention, which, while it endorsed the candidacy of her father for the presidency, did not instruct for him. She was not at the convention, being at her father's home in Lincoln with her children, and did not know that her name was to be presented.

The move may result in Mrs. Leavitt's being sent as a delegate to the democratic national convention. There has been talk of naming her and Mrs. J. A. Hayes, a daughter of Jefferson Davis, as delegates to the national convention.

Card of Thanks.

To the Editor of The Dispatch:

Please allow us space in your valuable paper to extend our thanks to the people of Edmund for their tender love and true Christian affection with which they treated our father, John J. Smith, during his sickness and death, which occurred on Jan. 15, 1908. We pray that the lord will send his richest blessings upon them all.

A man who is in perfect health, so he can do an honest day's work when necessary, has much for which he should be thankful. Mr. L. C. Rodgers, of Branchton, Pa., writes that he was not only unable to work, but he couldn't stoop over to tie his own shoes. Six bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made a new man of him. He says, "Success to Foley's Kidney Cure."—Derrick's Drug Store.

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, g-o-n-e!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It certainly checks falling hair; no mistake about this. It acts as a regular medicine; makes the scalp healthy. Then you must have healthy hair, for it's nature's way.

"Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. This clever Coffee Substitute was recently produced by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is made from pure toasted grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for Coffee. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling "Made in a minute" says the doctor. Sold by M. D. Harman.
