Police Happenings.

To the Editor of The Dispatch:
Crops are looking well and are in excellent condition.

Miss Ellie Lewis, who underwent an operation at the Knowlton Infirmary in Columbia a few weeks ago, has returned home much improved in health.

On May 29th the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Clark and took from their home their little child. It was laid away to rest in the cemetery at Florence church the next day.

Rural Route Inspector E. L. Higbee was here a few days ago for the purpose of looking over some of the proposed changes on route 1, and to go over the territory of proposed route 2, which he claims will be established in the near future.

Mrs. W. F. Best, who has been confined to her bed for some time, is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mr. O. D. Hutto, who has been confined to his bed for the past week, is able to be out again.

Mr. Scott Hutto has remodeled his dwelling—it looks almost like new.

Mr. J. O. B. Lucas, of Columbia, is making preparations to build a dwelling in this town, and will move here at once.

Mr. E. E. Felder has been spending the last week in Florida.

Mr. Robert Smith, who has been attending the Wagener high school, has returned home, critically ill.

Mr. Drafts, from the Hollow Creek section, is visiting at the home of Dr. D. R. Kneece.

Misses Katie and Carrie Smith have been visiting relatives in Columbia.

Mr. L. B. Gilliard is repainting the residence of Mr. D. F. Shumpert.

It is interesting to note that in their fields while they are ploughing across the road, it would pay them better. At any rate the traveling public would be at a great deal more ease in passing by such fields. It is useless to plough a furrow across the road every time you get to it. R. L. C.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth,

Be sure and use that old and well tried remedy Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle. Guaranteed under the Food and Drug act, June 30, 1906. Serial number 1908.

In Memory of Miss Catharine Senn.

Dearest Catharine, thou hast left us,
But thou hast only gone before;
If we are but as faithful,
We shall reach the golden shore.
Thou hast left us oh, so lonely,
Never shall we hear thy footsteps any more
But we hope to meet thee on the bright and heavenly shore.

Dearest Catharine, thou hast left us,
But in our hearts we deeply feel
That 'tis God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

No Need of Suffering

From Rheumatism.

It is a mistake to allow rheumatism to become chronic, as the pain can always be relieved, and in most cases a cure effected by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes sleep and rest possible. Even in cases of long standing this liniment should be used on account of the relief which it affords. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Kaufmann Drug Co.

Solder for Glass.

Tin ninety parts, aluminum ten parts, fuse. Heat the glass, rub edges with the solder and bind together until cool; or a soldering iron may be used. The glass should be quite hot. First experiment on glass of no value.

Pressing Down Pains

are a sign of serious female complaint, that should have immediate attention.
If you begin in time, you can generally treat yourself at home, without the need of consulting a physician, by the regular use of Cardui, the well-known remedy for women's ills.

Composed of purely vegetable and perfectly harmless medicinal ingredients, being, besides, a gentle, non-intoxicating, strengthening tonic,

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMAN'S RELIEF

relieves all female complaints.
"My wife," writes John A. Rodgers, of Hampton Sidney, Va., "was nothing but a walking skeleton, from female trouble. She suffered agonies with bearing-down pains, backache and headache. Doctors failed to relieve her, so she took Cardui, and is now entirely cured."

More proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saves woman from surgical operations.

Mrs. S. A. Williams, of Gardiner, Maine, writes:

"I was a great sufferer from female troubles, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health in three months, after my physician declared that an operation was absolutely necessary."

Mrs. Alvina Sperling, of 154 Cleybourne Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I suffered from female troubles, a tumor and much inflammation. Two of the best doctors in Chicago decided that an operation was necessary to save my life. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely cured me without an operation."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice.

She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Gilbert News.

To the Editor of The Dispatch:
Fine rains recently and crops are looking well.

Rev. Prof. Fisher, of Mt. Pleasant, N. C., preached in the Lutheran church last Sunday. He received many compliments on his fine sermon.

Rev. Wessinger has been very sick for the past few days. We hope to see him out soon and fully restored to his usual good health.

Mrs. Lewis, wife of Mr. Josh Lewis, was buried at Pond Branch church last Sunday. Her untimely death seems to have been somewhat mysterious. Several doctors examined her and it seems that they found no external cause.

Fruit is the most abundant that it has been in many years. It is well flavored, sound and free from worms. Gilbert, June 20.

Big cuts or little cuts, small scratches or bruises or big ones are healed quickly by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is especially good for piles. Be sure to get DeWitt's. Sold by Kaufmann Drug Co.

To the Voters.

Again we call attention of voters to the importance of selecting a first-class man for county supervisor. He should be liberally supplied with what Joe Brown of Georgia called "judgment," with a strong accent on the last syllable. He should have a clear head, keen perceptive faculties, a judicial mind and be fearless in the discharge of his duties. He should always consider both sides of every question that comes before him. He should guard the money of the county as carefully as if it was his own. He should not reward any one with jobs, for working for his election. He should do nothing for the sake of popularity. Will you, the voters of this county, select such a man, or do you prefer a good, genial sort of a man that is fit for nothing but to shake hands and tell stories. In selecting the commissioners the same care should be used in making your selection. These men have a large amount of money in their hands and only the best and safest men should be selected.—Carolina Spartan.

Tom—"But perhaps she doesn't love you."
Jack—"Oh, yes, she does!"
Tom—"How do you know?"
Jack—"When I told her that I had no money to get married on she offered to borrow some from her father."
—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A Fish Without a Mouth.

A strange fish was caught out of Broad river about the 1st of June by Mr. Lee Broom, of Lockhart, S. C. The fish is about 12 inches long and weighs about 1 pound. It has no mouth and is a curious sight to see. Its eyes are very prominent, being exactly on the end of its body. It is supposed that it receives its nutriment through its gills. It is now owned by Jas. Fowler, on Enterprise street.—Union Times.
