A Card.

To the Voters of Lexington County: I wish to express my thanks for the support given me on August 25th. I hope that support was given because I made a clean and honorable canvass. I used no money beyond my individual expenses—just as contained in my statement of the same filed with the Clerk of Court on Monday, August 24th. I used no whiskey nor any other commodity to secure support. I agreed with no man—candidate or otherwise—to combine for mutual assistance, or to defeat anyone in the race. I am now in the second race for the House of Representatives, and just as I have been canvassing hitherto will I continue to the end. J. BROOKS WINGARD.

At Fitzmaurice's.

Mr. John Fitzmaurice, buyer for Fitzmaurice's Three Arch Store in Columbia, has just returned from the North where he purchased a fall stock of fall and winter goods, which are now arriving daily.
