Death of Miss Lizzie Corley.

Miss Lizzie Corley, aged about 33 years, died at the home of her mother Mrs. Ellen Corley, at an early hour Monday morning, after a brief illness of fever. Miss Corley, although afflicted from birth, was greatly loved by a large circle of friends. Her remains were laid to rest in St. Stephen's church yard yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, the last sad rites being performed by the Rev. T. S. Brown.

Married.

Married, December 12, 1909, at the parsonage, by Pastor B. W. Cronk, Mr. Andrew Franklin Corley and Miss Maggie Olivia Meetze, all of Lexington county, S. C.

Tomatoes in December.

Mr. John Dooley, of near Lexington, one of the most successful truck farmers in the county, brought to The Dispatch office last week a basket of tomatoes as fresh and as fine as we have seen this year.

Conference Appointments.

The Methodist Conference, which met in Abbeville last week was one of the best meetings of the kind ever held in the State. But few changes were made in the appointments.

The Rev. J. W. Neely, who has been pastor of the church here goes to New Brookland. The Rev. J. C. Counts comes to Lexington in his place.

Following is a partial list of the appointments:
