

MATCHLESS VALUES IN NEW GOODS AT MIMNAUGH'S

We have received all the advance styles in Spring Goods for Men, Women and Children. You should see our showing before buying elsewhere. New Spring Suits for Women at most reasonable prices. Wash Suits for right now, Spring Dress Goods in all the newest fabrics, Muslin Underwear, Dry Goods and Notions, New Spring Clothing for Men and Boys—Knobby Styles, Shoes and Hats, Fancy Millinery and Pattern Hats.

LEXINGTON PEOPLE ARE ALWAYS WE COME AT OUR STORE J. L. MIMNAUGH & Company.

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Buy your garden seed at The Bazaar. Fresh stock just in.
Peach trees are beginning to bloom in all their glory.
Mr. L. K. Johnson, of the Edisto section, was in town yesterday.
Hon. E. L. Asbill, of Leesville, was in town yesterday on legal business.
Ladies' spring and summer dress goods arriving daily at our store. Call to see them. W. P. Roof.
Mr. Holly Shealy, of Peak, was in town on Monday.
Messrs. Lester Miller and Van Wingard spent Sunday at Batesburg.
Beautiful line of embroideries just received at W. P. Roof's. Call and see them.
Mr. A. B. Bachman, of New Brookland, was here on Monday.
The finest fresh mackerel at lowest prices. I want you to try them. W. P. Roof.
The Rev. W. B. Kyzer will begin a gospel tent meeting here on Tuesday night, March 9th.
All of the ladies should call at our store and see the new spring goods now being opened up. W. P. Roof.
The Dispatch has received an interesting article from "Critic," which will appear next week.
Mr. Jule Bradford, of New York is on a visit to his father, Mr. C. S. Bradford.
Judge T. E. Ranch, of Ballentine, was here on matters of business Monday.
Mr. F. H. Hendrix, chairman of the board of equalization for the town of Leesville, was here on Monday.
Ladies are cordially invited to call at our store and inspect the new spring and summer goods arriving daily at our store. W. P. Roof.
Mr. Sam P. Roof is attending the United States court at Florence as a grand juror.
ITCH cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. Never fails. Sold by Derrick's Drug Store. 6m31
Woods' Seed Irish potatoes at W. P. Roof's. None are better and we want you to try them.
WANTED—A few copies of The Dispatch of Nov. 18, 1908. Lexington Dispatch.
For fine dress or substantial shoes, see the large and well selected stock at H. M. Wingard's.
Supervisor Langford has not completed his list of road overseers, but will do so at an early date.
You will find all the latest style shoes for gents at right prices at Meetze & Son's.
The editor spent Sunday at the home of his niece, Mrs. J. Tally Harth, in Columbia, where he was royally entertained.
Ladies' oxfords and slippers, in black and tan, all the newest lasts, can be found at Meetze & Son's at lowest prices.
Mr. Ritter, member of the Lyric orchestra, Columbia, accompanied Mr. J. Tally Harth on his automobile ride over here on Sunday.
Mr. R. L. Keisler, the popular chairman of the Lexington County Dispensary board, called in yesterday and renewed his subscription.
We want to tell you when you need good groceries at H. M. Wingard's is the place to buy them.
Just arrived, a full line of dry goods at lowest prices. You can save yourself money by calling on us before buying. H. N. Kaminer & Co.
Dr. H. W. Bays will deliver his noted lecture on "Courtship and Marriage" in Roof's hall tomorrow night. Don't fail to hear him.
The roads in many sections of the county are said to be in a deplorable condition, due to the large amount of hauling and the excessive rains of late.
Whenever you are in Columbia, go to Ben David's, The Parlor Restaurant, for first-class meals. Ladies and gentlemen are served in style with the best on the market.

Mrs. J. H. Counts, of Irmo, is now making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. D. Dent, in this town, much to the pleasure of her host of friends.

I have arranged a crockery counter of white and decorated wares and the prices will astonish you. W. P. Roof.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Tally Harth, of Columbia, spent Sunday afternoon in Lexington, having come over in their handsome automobile.

Mr. Chas. H. Drafts, a popular clerk of the Albion hotel in Augusta, spent Sunday with his parents, the Hon. and Mrs. Geo. S. Drafts.

When you need children's shoes and oxfords, be sure to see the line carried by Meetze & Son before buying elsewhere.

Dr. and Mrs. Andrew B. Drafts and charming little daughter, Helen, of Hendersonville, N. C., have returned home, after a visit to the former's parents, Hon. and Mrs. Geo. S. Drafts.

LOST—On Sunday, Feb. 14, between the residence of C. M. Eard and the Lutheran church, a ladies' old gold heart-shaped breast pin with a four-leaf clover and one tiny pearl on it. Reward if returned to The Dispatch office.

Miss Lynn George, after spending several days with relatives and friends in Wagener and at Kitchen's Mill, has returned to her home here, accompanied by her charming friend, Miss Lizzie Garvin.

We have just received a new line of dry goods and notions for the spring and summer trade. You are invited to call and take a look whether you buy or not. It is a pleasure for us to show you.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harman and children, of Augusta, are visiting the former's parents, Col. and Mrs. M. D. Harman. Mr. Harman is the popular superintendent of the Augusta Lumber Co.

Mr. Carl A. Roof left on Monday for Columbia, where he has accepted a permanent position in the postoffice.

We cordially invite the ladies of Lexington and surrounding country to make an inspection of the beautiful new spring dress goods we are opening up every day. Our stock embraces everything that's new and stylish and you will find our prices very reasonable.

Meetze & Son.

Magistrate Thos. L. Harman, in his court yesterday, gave John Starling, a negro, fifty dollars or sixty days, for drunk and disorderly conduct, on colored Baptist church grounds on Sunday and carrying concealed weapons.

Maj. and Mrs. John Wilson Butler left on Saturday for Washington to be present at the inauguration of President Taft and to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. Jules A. Krentzlen. Maj. and Mrs. Butler will also visit Philadelphia and other points of interest before returning.

Our young friend and faithful subscriber, Henry Jake Rawl, of Prosperity, in remitting for his paper the other day said: "I certainly appreciate the weekly visits of The Dispatch and if I should get to the end of the earth, be sure and send the Lexington Dispatch after me."

Camp Roof's Meeting.

"The best meeting of Confederate veterans I ever attended," was the way Gen. Ulysses R. Brooks described the meeting held Saturday afternoon by Camp Roof of Lexington. Gen. Brooks made an extremely interesting talk to the camp and was loudly applauded by the old soldiers present. Miss Catherine Lumpkin of this city delivered an inspiring piece of elocutionary work, and her father, Col. W. W. Lumpkin, also addressed the camp. Another speaker was Mr. W. F. Myers. The music was particularly fine. Rev. S. R. Bass conducting this feature of the entertainment.—The State, 1st.

Measure Is Passed.

Washington, March 1.—The house this afternoon, by a vote of 157 to 147, passed the Weeks-Lever Appalachian forest reserve bill.

Subscribe to The Dispatch.

Avery THE JEWELER

1637 Main St., Columbia, S. C.

Unsurpassed opportunity is given here to find attractive articles for gift purposes, and Dispatch readers are cordially invited to do their shopping at Avery's.

A Store Full of good things awaits inspection and attractive prices prevail, so none may go away dissatisfied. Can mention but few things in this place. For fuller details visit Avery's.

Watches of all styles, sizes and prices. We prefer to sell the finest, but whether its $100.00 or $1.00 you wish to spend you get good value any time.

Umbrellas make useful gifts for women and men. Finely mounted in gold and silver from $3.50 to $25.00.

Fans are essentially feminine. Dainty white and black designs, and hand painted effects. Prices very reasonable.

Silverware from leading factories, and this stock comprises goods in sterling silver from Tea Sets to Tea Balls with all the spoons, forks and knife family. The silver plated goods for common every day use is likewise complete.

Jewelry in all forms comprise a carefully selected stock and whether its 25 cents or 25 dollars you have to spend you can find it at Avery's.

Eyes that need glasses get most scrupulous attention by a graduate optician.

Free. I am giving away a few pictures—a reproduction of a $12,500 painting. To get it you must register your name at this store before Dec. 25th. It's free—there is no chance, no drawing for it. Ask any one in the store about it.

AVERY, The Jeweler

1637 Main St., Columbia, S. C.

The Fresh Air Fiend.

The windows must be open wide, No heat must grace the room; No flannel blankets on the bed, On straw he'd sleep as soon.

Each day he'd walk about ten miles And to the lake would trip; And when 'twas zero weather He'd take his daily dip.

But now cold air, I am afraid, He doesn't get a lot, Where Willie's gone I hate to say, But I fear 'tis awful hot.

—Judge.

Good morning! Won't you come in and see our new style Low Shoes for Ladies?

The kind we sell at $2.00 you will find nicer, finer and better made than the kind you have been getting.

Tan Kid, Tan Calf and Black Kid are the most popular this season.

EHRlich's.

1643 Main St., 1627 Main St., COLUMBIA, S. C.

GRAND LOT OF MULES AND HORSES.

We now have in our barns the grandest lot of Good Mules and Business Horses and Mares ever shipped to Columbia. We have matched teams in big mules, and matched teams in medium sized mules.

Two car loads cotton mules, together with several good business horses and mares are included in this grand lot. And there never was a better time to buy than right now.

"Our Guarantee Means Something."

Gregory - Conder Mule Company

1113 Hampton Street, Columbia, S. C.

WE HAVE

one car of the best Mules that were ever brought to Columbia. Come and see them for they are fine.

CAUGHMAN BROS.

1313 Assembly Street, Columbia, South Carolina.

W. P. ROOF

LEXINGTON, S. C., Agent for all kinds of Farming Implements. WRITE FOR PRICES.

Headquarters for all Kinds of Fertilizers.

It is a recognized fact that we are the largest dealers of Commercial Fertilizers in this section. We buy our Kanits, Nitrate of Soda and Murate of Potash for the spot cash? And in this way are better prepared to give you lower prices than you can get most anywhere. Come to see us. Tell your friends about us. Prices are the lowest. Goods are the best. We want to figure with the best farmers of Lexington county, believing that it will be to their pocket book's sake.

E. JONES COMPANY,

THE LEADERS. THE PRICE FIXERS OF BATESBURG AND NEIGHBORING TOWNS.