I will sell my place, containing 93 acres, seven miles West of Lexington, S. C.; good dwelling house and out-buildings; plenty of water and close to school. Apply to Jack L. Harman, R. F. D. 2, Lexington, S. C. 3tf.

Examination for West Point.

Prof. W. E. Black, of Lexington, Superintendent E. S. Dreher of Columbia and Superintendent Edmunds, of Sumter, conducted an examination for entrance to West Point, for Congressman Lever in Columbia on Saturday. There were only two applicants.

Congregation Meeting.

There will be divine services at St. Stephen's Lutheran church December 13th, at which time there will be also a congregational meeting looking to the calling of a pastor to fill the vacancy now existing. Let every one interested be present.
By Order Council,
2nd C. E. LEAPHART, Secretary.

Death of Mrs. Eargle.

Mrs. George A. Eargle, after a protracted illness, died at her home near Spring Hill last Thursday, and was buried at Spring Hill church on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Eargle was a most estimable woman and her life of years was filled with noble deeds.

We call attention to the advertisement of Mimnaugh in this issue. This great department store has grown to such an extent that plans are now under way to greatly enlarge it. The people of Lexington have long since learned to go to Mimnaugh's for bargains of all descriptions.

E. A. Eargle, Peak.

We beg to direct our readers attention to the advertisement of E. A. Eargle, a popular merchant of Peak, in this issue. He has one of the most complete lines of general merchandise to be found in the Dutch Fork and his prices are always as low as the lowest. Be sure to give him a call. He will treat you right.

Telephone Lines.

The county will soon be linked together by a net work of telephones. Gilbert has recently installed a complete telephone system and the lines are being extended out in the country on both sides of the railroad. It is the intention of those interested to continue the line from Gilbert down Black creek and across to Pelion and thence across to Swansea. The people are very much interested in the movement. These lines can be built at a very small cost, when the farmers furnish the poles and assist in placing the line.

The Dutch Fork section has a system of phones and the line is at present being extended to the river by parties living on the other side. It is said that those living on this side of the river will bring the line to this place.

These lines with phone connections will make it convenient, and they should be built as early as possible.

Congressman Lever and his secretary, B. J. Wingard, leaves for Washington on next Friday, to be present at the assembling of Congress on Monday following.

For your school supplies, pencils pens, ink, tablets, etc., always come to The Bazaar.

Mr. G. W. Williams of Chapin Passes Away.

Chapin, Nov. 30.—The little town of Chapin is in deep sorrow over the death of one of its best citizens, George Washington Williams, on Sunday morning. Mr. Williams was originally from Winstboro, being born in the year 1833. He was a painter by profession. In 1857 he married Miss Mary E. Miller, daughter of Col. Hugh Miller.

In 1861 Mr. Williams joined Company H, Fifteenth regiment, South Carolina Volunteers, and went forth to fight in the cause of a principle that he believed was right and in the cause of his home land. He served four years through the Civil war, taking part in some of the hardest fought battles of the war. He was wounded in the leg at the battle of Antietam or Sharpsburg on September 17, 1862. After the Civil war was over he returned to his home, gathered together his broken fortune and went to work for a livelihood.

In 1875 he was employed in Shield's machine shops, Columbia. Not satisfied at this business, he dealt in beef and fresh meats the next year at Columbia. This same year, 1876, his life was grief stricken by the death of his devoted wife. He married a second time a Miss Quick. Since 1876 Mr. Williams devoted his time to his profession—painting.

Mr. Williams was a friend to everybody, and in his death Chapin, the community and the State has lost a good citizen. His remains were laid to rest at Mt. Horeb cemetery, Chapin, today at 2 o'clock.

Court Has Ended.

The court came to an end Saturday morning, after a four weeks session, during which time many cases were disposed of, but the docket is still very heavy. The last few days of the court was taken up with equity business.

On Thursday Judge Shipp, Hon. W. H. Sharpe, Col. G. T. Graham and Deputy Sheriff Miller went on a fox-hunt in the sand hills, Judge Shipp having accompanied Mr. Sharpe to his home at Edmunds, on Wednesday afternoon. A fine chase was enjoyed and the party succeeded in capturing a large grey, which was brought to Lexington, and on Saturday morning another chase was enjoyed. The entire hunting party were the guests of Mr. Sharpe at a sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday, and in the afternoon the Judge joined a party of bird hunters.

Judge Shipp made many friends during his stay here and many will look forward to his return with genuine pleasure.

Attention Veterans.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 25, 1908.

Mr. G. M. Harman:
I have sent you by express, charges prepaid, package of our recently published pamphlet: Tentative Roster of the Third regiment, S. C. volunteers, Confederate States provisional army, and beg that you will mention the fact in your paper that you have the pamphlets and that if any old soldier of Company H. of that regiment, which was of Lexington district, will call at your office you will give him a copy. The History Commission is anxious to have these rosters perfected by the survivors and to that end have printed them in a form that will enable those who have material on hand to see exactly what data we still need.

Yours truly,
A. S. Salley,
Secretary.

Are you getting ready to bake your Christmas cake. You can get fruit cake ingredients of all kind at the Bazaar.

Honesty in Jewelry

"If it came from Sentz's, you know it's all right," is what one of our customers remarked to another the other day.

When you buy Jewelry, you generally have to take the "Jeweler's word for it" whether it is good or not.

That's just where our reputation for honesty and fair dealing counts.

And furthermore, we will always give you your money back and ask no questions any time you are dissatisfied with a purchase.

Special attention to mail orders,

CHARLES F. SENTZ,
JEWELER,

Death of Belton Mills.

Mr. Belton D. Mills died at his home in the Hollow Creek section of the county a few days ago at the advanced age of 74 years.

Mr. Mills was a brave Confederate soldier, having fought valiantly for Lost Cause during the sixties. He was a true friend, kind and always considerate for his fellowman, and was widely loved.

His remains were laid to rest in the Old Lexington Baptist church in the presence of a large congregation of sorrowing relatives and friends.

Married.
