Cotton Market.
 Lexington..... 8 3/4c

Prepare to Enter P. C. I.
 School will open on September 7. A tenth grade has been added and another teacher will be secured. Each teacher will have two grades. We desire to have in our school those boys and girls who wish thorough preparation either for college or for life's duties. Apply to the principal for catalogue and any other information which you may desire. 42tf

Remember
 I am in the market for your cotton seed. Don't sell your seed before you get my prices.
 G. H. ROOF, Barr, S. C.

Wire Fencing by The Carload.
 Reynolds & Craft, of Swansea, have just received a carload of wire fencing of all sizes. They sell at the lowest prices and on terms to suit all. They are also the leading dealers in general merchandise and cotton buyers. If you want to save money be sure to see them before you buy.

Ginnery Notice.
 I will run my gin for the public on the following days: Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Terms 25 cents per hundred, cash. Prompt and courteous attention given to all.
 Pelion, S. C. J. W. Scofield.

J. W. & R. L. Lybrand.
 Messrs. J. W. & R. L. Lybrand, of Swansea, have a new ad in this week's issue. They are receiving new goods by every train, and they solicit an inspection of their goods before you buy elsewhere. They are also buyers of cotton and country produce. Read their ad elsewhere.

The Tri-County Fair.
 In this issue will be found an announcement of the Tri-County Fair at Batesburg. The fair this year will be held on October 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17. The fair last year was an entire success, and everything points to a much better fair this fall. Everybody in the three counties should have an exhibit at the Batesburg fair.

Shoes for All.
 A line of beautiful winter shoes—gun metals, patent leathers and tans for men, women and children. I want you to examine this stock before buying.
 W. P. Roof.

Knotts, Dowling & Co.
 The firm of Knotts, Dowling & Co., of Swansea, are telling the readers of The Dispatch about the new fall goods that they are receiving every day. This firm is too well known to the people of Swansea and surrounding section to make any comments. Suffice it to say that they will treat you right. Call to see them before making your purchases.

Meeting at Old Bethel Church.
 There will be a series of meetings held at Old Bethel church starting September 20, and continuing all the week. Everybody invited to come and enjoy the meeting.

Rock House Barbecue.
 The barbecue at the Rock House, a few miles below Lexington, was very largely attended on Saturday last, a number from Lexington going out to spend the day. Mr. Roland furnished a most excellent dinner, and everything passed off quietly. But few of the candidates were present, but each had friends on the grounds.

W. H. Monckton.
 Mr. W. H. Monckton, manager of the Globe Dry Goods Co., Columbia, has just returned from the Northern markets, where he went to purchase his fall stock of goods. They are now arriving and his store is crammed and packed with new and seasonable goods too numerous to mention here. When in Columbia visit the Globe Dry Goods Co. Their prices are bound to please.

For Rent,
 Very desirable farming lands in the Greenbriar section of Fairfield county, S. C., finest cotton section in the county; splendid neighborhood; fine graded school and church, with services every Sunday, within easy walking distance; fine water and plenty of wood. These lands can be rented or leased for a term of years by desirable white tenants at reasonable rentals, and in farms of from two to twenty-five plows. For further particulars address,

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,
 Lexington County.
 By Geo. S. Drafts, Esq., Probate Judge. Whereas, Sarah Black made suit to me, to grant her letters of administration of the estate of and effects of Edward Black.
 These are therefore to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said Edward Black, deceased, that they be and appear, before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Lexington, C. H., S. C., on 18th of September, 1908, next, after publication hereof at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said administration should not be granted.
 Given under my hand, this 3rd day of September, Anno Domini, 1908.
 George S. Drafts, [L. S.]
 Probate Judge, Lexington county, S. C.

Good for Biliousness.
 "I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets last night, and I feel fifty per cent. better than I have for weeks," says J. J. Firestone of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by Kaufmann Drug Co. Samples free.

A Sure-Enough Knocker.
 J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns, etc. 25c. at Kaufmann Drug Co., and Derrick's Drug Store.

PAREGORIC FOR BABY
 isn't the only remedy we have to soothe his pain. We keep all the standard remedies for
THE ILLS OF CHILDREN.
 Better have a supply of them at home for use in emergencies. A little medicine given at the start of the trouble will save the baby a lot of suffering and its parents a lot of worry and lots of rest. Get your supply at once. Hot weather is here.

Death of Mr. Ballentine.
 Mr. Arthur Ballentine, son of Mr. George Ballentine, of Ballentine, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Wise, in Gilbert, on Sunday night at 9 o'clock, after a brief, but severe, illness of typhoid fever.
 It was just three weeks ago that he left his parents, with fond hopes and anticipations, to visit his sister. A few days later he was taken ill and gradually grew worse until the end came on Sunday night.
 Arthur Ballentine was just 22 years old and had a bright future before him. By his amiable disposition he made friends with all in whom he came in contact, and his death has brought sorrow to many a heart.
 The remains were carried to his home in the Fork where they were interred in the presence of a large circle of sorrowing relatives and friends.

WRESTLING MATCH.
 "Kid" Reilley Defeats Harry Lewis in a Lively Contest.
 The grapple fans of Lexington were treated to a lively contest on the mat by "Kid" Reilley and Harry Lewis at Roof's hall Saturday night. Though Reilley looks to be much the heaviest Lewis made a very creditable showing, demonstrating that he has ability and cleverness. Many times did he escape by breaking holds very cleverly, Reilley winning because he is the heavier and stronger, not from superior ability.
 The first contest was between John Hamilton and Kerby Jacobson, two clever light-weights. Jacobson proved the most clever, winning two straight falls in eight and seven minutes, respectively. Hamilton wants another try with Jacobson.
 The Reilley-Lewis contest came next and was a very clever and clean piece of wrestling. Reilley won the first fall in thirteen minutes, with a half Nelson. The second fall was not so easy and Lewis demonstrated his ability and the cleverness of both the young men, Reilley finally getting a half Nelson and barlock, putting his shoulders to the mat in 20 minutes.
 Mr. Corbett announced that during fair week he would give another show and those who like wrestling, boxing, and feats of strength will get their money's worth who attend.
