

Memories.

I love to think of boyhood days,
When life was free from care,
When all seemed bright and there were joy
And gladness everywhere.
I love to think of those old days,
It cheers my heart—and yet
I can't forget the licks that
I sometimes used to get.
'Tis ever thus—the happy thoughts
That memory revives
Are always tinged with sadness when
We look back on our lives.
So when I think of boyhood days
It thrills my soul—ah, I yet
I can't forget the licks that
I sometimes used to get.
