Young Merchant Murdered.

J. Ben Smoak, aged 24, a merchant, was murdered and robbed on Saturday night at his store at Smoaks, a small town in Colleton county, twelve miles from Branchville. It is supposed to be the crime of a tramp. Mr. Smoak not coming home in time, friends went to his store and found him dead—shot in the breast—and his cash and other valuables stolen. He had been merchandising only a short time and was recently married.

Pellagra in Baltimore.

Dr. D. S. Thayer, of Baltimore, who recently visited Columbia for the purpose of studying the pellagra cases at the State asylum, has written Dr. Babcock that he has discovered a typical case of the disease in Baltimore. The disease is becoming very widespread, Dr. C. H. Lavinder of the public health and marine hospital of the United States declaring that 1500 is a conservative number of the number of cases in the Southern States in the past two years.

Lived 115 Years on Onions.

Cleveland, O., June 7.—Mrs. Rebecca Burns, better known as "Aunt Becky," died at her home near Bellefontaine, Ohio, the other day aged 115 years. She attributed her longevity to the fact that she ate onions twice daily. She began this diet when a girl and never gave it up. To within a day or two of her death she insisted on being served with them.

Mrs. Burns was born in Northampton, N. C. She often told of seeing George Washington when she was a little girl.

Like a Call.

Youngly—Did you ever notice that the matrimonial process is like that of making a call? You go to adore, you ring a belle, and you give your name to a maid.

Cynicus—Yes, and then you're taken in.—Boston Transcript.

Between Dudes.

First Dude—I've been invited to go gunning next week. What ought I to give the fellow that beats up the birds?
Second Dude—Well, old chappie, it depends where you hit him, don't you know.—New York Life.

Uncle Allen.

"I've noticed," remarked Uncle Allen Sparks, "that the fellow who really swears off from his bad habits doesn't go around advertising it beforehand."—Chicago Daily Tribune.

After Church.

"What was that sentence the choir repeated so often during the litany?"
"As near as I could make out it was 'We are all miserable sinners.'"—Boston Courier.

And Frenzying Too.

"Say, if your friends are always striking you for a loan"—
"Yes."
"Isn't that frenzied finance?"—Puck.

She Shot Herself.

Young Colored Woman Attempts to Commit Suicide and Fails.

Maggie Waldop, a young colored woman, attempted to commit suicide yesterday morning about six o'clock, at the home of Mattie Miller, wife of Frank Miller, colored. She got hold of a pistol and declared she was going to kill herself. The other woman tried to take the pistol from her, and in the struggle it went off, the ball striking Maggie in the thigh, imbedding itself in or near the bone, where it remains. No reason is assigned for the attempt, except that her mind has been a little draft for a day or two.—New Berry Observer.

Woman Shoots Burglar.

Gainesville, Ga.—Awakened at an early hour Friday to find a burglar in her home on a farm several miles from Gainesville, Mrs. James Longstreet, the widow of the famous Confederate general, opened fire on the intruder, causing him to leave the house post haste abandoning his booty as he flew.

Mrs. Longstreet heard the burglar in the dining room, which adjoins her bed room. Quietly arising from her bed, she seized her revolver and tiptoed, down to the room. There the man was busy sewing the family plate in a sack. She opened fire, shooting five times.

Neighbors who heard the shots hurried to the Longstreet home, but Mrs. Longstreet had again calmly retired.

Unfortunate.

Begging Tramp—"Love is blind, ye know."—Judge.

The Trouble.

Friend—"Don't worry because your sweetheart has turned you down since you lost your money. There are as good fish in the sea as ever were caught."

Jilted One—"Yes, but I have lost my bait."—Harper's Bazar.

Weston, Ocean-to-Ocean Walker

Said recently: "When you feel down and out, feel there is no use living, just take your bad thoughts with you and walk them off. Before you have walked a mile things will look rosier. Just try it. Have you noticed the increase in walking of late in every community? Many attribute it to the comfort which Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes, gives to the millions now using it. As Weston has said, 'It has real merit.'"

Scratch.

The hen that scratches all the day
Is just a good example:
She works in her peculiar way
An' gits a livin' ample.
Good times or poor, it's all the same,
She spends no time cross-patchin';
She starts an' keeps right in the game.
An' tends right to her scratchin'.
We kin take courage from the hen,
An make our profits double;
We must dig all the hander when
We're weighted down with trouble.
We've got to scratch an' scratch away.
The hen's good example;
'Twill drown the sorrows of the day
An' bring a livin' ample.—Boston Herald.

Tribulations of an Editor.

A lawyer charges a man $10 for ten minutes' conversation. The man insists on paying it. A doctor charges $1 for a prescription, and the patient says, "Oh, pshaw! Is that enough?" An undertaker charges $100 for conducting a funeral and he is just perfectly lovely with everybody inside and outside the family. A man buys a gold brick and apologizes for not having bitten before. An editor walks a mile in the hot sun to get facts of a death or a wedding or a social function and spends three hours writing it up, and tells lies praising people until he hates himself. Then if he makes an insignificant omission or charges 5 cents straight for three extra copies he is a stingy, careless, good for nothing old cuss who never gets anything right and charges four times the price of city papers twice as large.—Marion (Ga.) Record.

Sometimes you may be told that there are other things just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. That isn't so. A trial of DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills is sufficient to convince you how good they are. Send your name to E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago; for a free trial box.
