Roof's Fall Opening.

There is no event in Lexington around which centers so much interest just at this season as the fall opening at W. P. Roof's. This opening will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Everybody in the big store is busy, arranging for this opening, which will be attended by the ladies from many miles around. The new millinery and suit department on the second floor, will be thrown open to visitors at 9 o'clock, Tuesday morning. The new styles are unusually attractive and already the big store is besieged with eager shoppers.

Fine Farm For Rent.

I offer for rent my farm, known as the old William Ballentine place, in the Fork, near the town of Chapin. Good two-horse farm open; good dwelling and tenant houses; fine water and healthy locality. For further information apply to

J. J. LONG,

Gilbert, R F D 3.

Reunion at Chapin.

It was the Editor's pleasure to attend the old soldiers reunion at Chapin on Friday of last week. This occasion was the annual gathering of the survivors of the "Lost Cause" in the Fork, but was attended by many from this side of the river and some came from adjoining counties. It was estimated that there were about five hundred people present. The address of welcome was delivered by Mr. W. Darr Haltiwanger, after which short but none the less entertaining addresses were made by Capt. P. B. Lever and the Rev. E. J. Sox. A bountiful picnic dinner, for which the ladies of the Dutch Fork are famous, was served in the grove near the Lutheran church. After dinner able addresses were made by Col. J. Brooks Wingard and Hon. C. M. Efrid, both of whom pleased the old soldiers, by reciting in eloquent terms the many trials, difficulties, etc., with which the Confederate soldier had to endure. Beautiful and glowing tributes were paid to the survivors now living. The day was delightfully spent by everyone present. A number of the young ladies were in attendance, and their presence added much to the occasion. We are ever pleased to mingle with our old comrades, especially those of our native county, and the reunion of Friday will linger long in our minds and hearts.

Missionary Society Meeting.

The Woman's Missionary Society of St. Michael's Lutheran church, will hold its annual public meeting on the 1st Sunday in October. Rev. E. C. Cronk of the Lutheran Board of Publication and his wife will deliver addresses on that occasion. Both are good speakers and will give the congregation something worth hearing. Come and hear them. Committee.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by All Druggists.

HORSES and MARES

Just Received our third shipment within three weeks.

In this lot we have several well-broken MARES and HORSES, suitable for farming and breeding.
