The Record's Pathfinders.

The Columbia Record's Capital-County pathfinders passed through Lexington on Monday morning. Mr. Jas. A. Hoyt, the brilliant editor of The Record, Mayor Reamer, Mr. Jno. J. Cain and Mr. Roddy, accompanied the scouts as far as this place.

Hon. Frank W. Shealy, clerk of the court and one of the most ardent supporters of the good roads movement in this county, accompanied the pathfinding party, composed of Messrs. Baker, Horton, Kind, Youngblood and Fishburne, as far as Johnston, returning to Lexington on the afternoon train. Mr. Shealy was delighted with the trip.

This undertaking on the part of The Record will undoubtedly prove beneficial to the entire state. It is bound to create a deeper interest in the good roads movement everywhere. We congratulate our contemporary on this, its latest venture, in behalf of the people of the entire state.

To Develop Waterpower.

For the past several days a large force of hands has been at work near Dreher's ferry, laying the preliminary plans for the development of the waterpower at that place.

It seems to be a certainty now that this power will be developed. It is understood that a syndicate, headed by Mr. Jas. U. Jackson, of North Augusta, has secured an option on the property, which practically means the purchase of the property. Mr. Jackson was here a few days ago with some capitalists from Pittsburg, Pa., who are interested in the project, it is said.

With the development of the waterpower at Dreher's, it is said that the Augusta-Aiken and Columbia Electric railway will take on new life.

Lexington cannot afford to let this opportunity pass to aid the promoters of these undertakings which means so much to the county and her resources.

Girl Accuses Her Brother.

There is a young man in the Cherokee County jail charged with a most terrible crime. His name is Bascomb Brant. His sister, who is a cripple, and is only about sixteen years of age, gave birth to a child a few nights ago, and upon being questioned in regard to the paternity of the infant, said that her brother, Bascomb, was its father. Brant was arrested and committed to jail the next day under the charge of incest. C. P. Sims, of Spartanburg, represents the defendant, and has sued out a writ of habeas corpus, which will be heard by Judge Gary on Tuesday. It is said that the girl now says that she was out of her head when she made the statement implicating her brother. The Brants live at the Hamrick Mills village, and have not been residents of Gaffney very long.

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, COUNTY OF LEXINGTON. Notice is hereby given that an election will be held at the voting precincts prescribed by law in said county, on Tuesday, August 17, 1909, as provided in the following Act:

NO. 42.

AN ACT to prohibit the manufacture, sale, barter, exchange, giving away to induce trade, the furnishing at public places or otherwise disposing of alcohol, spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or beverages, or other liquors or beverages by whatsoever name called, which if drunk to excess will produce intoxication, except for sale of alcohol in certain cases upon certain conditions, and except the sale of wines for sacramental purposes, and to provide penalties for the violation thereof.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina, That all alcoholic liquors and beverages, whether manufactured within this State or elsewhere, or any mixture by whatsoever name called, which if drunk to excess will produce intoxication, are hereby declared to be detrimental, and their use and consumption to be against the morals, good health and safety of the State, and contraband. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation or association within this State to manufacture, sell, barter, exchange, receive, accept, give away to induce trade, deliver, store, keep in possession in this State, furnish at public places or otherwise dispose of any spirituous, malt, vinous, fermented, brewed or other liquors and beverages, or any compound or mixture thereof which contains alcohol and is used as a beverage, and which if drunk to excess will produce intoxication, except as hereinafter provided.

Section 2. That wholesale druggists may lawfully sell in wholesale quantities to retail druggists and to public or charitable hospitals or to medical or pharmaceutical college, and in no other way, pure alcohol for medicinal purposes only, or grain alcohol to be used by chemists or bacteriologists actually engaged in scientific work and for such purposes only, and such wholesale druggists shall at the end of each month in which any such sales have been made, file with the clerk of the court of the county in which they do business, a statement in writing under oath, giving the name of the purchaser, the price paid, the date of sale, and the quantity and character of the alcohol sold. That if said wholesale druggist making such sale is not a resident of the State of South Carolina, then such statement shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of the county in which the purchaser resides.

Section 3. That any retail druggist whose place of business is located in any of the incorporated towns or cities of this State, who is himself a registered or licensed pharmacist, or who regularly employs a registered or licensed pharmacist, may sell, in the manner herein set out, upon filing a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved by the clerk of the court, in which such druggist does business, conditioned for a faithful observance of the provisions of this Act, such bond to be approved by the clerk of the court, pure alcohol for medicinal purposes only, grain alcohol to chemists and bacteriologists actually engaged in scientific work, and for such purposes only and wine to be used for sacramental or religious purposes only: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prevent such druggists from using alcohol in the compounding of prescriptions or other medicines, the sale of which would not subject him to the payment of a special tax required of liquor dealers by the government of the United States: Provided, further, That nothing herein contained shall prevent such druggists from compounding or selling medicinal preparations manufactured in accordance with formulas prescribed by the United States

Pharmacopoeia and National Formulary which contain no more alcohol than is necessary to extract the medicinal properties of the drugs contained in such preparations, and no more alcohol than is necessary to hold the medicinal agents in solution, and which are manufactured and sold as medicine, and not as a beverage.

Section 4. That no sale of pure alcohol, for medicinal purposes, shall be made by any retail druggist, except upon the prescription of a regular practicing physician of this state, who before writing such prescriptions, shall make an actual examination of the person for whom the prescription is issued, and the said prescription shall be substantially in the following form: "State of South Carolina, _____ County. To _____ Druggist. I, _____, a regular licensed and practicing physician under the laws of this State, do hereby certify that I have examined _____ a patient in my charge, and I do hereby prescribe for the use of said patient _____ alcohol, and I further certify, that the use of such alcohol is, in my judgement, absolutely necessary to alleviate or cure the illness or disease from which said patient is now suffering, and that I am not interested in the drug store to which this prescription is directed, nor in the profits on the drugs herein prescribed. Dated _____ M. D.

Section 5. That no prescription shall be filled herein except upon the day upon which it is issued or the following day, and no more than one-half pint of alcohol shall be sold delivered on any one prescription, and when such prescription is filled, it shall not be refilled, but shall be delivered to the druggist filling same, and at the end of the month in which the same is filled, it shall be filed by such druggist in the office of the clerk of court of the county in which said druggist is engaged in business: Provided, No druggist, who is also a practicing physician, shall fill his own prescriptions hereunder, nor shall they be filled at any drug store in which the said physician is financially interested: Provided, further, That the delivery of such alcohol sold under such prescription shall be made only directly to the person for whom such prescription is issued or to the physician, or to some one authorized by the physician, or in case of a minor to his parent or guardian, or physician or some one authorized by said physician.

Section 6. That any retail druggist whose place of business is located in any of the incorporated towns or cities of the State may lawfully sell alcohol in quantities not greater than five (5) gallons to be used in the arts or for scientific or mechanical purposes, and such druggist may sell, in like quantities, to chemists or bacteriologists engaged in scientific work, and for such purposes only, and such druggists may sell in quantities, not greater than one-half gallon, wine used for sacramental or religious purposes only. That any person desiring to purchase alcohol for the purpose set out in this section, shall sign a written or printed statement, giving his name, residence, occupation and the purpose for which he intends to use said alcohol, and he shall certify that said alcohol is purchased in good faith for such purposes and no other, and that said druggist shall, at the end of each month, file with the clerk of court of the county in which he is engaged in business, all such statements, with a certificate under oath, that said statements contain a true statement of all such sales.

Section 7. That it shall be unlawful to sell wine for sacramental purposes except to a minister, pastor, priest or regularly constituted officer of a regularly organized religious congregation or church. Any person, desiring to make such purchase, shall sign a written or printed statement, giving his name and residence and the name and location of the church for which such wine is purchased, and he shall certify that said wine is purchased in good faith, to be used for sacramental or religious purposes, and no other. That such statement shall be filed, as provided for in the next preceding section, in the office of the clerk of the court.

Section 8. That all statements or prescriptions required by this Act to be filed in the office of the clerk of the court shall be recorded and properly indexed by him in a book kept for that purpose, which shall at all times be open for public inspection, and a certified copy of such record, or the original statement or prescription, with the certificate of the clerk of the court indorsed thereon, showing that it has been recorded, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts recited therein. For making such record, the clerk of the court shall be entitled to charge and collect for each prescription a fee of five cents, and for each statement, other than prescription a fee of fifteen cents, which shall be paid by the party filing the same.

Sec. 9. That in addition to the requirements hereinbefore prescribed, all licensed and registered druggists selling alcohol by prescription shall keep a record thereof, which shall bear the true dates of the sales, the names of the persons to whom sales were made, the names of physicians or surgeons upon whose prescriptions each were made such records shall be subject at all times to the inspection of the solicitor of the district, the sheriff and other peace officers of the county, the mayor and police officers of the city or town in which said licensed and registered pharmacist's business is located, and all other persons, and each druggist making any such sales shall be required to report, under oath, to the Circuit Judge presiding at each term of court of the county in which said druggist is engaged in business, a true statement of such facts, and also file on Monday morning of each week a list of the alcohol sold by him, to whom sold and

At The Lyric.

The shows appearing this week at The Lyric eclipses all previous efforts of the management of this ever popular theatre. The musical feature at The Lyric this week is more than worth the price of admission. Two large sections of the roof have been removed and the room is delightfully cool. The moving pictures this week are better than ever, and the other attractions are up to the high standard. The price of admission is only ten cents.

Free Ferrisage.

The ferris will be free at Amick's ferry on Friday, July 30th, to all parties wishing to attend the barbecue of Mr. B. E. Amick.

WHITTEN'S GREAT JULY BARGAIN CARNIVAL NOW ON

We are engaged in a supreme effort to make our sales for July exceed those of any previous July and in addition to the many special lots bought for this month's selling, we have marked down to, and below cost, the season's accumulation of remnants, odds and ends, throughout the entire establishment.

We have the goods you want—you have the money we want—Come and examine the offerings, both in the specials, odds and ends, remnants and our regular stocks, which we keep up throughout the season. If you are not convinced that we offer superior advantages as a trading place in styles, qualities and lowness of prices then go to the other stores.
