A FACTORY RHYME.

I live in a town away down south,
Where it is awfully slow,
And work in a mill with the rest of the trash.
As we are often called, you know.
Here's to the man that's a factory
hand,
As he toils amidst the racket,
Who pays a big price for his housing
and rice,
With very small wages to back it.
With boom or fame, 'tis all the same,
We folks earn every dollar;
Whether cake or cheese, pone or peas
We pay for all we swallow.
From soon 'til late at a hustle rate,
With cotton, cloth and thread;
We toil and sweat, and run in debt,
To buy our meat and bread.
You factory folks who read this rhyme
You will understand,
The reason why I love you so,
I am a factory hand.
While standing here between the frames,
You know I lose no time,
To keep them running in a whiz
And write this little rhyme.
I rise up early in the morn,
And work all day real hard,
To buy my little meat and bread,
And sugar, tea and lard.
I work for week's end to week's end,
And never lose a day,
So when that awful pay day comes,
I draw my little pay.
I then go home on pay day night,
And sit down in a chair;
The merchant raps on my door—
He comes to get his share.
When all my little debt is paid,
And nothing left behind;
I turn my pockets wrong-side out,
But not a cent can I find.
We factory folks work very hard,
We toil from soon 'til late;
We have no time to primp and fix
And dress right up-to-date.
Our children they grow up unlearned,
No time to go to school;
Almost before they learn to walk,
They learn to spin and spool.
The boss men jerk them 'round about,
And whistle very keen;
I tell you that the factory kids
Are really t'ated mean.
When we go walking down the street,
All wrapped in lint and strings;
They call us factory trash,
And other low down names.
Just let them wear their watches fine,
And rings and golden chains;
But when the trumpet of God shall sound,
They'll have to shed those things.
All factory folks are poor you know,
While here on earth they stay;
But if we will only trust the Lord,
We shall be rich some day.
O, listen now, dear factory friend,
Whosoever you may be!
I hope some day to grasp your hand
Beyond the crystal sea.
And then I hope to hear you say:
That on the earth below
You were a poor old factory hand,
And worked where 'twas awful slow.

Swept Over Niagara.

This terrible calamity often happens because a careless boatman ignores the river's warnings—growing ripples and faster current—Nainne's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the kidneys need attention if you would escape fatal maladies—Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see Backache fly and all your best feelings return. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1.00 bottle wholly cured me," writes J. E. THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

About Right, Too.

When you hear a man sneering at the local papers you can safely bet he don't spend his time making them better. The Georgetown Item says they who don't see a benefit arising from town from its newspapers haven't as much sense as a cock oyster, and are about as much value to a town as a ten-year-old delinquent.—Times and Democrat.
