Cotton Market.

Lexington..... 8 3/4c

Married.

Mr. C. M. Johnson and Miss Bertie Spigner, of New Brookland, were married by Rev. A. T. Stoudemire, on December 15, 1908.

Look! Look! Shoes! Shoes!

Have just received another shipment of ladies and gents shoes, direct from the factory; no old stock; all new, which I am determined to sell below competition. So come and inspect my stock before buying elsewhere and I will please you in style and in price. H. Steel.

Masonics.

There will be a special meeting of Lexington Lodge A. F. M. on Saturday, Dec. 26th, at high noon, at which time installation of officers will take place. Immediately after the ceremonies an oyster stew will be served on the lower floor of the Masonic building.

The New Minister at Swansea.

Rev. J. O. Davis, a beloved divine of the Methodist church, has been assigned to Swansea, and he and his family are now there pleasantly located. The people will be pleased with his work, as he is a clever man, a good preacher and an earnest worker in the religious cause.

A Personal Appeal.

If we could talk to you personally about the great merit of Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs, colds and lung trouble, you never could be induced to experiment with unknown preparations that may contain some harmful drugs. Foley's Honey and Tar costs you no more and has a record of forty years of cures. For sale at Derrick's Drug Store.

The Lyric.

While enjoying the pleasures which this happy season always brings forth, remember that there is no better place to have a few hours of fun than at The Lyric theatre in Columbia. All new attractions and loads of fun in store for you at this popular little show house.

This Is An Easy Test.

Sprinkle Allen's Foot-Ease in one shoe and not in the other, and notice the difference. Just the thing to use when rubbers or overshoes become necessary, and your shoes seem to pinch. Sold everywhere, 25c. Don't accept any substitute.

The Little Grand.

"The Little Grand" theatre in Columbia has a new program for Christmas week. This is decidedly one of the best theatres in the city and the programs are always entertaining. The best singing, the best dancing, the best of everything at the "Little Grand," all for the small price of ten cents.

Peak Masons.

Election, appointment, and installation of officers of Pomaria Lodge, No. 151, A. F. M., to serve for the next ensuing Masonic year, as follows: John C. Swygert, W. M.; George W. Eargle, S. W.; McD. Bushardt, J. W.; D. I. Shealy, Treasurer; A. E. Eargle, Secretary; John Green Hiller, S. D.; H. B. Lindler, J. D.; Jos. H. Eargle, J. Evans Eargle, Stewards; Capt. J. F. Mahaffie, Tiler.

An Extra Communication

Of Boylston Lodge, 123, A. F. M., will be held on Saturday, Dec. 26, at 10:30 o'clock, a. m., the day preceding St. John's, for the purpose of installing officers, which makes it necessary for every member to be present. Refreshments will be served, and visiting brethren in good standing cordially invited. Brethren elect, come up, be installed and join us in enjoying the annual banquet prepared for the occasion. Your fraternally, P. I. RAWL, W. M.

Sewing Machines.

The New Acme and Davis Unique improved drop head machines; nicely finished in oak; easy running and perfect sewing; fully guaranteed; for sale at factory prices for cash, or on easy payments, at The Bazaar. Rice B. Harman.

Land For Sale.

I offer for sale my place containing 194 acres, plenty pine, oak wood and lightwood, about 15 acres open; good for corn, cotton, peas, etc.; well watered; Red Bank creek runs through the edge of the land. About 5 miles south of Lexington and known as the John Wilson place. Apply to G. B. WILSON, Lexington, Route 1.

Proud of Their Dentist.

The people of Euclair, Columbia, are proud of their dentist who is patronized by Lexington people every day. Dr. G. R. Harding is a fine old gentleman and his services give entire satisfaction. Call on the doctor when in Columbia.

Administrator's Sale.

On the first Monday in January next, during the usual hours of sale, before the court house door at Lexington, S. C., we, the undersigned, will sell at public auction, for cash, all of the personal property of J. W. Long, deceased, not already sold, consisting of a large number of open accounts, several notes, several thousand shares of mining stock, etc. F. C. Corley, J. R. L. Connelly, J. D. Swygert, Administrators of Estate of J. W. Long, deceased. Dec. 18, 1908. 2w9

The Home National Bank.

The Home National Bank, of this town has just received its charter from the government, as will be seen by reference to the notice published in another column. The Home National succeeds The Home Bank, which was organized in 1903.

The new bank will have as its president Samuel B. George, whose term will expire as clerk of the court early next year. Mr. George is a fine business man. He is acquainted with nearly every man in the county which better qualifies him for the duties of bank president. Mr. George was reared in Lexington and from early youth has been recognized as one of the leaders in political, business and church affairs. That he will make a fine officer, goes without saying.

Alfred J. Fox, to whose efforts the organization of the Home National is largely due, will continue to hold the position of cashier which position he has held with The Home Bank since its establishment. Mr. Fox is recognized as one of the leading financiers in the State. He is a young man less than 35 years of age and has had 12 years experience in the banking business. He is largely engaged in the insurance and real estate business and has never let an opportunity pass to work for the upbuilding of his home town and the institutions in which he is interested. It is indeed gratifying to his friends that he has been successful in his last undertaking.

Karl F. Oswald, who has been the very efficient and popular assistant cashier of the Home Bank for the past few years, will continue in the same capacity with The Home National. He is a young man of fine business ability and knows every phase of the banking business. He is a son of the late F. W. Oswald and is deservedly popular.

Dr. J. E. Kaufmann, who has been president of the Home Bank since the death of Mr. F. W. Oswald, about a year ago, become vice-president of The Home National. Dr. Kaufmann is president of the Kaufmann Drug Co., of this town, one of the largest drug stores in this section of the State, and is a successful business man.

The Home National will have a strong board of directors, the following gentlemen having been named by the stockholders: Samuel B. George, Julian E. Kaufmann, Alfred J. Fox, Karl F. Oswald, Dr. J. J. Wingard, Dr. Jas P. Drafts, The Hon. Simon P. Wingard, The Hon. W. H. Sharpe, and Col. G. T. Graham.

The new bank cannot but prosper under the supervision of the above named gentlemen.

One Cord Wood Worth $10.00 or More in Columbia.

When the workmanship and finish has been put on it as it has been done on that $35.00 Suit of Furniture that is being offered for $19.98 by THE LION FURNITURE CO., Columbia, S. C.

Mr. Roof Has Resigned.

Mr. Carl A. Roof, who has been the very efficient and popular assistant postmaster at this place for the past year, has resigned to accept a clerkship in the Columbia postoffice. Mr. Roof is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Roof, a graduate of the Citadel Academy and is one of the brightest and most popular young men ever reared in Lexington. He left for his new home Sunday morning.

Mr. Tom Wingard will succeed Mr. Roof in the office here.

J. W. Green of Rutherford county, N. C., has a necklace give to his wife as a bridal present 54 years ago, which is very valuable. It is more than three feet long and made entirely of Bechtler gold dollars, of which 84 were used in making the necklace. It has about 300 links.

Honesty in Jewelry

"If it came from Sentz's, you know it's all right," is what one of our customers remarked to another the other day.

When you buy Jewelry, you generally have to take the "Jeweler's word for it" whether it is good or not.

That's just where our reputation for honesty and fair dealing counts.

And furthermore, we will always give you your money back and ask no questions any time you are dissatisfied with a purchase.

Special attention to mail orders,

CHARLES F. SENTZ,
JEWELER,
1439 Main, Columbia, S. C

Wouldn't Pay Poll Tax.

Charlie F. Robertson, a young white man of the Edmund section, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Miller on Monday and lodged in jail for refusal to pay poll tax. Robertson appeared before Magistrate Derrick and was released after paying his tax and a fine of $7.00 and all costs. He is about 28 years old and claims that he had never paid a poll.

This should be a warning to others who have not paid.

Land For Sale.

I will sell privately on good terms, my farm of one hundred acres, in Hollo Creek township, open land and buildings thereon, at a bargain. If not sold prior thereto, I will offer to high bidder on the first Monday in January next, before the court house door. REV. W. E. BARRE, Laurens, S. C. or SAMUEL B. GEORGE, Lexington, S. C.

No. 9296.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

Office of Comptroller of the Currency.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 19, 1908. WHEREAS, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "THE HOME NATIONAL BANK OF LEXINGTON," in the town of Lexington, in the County of Lexington, and the State of South Carolina, has complied with all the provisions of the Statutes of the United States, required to be complied with before an association shall be authorized to commence the business of Banking;
