Rabbit Answers Prayer.

Having gone through the hunting season without tasting a rabbit stew, of which she is particularly fond, Mrs. Mary Coleman, of Morgantown, near here, Thursday prayed that her appetite for rabbit might be appeased, and as she has great faith in prayer she waited hopefully all morning for some hunter friend to bring one.

At dinner time the rabbit had not come, and she went into the cellar for potatoes. In the potato bin sat a rabbit, too frightened to run, and one blow with a stick killed it. Mrs. Coleman says she never ate a better stew. —Nanticoke, Pa., dispatch to the New York World.

Dr. Arthur T. Holbrook is credited with the following:

A man by the name of Evans died, and went to heaven. When he arrived at the pearly gates he said to St. Peter:

"Well, I'm here."

St. Peter asked his name. "John Evans," was the reply.

St. Peter looked through the book and shook his head.

"You don't belong here," he said.

"But I am sure I belong here," said the man.

"Wait a minute," said Peter. He looked again and in the back of the book found the name.

"Sure," said the guardian of the gate, "you belong here, but you weren't expected for 20 years. Who's your doctor?"

The freckled lad grinned and whipped up the horse.

"You uns didn't seem to like the place?" he chuckled.
