Roads to be Clayed.

A move is now on foot to clay the Two-Notch and Augusta roads. It is said that the county will furnish the hands to dig the clay and load the wagons, while those interested will furnish the teams. The work will commence on Dec. 1st, and all parties interested in the work are requested to meet at Arthur's Crossing and J. J. Hite's place on the morning of Dec. 1st.

Thanksgiving Services.

There will be Thanksgiving Services held in St. Stephen's Lutheran church tomorrow morning. At 11 o'clock there will be a sermon by the Rev. W. L. Keel of the Baptist church. At 10:30 there will be an interesting exercise by the students of the Palmetto Collegiate Institute, appropriate to the occasion. The public cordially invited to attend these services.

It is a large bottle Horehound, Mulien and Tar and at any hour of the day or night it will relieve you of your cough and throat affections. Try it. The Murray Drug Co., Makers, Columbia, S. C.

King & Tucker's Show.

King & Tucker's Big Railroad Shows appeared in Lexington yesterday afternoon and last night. This is a very creditable attraction, indeed. There were many good features and this aggregation will be welcomed back again.

A large bottle of Horehound, Mulien and Tar for 25 cents and will do you good to relieve the children of their coughs and colds. Try it. Only 25 cents. The Murray Drug Co., Makers, Columbia, S. C.

Court Proceedings.

When we went to press last week the case of John W. Scofield against E. E. Felder, involving landlord and tenant was in progress. A verdict was returned favorable to both parties. The next case was that of the Citizens Bank of Batesburg against Dr. D. R. Kneese, of Pelion, in which the plaintiff brought suit on an insurance note. After hearing all the evidence in the case, the judge directed a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

The case of White Geiger against the Seaboard Air Line Railway, in which the plaintiff was seeking damages for the non-delivery of fertilizers, resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff. Reynolds & Craft, of Swansea, received a verdict against the Seaboard for damage to freight.

The case of John W. Ross against the Southern Railway, a suit for $25,000 for alleged personal injuries received while working on a box car in the city of Columbia some time during September, 1907, consumed Friday and Saturday and the greater part of Monday. The plaintiff was represented by E. J. Best of Asheville, N. C., W. Boyd Evans and Lawson D. Melton of Columbia, and Messrs. Ehrd & Dreher of Lexington, while the defendant was represented by E. M. Thompson and Senator W. H. Sharpe. A mistrial was ordered in this case.

The court is now engaged in the case of Dreher and Huffman, against the C. N. & L. Railroad. This is a fire damage suit, and will consume the greater part of the morning.

Wire Pulling at Swansea.

Two elections have passed, but the wire pulling at Swansea continues. Messrs. Reynolds & Craft still have a full supply of the Pittsburg Perfect Fence, suitable for all purposes, which they are selling at lower prices than ever before. They also have a full line of seasonable goods in every department of their mammoth establishment. Reynolds & Craft are popular—they are justly popular—because they treat you right on every purchase. See their big display ad. elsewhere and give them a call.

Pelican Lodge, I. O. O. F.

Pelican Lodge, I. O. O. F., will hold its regular meeting on Friday night, Dec. 4th, at which time Grand Warden, W. Hampton Cobb, Grand Secretary S. F. Killingsworth and Past Grand Master W. E. Avery, all of Columbia, will be present and make addresses. All Odd Fellows in good standing are invited to attend this meeting of Pelican Lodge.

Final Discharge.

This is to notify all persons that I will apply to the Hon. Geo. S. Drafts, Esq., Judge of Probate for Lexington county, South Carolina, on the 28th day of November, 1908, for a final discharge as administrator of the estate of Elizabeth A. Lorick, deceased. SAMUEL B. GEORGE, Administrator.

Six Prisoners Escape From The Chaingang.

On Monday morning about 8 o'clock six prisoners escaped from the chaingang which was located near Magnolia school house in the Dutch Fork. It seems that one of the guards had stepped off for a short while, leaving only one man to guard the 26 men. All of the men made a brake at the same time. The guard fired three shots at the fleeing men, but they went wild of their mark and the men went on. Among the number who escaped are Henry Moore, George Baxter and Abram James, the three who attempted to assassinate Deputy Sheriff Miller several weeks ago.

Going Out of Business.

On account of my decline in health, I am forced to discontinue business, and will put my entire stock of Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Hats and Clothing on the market at a great reduction price until Dec. 25th, 1908. After Dec. 31st. the business will be owned and controlled by Riley & Haigler Bros., who will put in an up-to-date line of goods and do business at the same stand. You will make no mistake to call on them.

Honesty in Jewelry

"If it came from Sentz's, you know it's all right," is what one of our customers remarked to another the other day.

When you buy Jewelry, you generally have to take the "Jeweler's word for it" whether it is good or not.

That's just where our reputation for honesty and fair dealing counts.

And furthermore, we will always give you your money back and ask no questions any time you are dissatisfied with a purchase.

Special attention to mail orders.

In Magistrate's Court.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, County of Lexington. G. T. Graham and T. C. Sturkie, plaintiffs, against Rosalie Sternberg, defendant. In Magistrate's Court. To the Sheriff of Lexington County: Complaint having been made unto me by T. C. Sturkie, one of the members of the firm of G. T. Graham and T. C. Sturkie, that prior to the 31st day of November, 1908, Rosalie Sternberg became indebted to the said firm of Graham & Sturkie, as set out in affidavit hereto attached, to the amount of one hundred dollars, for legal and other services rendered her in the case of the State vs. Maxey and Percy Sternberg, her said minor children, who were tried in the Court of General Sessions for Lexington county, in the November term of court, and said minor children were released from all charges preferred against them, and plaintiffs have made demand for the payment of same, but defendant failed and refused to pay same. These are therefore to require you to summon the said Rosalie Sternberg to be and appear before the Court of G. A. Derrick, Magistrate at Lexington, S. C., twenty-three (23) days after the service of this summons and complaint, or judgment will be given against her by default. Given under my hand and seal this, the 14th day of November, 1908. G. A. DERRICK, Magistrate.
