Lever at Sumter.

The State has the following synopsis of Congressman Lever's speech before the Farmers' Union of Sumter county on last Wednesday:

"The next speaker introduced was the ever welcome and very popular Congressman A. F. Lever, who has done so much for the farmers and for the business men of his district. Mr. Lever was enthusiastically welcomed.

Among the most important things, he said, was that he desired to call attention to the fact that 36 per cent. of the entire population of this country—nearly 75 per cent. of the South's people—was engaged in agricultural pursuits, hence the importance of all matters touching agriculture. He emphasized the importance of organization and cooperation among the farmers as a class. He strongly warned the Farmers' Union against permitting politics to enter into the organization and divert it from the fundamental lines upon which it rests. He reminded them that history shows that nearly all farmers' organizations have been dashed to pieces on the rocks of politics. This Sumter County Farmers' union is predicated upon the broad lines of cooperation and education and is intended to aid the individual farmer. No organization can fully succeed unless it is made up of men armed with independence. No farmer is independent who has to sell his cotton to buy the necessities of life and whose smoke house is in Chicago and whose corn crib is in Iowa. He pleaded for such diversification of farm methods and products as will make the farms self-sustaining.

In discussing the labor question he strongly opposed the idea of throwing open our door to unrestricted immigration.

In vigorous tones he said, "I am unalterably opposed to any immigration unless the immigrant comes with sufficient means to become at once a home builder.

"I welcome the Americans of the northwest to South Carolina as home-seekers and citizens, but am unalterably opposed to crowding our labor markets with cheap labor or filling up the country districts with the tenant class of whites."

He urged the desirability of small farms under the management of white brains, and pleaded with the young men to devote themselves to the farms, so that this Southern country might blossom as a rose.

He closed amid great applause and was warmly congratulated."

Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. ## WOMAN'S BACKACHE

The back is the mainspring of woman's organism. It quickly calls attention to trouble by aching. It tells, with other symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in the loins, weight in the lower part of the body, that a woman's feminine organism needs immediate attention.

In such cases the one sure remedy which speedily removes the cause, and restores the feminine organism to a healthy, normal condition is LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Will Young, of 6 Columbia Ave., Rockland, Me., says:

I read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to try it; after taking three bottles I can truly say that I never felt so well in my life."

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I had very severe backaches, and pressing-down pains. I could not sleep, and had no appetite. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and made me feel like a new woman."

Verses in Memory of S. Patrick Lindler.

Dearest father thou hast left us,
Thou hast gone to a better home
Where pain and trouble and sorrow
cease,
And storms in thy path shall never room.

Oh! dear father, how much we miss
thee,
We miss thee at thy usual place;
Oh, dear, we miss thee everywhere,
But the Lord has seen fit to call thee
and he will all our sorrows bear.

Dear Jesus wipe our tears,
And all our sorrows heal;
For in his death
Our loss we deeply feel.

Sleep on, dear father sleep on,
Beneath the deep, red sod;
And may we, like thee, when life is done,
Cling closer to thee All-wise and Eternal God.

But yet again, we hope to meet thee,
On that bright and blissful shore;
Where all will be joy and happiness,
Soon to meet and part no more.

Well do we remember that last and
awful dying hour;
In all the pains and agonies of death.
But the Lord was with us; He knew what was best,
So he called thee to thy peaceful rest.
