Samuel B. George.

To the People of Lexington County:

For past honors I am not unmindful, but grateful. The majority of my fellow citizens have decreed that another shall take my place. Being a democrat and willing to bow to the will of the majority, I take this means of thanking those heartily and gratefully for their loyal support. My service as your court official may not have been what it should have been, but my best efforts in thought and deed has been to render acceptable service; for the many kindnesses and courtesies shown me as an official, I appreciate more than words can express.

With malice towards none and charity for all, I hereby express a willingness to "let the dead pass buy its dead," and join every good citizen, in every worthy effort that tends toward the advancement and development of our county.

To my friends who stood with such loyalty, I would be nothing more than an ingrate, to be unmindful of their friendship. I trust that in the future, as in the past, my conduct will be such as to merit your continued friendship. Respectfully,

SAM'L B. GEORGE.

Letter to Roof & Barr,

Lexington S. C.

Dear Sirs: We can't get over talking about those two houses at Lufkin, Tex., owned by Judge I. D. Fairchild.

Both houses are exactly alike and both painted at same time by J. M. Torrance.

One took 15½ gallons Devoe; the other 25 gallons of another paint sold at same price.

That 35 gallon paint is weak and 15 per cent. whitening; that's why it took 9½ gallons more.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devoe & Co.

P. S. The Kaufmann Drug Co. sell our paint.

Mr. Wingard Thanks Voters.

To the Democratic voters of Lexington county:

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to you for the liberal support given me in the recent primary election and making me your choice for county treasurer.

I certainly appreciate the confidence reposed in me and I pledge you that I will discharge the duties of the office faithfully and impartially to all the citizens of Lexington county to the very best of my ability.

Very respectfully,
Esaias L. Wingard.
