The City Cousin.

He's my own cousin, Mamma says; but my! he's awful green! Because he's always lived in town and so he hasn't seen So very many things. He said he never milked a cow. And all the grass he ever saw was in a yard till now! He never gather roasting ears, and it's the first time he Threw up a stick to knock down nuts and ate 'em off the tree! And he don't know where honey grows and never learned to swim! My! I would hate to be that old and not know more than him!

When he is home there ain't a creek and so he never goes A-fishing, and he hasn't got a suit of real old clothes, The kind you have to have to fish; he says he can't go Barefoot with us because the grass and weeds would hurt his toe! He won't chew slippery elm bark or beeswax; he's afraid. Of it because he told us that he don't know how it's made; And he won't dig up angle worms because they wiggle so; I never saw the place he lives, but my! it must be slow! He don't know what a spring-board is, and hasn't got a hat That you can dip a drink up with—he never heard of that! And if it's raining in the woods he hurries up to get Back home because he's so afraid he'll get his straw hat wet. One day we killed a garter snake—they don't have them in town— And he don't know the tail won't die until the sun goes down! And he is sorry that he never came down here the more He thinks of all the things he's earned he didn't know before! Still, I suppose he has to live some- Where, but it must be An awful thing to live so long and never climb a tree. Or plug a watermelon when you think it's ripe, or wear The kind of clothes that you can rip and do not need to care; Or drive into the creek or sit upon the bank and get Your back all freckled up and burned until you feel it yet When it is time to go to bed! He never learned to swim! My! I would hate to be that old and not know more than him! —I. W. Foley.

University Notes.

Special to The Dispatch:

Columbia, Dec. 7.—There are enrolled, this year, at the University of South Carolina, 320 students. Of this number eight are from other states, 140 new students and seven from Lexington county.

Except for the class games that are to be played now soon, the football season closed on Thanksgiving day with a game between Carolina and the Citadel. The next to open will be the baseball season. In the meanwhile the students will be kept busy in basket-ball, tennis and track work.

The two college publications—"The Carolinian" and the "Game Cock"—are in a flourishing condition.

The Game Cock is published weekly by the two societies and contains all the campus news. The Carolinian, published once a month, is filled with poems, essays, short stories and the like. This magazine is gotten out by the student-body and is always read with interest by each student.

There has been added to the University a course of lectures, given every Thursday by one of the professors. This is, indeed, quite an improvement and besides being enjoyed by all who attend, is very instructive and beneficial.

There are, also, new courses being offered in engineering and a special course in road construction.

The two societies—the Clariosophie and the Euphradian—are in excellent condition. Each has enrolled several new members and is doing some splendid work.

Perhaps the most beneficial thing on the campus is the new lecture-room building, finished last year. This building has twelve large lecture-rooms, and is well heated and lighted. There is, in course of erection, a new building for sciences, biology, geology, chemistry and physics.

The greatest need for the university at present is that of new dormitories and a new gymnasium. The dormitories are crowded this year, most of the rooms having three in them.

The University, as a whole, is accomplishing splendid results and with the completion of the new science building, new dormitories and a new gymnasium, will compare with any in the South. J. F. Wingard, '12.

If you are suffering from biliousness, constipation, indigestion, chronic headache, invest one cent in a postal card, send to Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa, with your name and address plainly on the back, and they will forward you a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Sold by all druggists.

Smokeless

Until science discovered a way to construct the Automatic Smokeless Device, and make it completely dependable, all oil heaters had one common great fault—smoke.

With the advent of the Automatic Smokeless Device, and its practical application to the

PERFECTION Oil Heater
 (Equipped with Smokeless Device)

the smoke problem was successfully solved.

The Perfection Oil Heater is the only heater equipped with this which insures a steady, full-glowing heat, with the wick turned up as high as it will go, without a shred of smoke. Reverse the motion, turn the wick down—there's no odor.

The smokeless device automatically locks and prevents the upward movement of the wick beyond the proper exposure. That is the secret. This splendid result gives leadership to the Perfection.

You may now have all the heat you want—when you want it—and where you want it—without the annoyance of smoke or odor. Brass foot holds 4 quarts of oil, which permits a glowing heat for 9 hours. Brass wick tube—damper top—cool handle. Cleaned in a minute. The Perfection is beautifully finished in Nickel or Japan.
