FARMERS' BUSINESS

We give particular attention to the business of farmers. A checking account with a bank is a convenience no farmer should be without.

Our savings department is another excellent feature, affording, as it does, the privilege of withdrawals, together with the advantage of interest on your funds.

Our commodious offices always at the disposal of our customers.

We cordially invite the farmers to make this their Banking Home.

THE FEED VALUE OF COTTON SEED

The Farmers Beginning to be Appreciative.

Farmers throughout the State are beginning to realize the value of feeding cottonseed meal to cattle. It has been recently pointed out that the same amount of cottonseed meal fed to cattle and the manure used as fertilizer will produce as much cotton as if put directly into the ground. It has also been claimed by experiment stations, and actual practice appears to confirm the statement, that by feeding cottonseed meal to cattle either for fattening or for the production of milk, full value is returned for the meal and roughness fed and that the manure comes as clear profit to the farmer, even if he does not obtain a profit from the cattle themselves.

South Carolina is making headway in the cattle raising industry. The Live Stock association has been working hard for some years to improve the class of cattle in the State and good results have been obtained. It is stated that with good judgment in the purchase of cattle the manure necessary for the farm can be produced at very little cost to the farmer. The preparing of cattle for the market is rendered cheaper, also, by the use of cottonseed meal.

Contraband Liquor Stolen From Sheriff.

The sheriff's office at Edgefield was broken into on Thursday night and four gallons of contraband liquor, recently seized by that officer, stolen. Mr. Ozuts has offered a reward of $100 for the apprehension of the guilty party or parties. There is no clue as to who they are.

The First Bale of Cotton Sold Here.

The first bale of new cotton sold in Lexington was marketed Saturday. The bale was raised by Mr. Geo. H. Fields, a progressive farmer of the Providence section, and weighed 409 pounds. It was graded as good middling and bought by Mr. W. P. Roof, the cotton mill man, for 12 1-4 cents. If the present sunshine continues it is thought that the fleecy staple will be plentiful within the next few days, as it is said to be opening very rapidly.

SOUTH CAROLINIAN FIGHTS LYNX IN DEN

Lowell, Ohio, Aug. 23.—William Smith, a South Carolina hunter, showed his bravery when armed with a big knife, he crawled yesterday into a den of lynx near here and killed the leader of the band. The battle lasted three hours. The lynx was six feet in length.

For several months the lynx has been a terror to the community. They have killed stock and attacked people. The den was in a wild, rocky ravine and none dared attempt to rout them.

Smith organized a posse to help him fight the animals, but he had barely got inside the den when the posse, frightened at the growls of the animals fled in terror. The battle was fought in darkness and the den was so small that Smith was unable to stand erect.

Orangeburg Taking Steps For Enforcing Law.

Acting upon the suggestion of The Sun, a meeting has been called to organize a law and order league to assist in the enforcement of the law against liquor-selling in Orangeburg. Following is the call made: "The citizens of Orangeburg and the vicinity, who are in sympathy with the enforcement of law and good order in the community, are requested to meet in the court house on Monday, the 23d instant, at 8:30 p. m., with a view of organizing a law and order league to aid the constituted authorities in the enforcement of law."

Columbia Special to News and Courier.

The dispensary cases will come up at the September term of court, which convenes the first Monday in September. Definite announcement was made to this effect today. A conference between attorneys was held in the office of Attorney General Lyon, who stated that he would insist upon the trial of the cases. The first week's jury was drawn today, but the cases will hardly come up the first week. The following are under indictment: John Black, L. W. Boykin, James Farnum, John Bell Towill, Joseph B. Wylie, J. M. Rawlinson, W. O. Tatam, M. A. Goodman and W. A. Eyears.

Much interest attaches to the outcome of the cases.
