A REGULAR COMMUNICATION of Lexington Lodge No. 152, A. F. M., will be held Saturday, October 23, 1909, at 7 o'clock, p. m. Brethren are earnestly requested to attend promptly.
By order of the W. M. GODFREY M. HARMAN, S. D.

Communion at Zion.

For the first time in many years it was the editor's pleasure to attend communion service at Zion Lutheran church on last Sunday and mingle with the good people of that section. Zion is one of the oldest churches in the county and has a large membership. The Rev. C. J. Sox, formerly of this county but now of Statesville, N. C., preached a fine sermon and assisted the pastor in administering the Lord's supper. The Rev. J. A. Cromer has been the beloved pastor of this congregation for a number of years and is growing stronger in favor with the people as the years come and go.

Why Hen Was Silent.

Hen Billings set in Stokes' store
Ha'f doz'n in his chair.
He'd set there fur an hour or more.
A picture uv despair.
Hen hedn't said a single word
Sence he hed set him down—
In fact, he hedn't skurried stirred
'Cept to increase his frown.

Jed Martin up an' spoke to Hen.
Hen only shook his head.
Stokes up an' asked him somethin' then.
But not a word he said.
Hen Billings wouldn't make a sound.
He kept his mouth shet tight.
Till by an' by it noised around
His "upper floor" warn't right.

That seemed to make ol' Henry mad.
He give ol' Stokes a frown.
Then grabbed a pencil an' a pad.
An' scrawled this message down:
"Ding hang yew fur a poppin'jay!
Don't think I've gone unstrung!
A wasp dew in my mouth today
An' stung me on the tongue!"
—Joe Cone in Boston Herald.

An Artistic Game.

"Dawdle has a good head. Two years ago he borrowed $10 of me and returned it inside of a week."

"Well?"
"Then he borrowed $100, and I haven't seen him since."—Detroit Free Press.

Explicit.

On the brink of a creek in Ireland is—or used to be—a little stone containing a carving of this inscription, intended to help travelers: "When this stone is out of sight it is not safe to ford the river."—Tit-Bits.

A Perfect Cure.

"I've cured my husband's insomnia."
"How did you do it?"
"Pretended I was sick, and the doctor left medicine which Henry was to give me every half hour all night long."

It is said that the citizens of Rock Hill have signed a petition to be presented to the next legislature asking that the Rock Hill school district be annulled and the whole board ousted.

Billy Felix's Letter.

To the Editor of The Dispatch.
The weather prophet failed in his predictions. We had a general variety of weather—heat and cold, wind and rain, thunder and lightning, frost and fog.

The school here opened this morning under the leadership of Miss Pauline Bennett of Olar.

The Arthur's Graded School opened last Monday under the tutorage of Miss Inez Jettecoat, of Norway, and Miss Mincey R. Pound.

Miss Rosa E. Fallaw is away attending the Ladies' Aid Society Institute at Newberry.

Miss Lillie I. Fallaw is assistant teacher in the Brookland school.

The Lexington Baptist Association, recently held here, was one of the best the writer has ever attended. S. J. Riddle was elected moderator; W. R. Lowe, clerk and Jno. W. Scofield, treasurer.

Barney L. Reeder and Miss Cora Reynolds, of Swanses, were happily married at the home of the officiating minister, W. B. Fallaw, on the 17th.

The health of the happy Felix family is excellent.

Mr. R. J. Fallaw, Sr., is visiting relatives and friends around Batesburg.

Miss Lottie Driggers, the popular daughter of N. H. Driggers, of Columbia, is spending some time at R. J. and J. F. Fallaw's.

Billy Felix.

Gaston, October 15.

Booze All Gone.

Dispenser J. S. Caughman sold the last half pint of dispensary booze on Saturday, and there is nothing to be had at the Lexington dispensary except a little beer and wine.

Dwelling Burned.

The dwelling of Mr. Thomas Senn, who resides about four miles from Gaston, was destroyed by fire on last Wednesday morning about 3 o'clock. Everything was destroyed and the loss is said to be $1,000 with no insurance.

Masonic Notice
