

STOVES, RANGES, HARDWARE FARMING IMPLEMENTS

If you are in the market for a COOKING or HEATING STOVE, let us figure with you. We handle the well known "MAJESTIC" of which you have read so much about. This is one of the very best Ranges manufactured. Let us show you when you come to the State Fair.

Hardware! Hardware!

We carry everything in Hardware, and our prices always please. We handle the best line of Cutlery in the city---All the best makes.

Wheelwright and Blacksmith Material always in stock, and all orders are promptly filled.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS

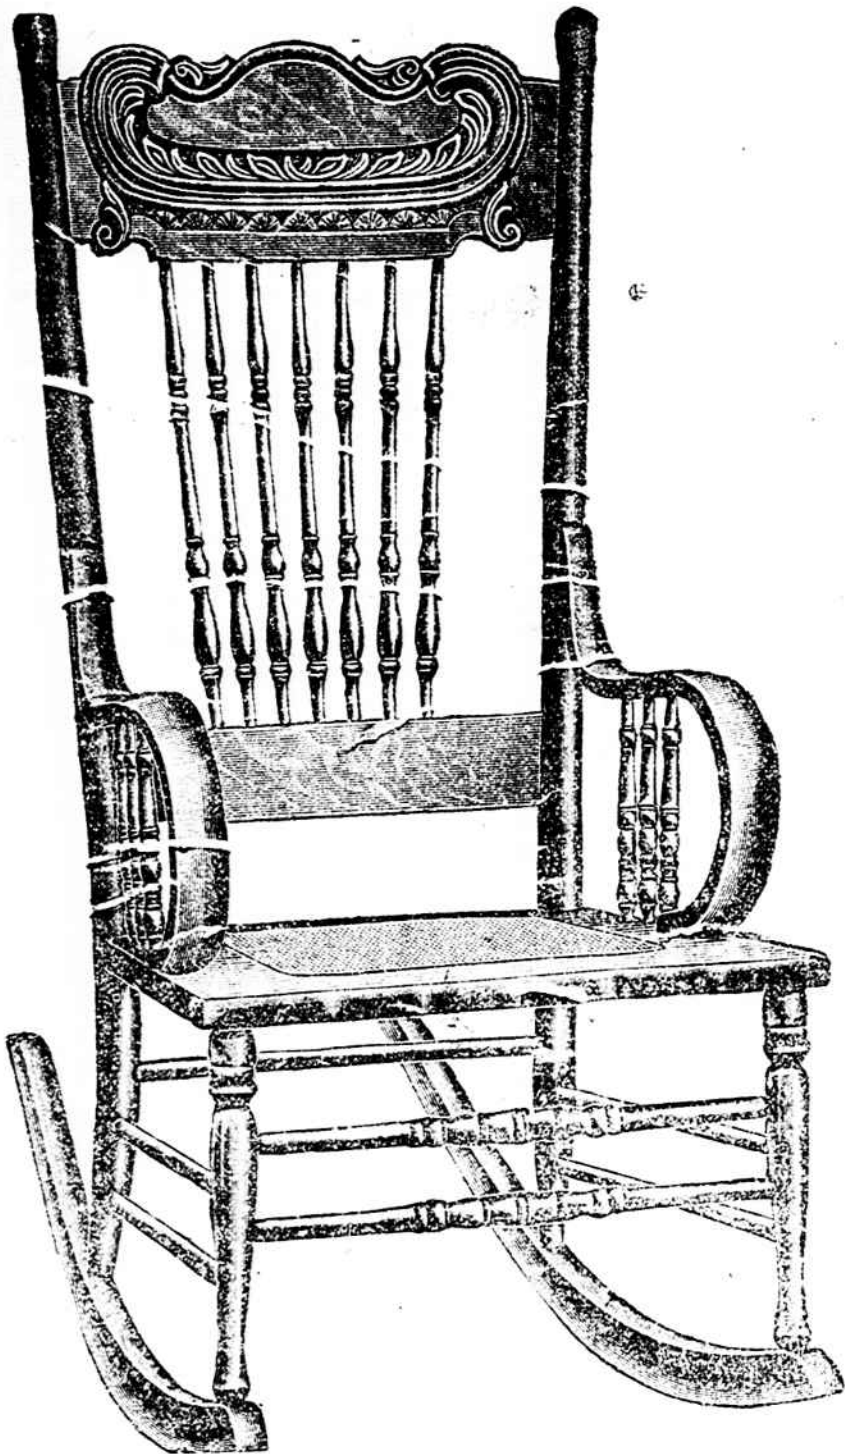

We make a specialty of Farming Implements---Carrying all the latest improved Cultivators, Plows, etc. Call to see us when in the city. We'll take pleasure in showing you through, whether you buy or not.

GROCERIES, GRAIN AND FEED

Our Grocery department is always stocked with the best goods, and we take pride in serving our retail and wholesale trade with promptness and care.

T. B. AUGHTREY & CO.

COLUMBIA, S. C.

This beautiful solid Oak Rocker made for service, looks well. To our Lexington friends..... $1.98

The Lion Furniture Co.
Ask for Catalogue. Columbia, S. C.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Subscribe for The Dispatch now. Everybody will be at the big show to-night.

Attend the estate land sale of I. H. Nunnemaker, near Irma, on Wednesday, Nov. 10th. Some fine lands will be sold. See ad elsewhere.

The Misses Ethel and Nellie Caughman, the two very attractive daughters of Railroad Commissioner Caughman, were here for the fair.

The Hon. E. C. Ridgell, of Batesburg, attended the fair yesterday.

Mr. Bob Leazer, now of Washington, formerly of Spring Hill, was among the fair yesterday.

Dr. R. G. Killingsworth, dentist, will be at Swansea, Wednesday, Nov. 3rd---one day only.

Miss Hattie Lee, the bright and interesting little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wingard, has been quite sick with fever for the past ten days, much to the regret of her host of friends.

The Lyceum Comedy Company has won the hearts of all Lexington. This is the cleanest and decidedly the best company that has ever appeared here, and should receive a large patronage every night.

Mrs. Jacob Roberts, of Columbia, attended the fair and is the guest of relatives here.

Mr. Thos. J. Harper, of Columbia, was among the prominent gentlemen at the county fair.

Solicitor George Bell Timmerman, one of the most popular practicing attorneys in the State, was at the fair.

State Senator Crosson, of Leesville, was here for the fair, meeting his friends.

"No Mother to Guide Her" will be presented by the Lyceum Comedy Company tonight. The price of admission will be 10 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Rawl, of Batesburg, were among the popular visitors here yesterday.

Col. D. J. Griffith, the able superintendent of the South Carolina penitentiary, and Mrs. Griffith were here for the fair.

Capt. C. C. Roberts, of the penitentiary, attended the county fair.

The Lyceum Comedy Company will present "No Mother to Guide Her" tonight, "Wanted a Wife" Friday night, and "Jesse James" on Saturday night. The price of admission is only 10 cents.

WANTED---Lightwood, oak and pine wood, on subscription at The Dispatch office.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Hiller and children of Columbia, were here for the fair.

Mr. Walter J. McCartha, of Batesburg, was here for the fair yesterday.

Mr. Albert M. Boozer and his charming daughter, Miss Lena Boozer of Columbia, are here for the fair.

We are indeed glad to see our friend Simon P. Shumpert, of Gaston, R.F.D. attending the fair. Mr. Shumpert is one of the best and most prompt paying subscribers on our list, and there is not a better man in the county.

Dr. R. G. Killingsworth, one of the popular dentists of Columbia and a distinguished Odd Fellow, passed through town Monday on his way home from Batesburg.

Messrs. H. J. and Felix Burgess, two prosperous young gentlemen of Samaria, were here Monday on matters of business.

We will meet our friends in the sand hills, beginning at Gaston on Monday, November 8th.

Hon. J. Frank Kneece, postmaster of Batesburg, was here yesterday for the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Livingston, of Leesville, were at the fair yesterday.

Don't Miss the State Fair

Columbia invites you. LEVER, The Shoe Man, in Columbia, invites you. Come! Make this store your headquarters

Clapp Shoes
THE ARISTOCRATS OF
MEN'S SHOES
$6.00 and $7.00

Walk-Over
$3.50, $4.00 and $5.00
THE YOUNG MAN SHOE

The great variety of styles and shapes we are showing make it to your interest to wait until you come to Columbia so you can get just the style Walk-Over you want.

Lever's Special for Men
$2.00, $2.50 and $3.00

You will save fifty cents to a dollar in actual wear if you will let us sell you your next pair. See if you don't.

Lever's Lorine
FASHION'S FAVORITE
$2.50, $4.00 and $5.00

Never was Ladies' Shoes so exquisitely fashioned as the Shoes you will find here. The $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 ones show the same excellence of style and quality that has made the higher price ones such favorites.

Children's Shoes

Phoenix Calf is the most durable leather ever put into a child's shoe. Try a pair next time. Misses size 11 1/2 to 2, $1.50. $2 to 3, $1.25. 5 to 8, $1.00.

Boys' Phoenix Shoes

School Shoes size 2 1/2 to 5 1/2, $1.50, 1 to 2, $1.35, 3 1/2 to 4 1/2, $1.25

SHOES FOR FARM WEAR

ELKSKIN, the largest wearing and softest leather ever put into a shoe, black and tan, $2.50.

Tan and black, Kangaroo Calf Work shoes, very durable

PRICE $2.00

Satin Calf, Single Sole Work Shoes

PRICE $1.75

WHEN YOU BUY, BUY GOOD SHOES, THEY COST LESS THAN SHODDY SHOES

LEVER, The Shoe Man, IN COLUMBIA

Good Farm For Sale.

I offer for sale, my place, two miles northwest of Swansea, S. C., containing 75 acres, with buildings, hog-wire pasture, which cost $50; plenty of water, 28 acres open land, balance in forest; plenty of litter and wood. Price $1,400. The Swansea section is one of the best farming sections in the county. C. C. Grant had this place rented this year. Fine cotton land. Parties wishing to buy address me at Batesburg, S. C., R.F.D. 1.

S. W. SHEALY.

The Lyric.

While attending the State Fair be sure to attend The Lyric theatre. Two performances daily, afternoon and night. The price of admission is only 10 cents. The best performers that money can secure has been obtained and there is no place in the city where you will find better amusements, no matter what price you pay. Be sure to visit the Lyric while in Columbia. Under the new management the Lyric is certainly up-to-date.