STOP AT THE CALDWELL.

We want all our readers to stop at The Caldwell hotel when they go to Columbia. This hotel is ideally located for all those who are seeking a good place to eat or sleep, as is evidenced by the growing popularity. The patronage has grown far greater than the most sanguine had expected. The manager is ever looking after the comfort and pleasure of the guests, and a better place is not to be found. Stop at The Caldwell.

BY ACCIDENT CHILD POISONED AT GREER.

Greenville, July 26.—The young son of Dr. James, a prominent physician of Greer, died early this morning in most excruciating agony. The father hurriedly leaving home yesterday afternoon accidentally dropped a bottle of morphine on the porch floor and the little fellow picked it up and, when discovered by his mother, had eaten the greater part of the contents of the bottle. A physician was quickly summoned and a stomach pump applied. The poisoning had advanced too far to be overcome.

Negro Lad Kills Mother.

Macon, Ga., July 26.—While seated at the dinner table yesterday, Adolphus Daniels shot and killed his mother, Rachel Broughton, and fatally wounded his stepfather, Maj. Broughton. All parties are colored.

It is said the man was abusing the boy's mother. The boy fired on his stepfather, one of the bullets striking his mother, inflicting a mortal wound.

The State Farmers' Union.

It is expected that there will be from 75 to 200 delegates here this week in attendance upon the State Farmers' union. The meeting will be called to order Wednesday night at the State house.

The convention will have before it for consideration many matters of great interest, not only to the farmer, but to all others whose prosperity is bound up with that of the farming class. It is expected therefore, that the session of the convention, which will hold for about three days will be largely attended. The railroads will give reduced rates and as the convention comes off at a time when farming operations are not so pressing, there is every reason to expect full delegations from the thirty or more counties entitled to representation.—The State.

Groom Proves To Be Slayer.

Denver, Colo., July 23.—James W. Robinson, who was arrested here yesterday on suspicion of being J. L. Byrd wanted in Memphis, Tenn. for the murder in 1907, of Jas Black, a shoe dealer of that city, to-day confessed he was the murderer. Byrd was married two weeks ago at Colorado Springs, and with his bride was enjoying his honeymoon at Denver. Robinson confessed at the request of his bride.

After the chief of police had questioned Robinson for some time, Mrs Robinson exclaimed:

"Jimmie, if you are the man, tell them. It will make no difference to me, because I will stick by you, no matter what the circumstances."

Robinson, white and shaking then said:

"Chief, I am the man you want. I killed Black because I thought my life was in danger. We engaged in an argument over a base ball bet, and he started towards me with an open knife in his hand. I seized the only weapon at hand a shoe stretcher, and struck him over the head with it. I did not mean to kill him."

New Trial Ordered.

Judge Chas. G. Dantzer has granted a new trial in the case of Jno. W. Ross, plaintiff, against Southern Railway Co. The case has twice been tried, the first trial the jury failing to reach a verdict. The second trial was had at the February term of court, when the jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $16,600. The action was brought for $25,000.

Little Mountain Bank.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Little Mountain bank was held on the 21st. The report of the president showed a good year's business and everything in fine condition. The stockholders elected the following board of directors; J. H. Wise, Dr. J. M. Sease, J. B. Derrick, S. J. Derrick, J. D. Davenport, Rev. H. P. Counts, D. E. Farr, W. A. Counts, M. G. Shealy. At a subsequent meeting of the directors the following officers were reelected: Dr. J. M. Sease, president; J. H. Wise, vice president; W. A. Counts, cashier. The directors declared a semi-annual dividend of three per cent, payable at once, and carried $1,000 to the surplus fund.

A County Auditor Resigns.

Columbia July 26.—County Auditor C. W. McCrary of Laurens County, tendered his resignation to Governor Ansel today to take effect August 31. The reason assigned is business cares of a private nature. The resignation will be accepted and a successor named for the year remaining in the term.

At the Grand.

The Wills Comedy Company, after charming Columbia audiences at The Grand theatre for one month, has departed, but a new bill which promises to be equally as popular with the fun loving public has been secured for this week. The house was packed to the utmost Monday and Tuesday nights, which is ample evidence that The Grand will always amuse those who attend the shows there.

The Lyric.

This is the banner week at this popular theatre in Columbia. The program eclipses all previous efforts on the part of the manager. Four acts have been booked for the week, two singles and two doubles. Some of the finest moving pictures ever shown in Columbia. The Lyric is delightfully cool, and a better place to spend an evening cannot be found.

Fine Melon.

The Dispatch force wishes to return thanks to Mr. James Dooley for a very fine melon, which was enjoyed by all.

Bottle drinks of all kinds and flavors will be found at the Bazaar Fountain. On ice in season.

THE KAUFMAN DRUG COMPANY, LEXINGTON, SOUTH CAR.

President Harmes.

On Sunday evening the Rev. John Henry Harmes, president of Newberry college, delivered a strong and impressive sermon in St. Stephen's Lutheran church, using as his theme "Christian Education." This was the first time the Rev. Mr. Harmes has appeared before a Lexington audience, and he made a most favorable impression.

In the forenoon he preached at Providence and in the afternoon at Pisgah. At each place he was greeted by large and appreciative congregations.
