IF MONEY IS YOUR AIM.

Care in spending is as important as diligence in making. Care in spending is best exercised when payments are made by check. You are never so ready to draw one as you are to put your hand into a pocketful of cash.

DEPOSIT THE CASH IN THE HOME BANK

and it will burn no holes in your pocket. Neither will it be subject to the risk of fire or theft. Think of the money you have spent needlessly just because you had the cash too handy. That ought to make you open an account at once.

THE HOME BANK,

LEXINGTON, S. C.

JULIAN E. KAUFMANN, President. ALFRED J. FOX, Cashier. KARL F. OSWALD, Asst. Cashier.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BEGIN!

Cultivate the habit of Saving.

The following are just a few reasons WHY you should carry a bank account:

- 1st. It provides you with an accurate and consecutive record of all money paid out.
- 2nd. It gives you confidence in your judgment.
- 3rd. Your bank account, however small, will be the start of a reserve fund, which will mean peace plenty and a contentment in old age.

Deposit your money with us where it will be in active use and benefit the community in which you live.

The Bank of Swansea.

R. L. LYBRAND, President. B. E. CRAFT, Cashier.

4

per cent. interest is what you receive on all money deposited in our Savings Department—4 per cent. that comes to you without an effort on your part and helps to increase the principal. You can start an account with $1.00.

Court Proceedings.

There were only three cases disposed of in the common pleas court last week.

In the case of Nelson against the C. N. & L. Railroad, the jury returned a verdict in favor of Nelson for $400. Messrs. Graham & Sturkie for plaintiff; Lyles & Lyles, E. L. Craig and W. H. Sharpe the defendant.

In the case of J. H. Hudson against Joseph Shampert, an action to gain possession of a certain tract of land on Congaree creek, Judge Shipp instructed the jury to write a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. Messrs. Eifrd & Dreher for plaintiff; J. Brooks Wingard for defendant.

The last case tried last week was that of L. L. Glenn vs. the Western Union Telegraph Co. This was a mental anguish suit for $2,000 damages, the plaintiff alleging the non-delivery of a telegram. The jury returned a verdict in favor of Glenn for $400. Graham & Sturkie for plaintiff; Messrs. Eifrd & Dreher, Nelson & Nelson the defendant.

The first case taken up Monday was that of Dr. J. J. Bickley against Jacob Koon for a bond to title of a certain piece of property which Bickley bought from Koon. J. B. Wingard for plaintiff; Albert M. Boozar and Graham & Sturkie for defendant. Verdict in favor of the defendant.

Watched Fifteen Years.

"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve; and it has never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill," says A. F. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine, 25c. at Derrick's Drug Store, Kaufmann Drug Co., and Sandell's Drug Store.

Remember that it takes money to run a newspaper. If you owe us anything on subscription, we ask that you kindly send it to us at once. We need money, and need it badly.

Dr. Thornton's Easy Teether has saved the lives of hundreds of babies and will safely carry your baby through the most trying period of its life as it is a guaranteed remedy for Teething, Summer Diarrhoea, Flux, Indigestion, and all stomach and bowel troubles of infants. 25 cents.
