FARMERS' BUSINESS

We give particular attention to the business of farmers. A checking account with a bank is a convenience no farmer should be without.

Our savings department is another excellent feature, affording, as it does, the privilege of withdrawals, together with the advantage of interest on your funds.

Our commodious offices always at the disposal of our customers.

We cordially invite the farmers to make this their Banking Home.

Greenville Man Run Over.

Mill Employee Struck and Killed by Trolley Car.

Greenville, October 18.—John L. Fisher, an employee of the American Spinning Company, was instantly killed and his body mangled this afternoon about 6.30 by one of the trolley cars of the Greenville Traction Company. The accident occurred near the school house at that mill, not far out of the city limits. Fisher is about fifty years old and is survived by a wife and a large family. When crossing the track, the man was struck by the car which seemed to have come upon him unawares. The man's body was run over by the trucks of the car and was carried about twenty feet. When found, the body was lying across the track horribly mangled and with several members severed from the trunk and lying around in different places near the place where the body had been deposited by the car. The stomach was cut open and other portions of the body cut almost beyond recognition.

OBITUARY.

Minnie Viola Hayes, beloved wife of Jonah Hayes, and daughter of H. A. and L. A. J. Howard, was born Nov. 5th, 1885, and died September 6th, 1909. She was happily married to Jonah Hayes, March 20th, 1904. To this union two children were born, one son and one daughter. She leaves to mourn her early departure a husband, two children, a father, mother, one sister and three brothers, besides a host of other relatives and friends. She was an obedient daughter, a loving companion, an indulgent mother, and a kind and obliging neighbor to all around her. In early life she connected herself with the Methodist church at Lexington, and remained a consistent member until transferred to the church triumphant. The following day we laid her to rest in the cemetery at Boiling Springs beside her little brother and sister, there to await the glorious resurrection morn.

We know not what it is dear, this sleep so deep and still, The lids that will not lift again, though we may call and call— The strange white solitude of peace, that settles over all.

Death of Miss Ellen Leppard. Miss Ellen Leppard, until a few years ago a resident of this place, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alice Sawyer, in Hickory, N. C., last Sunday morning. Her remains were brought to Lexington on the early morning train Monday and interred in St. Stephen's cemetery with funeral services conducted by the Rev. T. S. Brown.

Miss Leppard was one of the purest and noblest characters that ever lived. In early life she connected herself with the Lutheran church and remained steadfast until death. She was active in all church and Sunday school work. In her immediate family she is survived by only one sister, Mrs. Sawyer, but she leaves a large family connection. She was about 65 years of age.

Have Returned to Lexington. All Lexington welcomes Mrs. J. A. Muller and her beautiful and charming daughter, Miss Meredith, back to Lexington. For the last few years they have been making their home in Columbia. They are occupying the Maj. Meetze home near the depot. Welcome, thrice welcome back home!

Judge Samuels, of Virginia, who is a candidate for Attorney General, has been indicted for assault. It is alleged that he assaulted Judge Saunders, a former member of the supreme court bench of West Virginia.

A tug boat of the Florida East Coast Railway was sunk during the storm last week and 12 men were drowned. Also a lot of damage was done to the work on the road.

It Must Go.

The liquor business continues to receive hard blows and they are given from all directions. The Southern States keep on passing prohibition laws or in strengthening those already in existence. In other States, county and other local option laws are also making themselves felt. The result of it all is a diminished consumption of liquor as the decreased internal returns clearly show. The same story comes from other lands. The revenue from liquor has dropped considerably in Great Britain and now an interesting fact comes from Germany. That country has increased largely tax on beer. The brewers and retail sellers have sought to recoup themselves by raising the price, and here is the result in Kiel. In the government dockyard of that city the 8,000 workmen were accustomed to drink 12,000 bottles of beer every day. These workmen resented the increased tax and turned to milk, coffee and mineral waters and as one result the 12,000 daily bottles of beer have fallen to 120. Another result is better work and far less loss of time by the workmen.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat.

Short Sentence for Man-slaughter.

Miami, Fla., Oct. 16.—One day in jail was the sentence to-day passed on E. T. Hopkins, convicted of man-slaughter, by Judge Minor Jones in the Circuit Court here. Last May Hopkins killed two men in North Miami, and was convicted of manslaughter in one case and acquitted in the other. In pronouncing sentence the Court declared the defendant should either have been convicted of murder or set free on a plea of self-defence.

Saturday a Busy Day.

Saturday was a busy day in Lexington. Our merchants had the largest business of the season. Cotton was selling for 13 1/2 cents, and many bales were sold. It seems to be the intention of the Lexington farmers, with but few exceptions, to sell out their crop at the present price, realizing that at present prices, there is money in farming. It is understood that the farmers are going to sow more small grain this fall than ever before, thus raising their own supplies, and making cotton a surplus crop.
