

Mimnaugh's Semi-Annual Clearance Sale

Mimnaugh's buying power makes this sale possible. Realizing that cotton was going up, we bought an immense amount of White Goods and Muslin Underwear many months ago, paid cash and got a big discount. Now you reap the benefit, for we offer you these goods at old prices. A few months from now, and you would pay nearly twice as much for these goods, since cotton has nearly doubled in price since these goods were purchased.

We have included in this sale Ladies' Tailored Suits and Children's Cloaks at half prices, while Skirts, Underskirts, Blankets and other good seasonable merchandise are offered at prices unmatched anywhere.

ORDER BY MAIL

MIMNAUGH'S

COLUMBIA, S. C.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Six regular $2.50 Clocks at $1.98 at The Bazaar.

Mr. H. C. Kyzer, from the Hollow creek section, was in town Monday and did not fail to call in and settle for his paper another year.

Mr. J. D. Keisler, a young and progressive farmer from up on Hollow creek was in town Monday, dropped in to see us and left a dollar for the Dispatch.

The best C. O. Syrup you ever tasted is now at H. N. Kaminer & Co's, and the price is only 30c per gallon.

Mr. B. L. Dreher, a substantial farmer and mill man of the Dreher section, was in town Saturday and did not forget the printers.

Be sure and attend the great sacrifice sale of the goods of T. H. Williams, beginning next Saturday and lasting for eight days.

Mrs. W. H. Gooding, of Charlotte, N. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Efrid.

25c Butter Dishes and Syrup Pitchers going at 19 cents during the Bazaar Cost Sale.

Miss Jodie Caughman, of Columbia, is visiting relatives here.

The editor will be with the auditor at Brookland on Friday and Saturday, Feb. 4 and 5. Pay him.

Miss Mary Eleazer, daughter of Mr. W. S. Eleazer, of the Broad river section, was carried to Knowlton's Hospital, Columbia, on Saturday to undergo treatment for appendicitis.

Mr. N. P. Shipp spent Sunday in Columbia.

Whenever you want good and fresh groceries, always go to H. N. Kaminer & Co. They have that which is good and the prices make them popular.

Mr. Frank Kaminer, of Spartanburg, attended the burial of his brother-in-law, Dr. Julian E. Kaufman and spent a few days with relatives here.

Greatest sale ever held in Lexington will begin next Saturday, when Karl F. Oswald will sell for eight days the remaining stock of T. H. Williams.

We regret to learn of the illness of Mr. George A. Kaminer, at his home, near Rocky Well. The Dispatch joins his host of friends in wishing for him a speedy recovery.

We regret to learn that the son of Mr. P. M. Frick, of Chapin, is still confined to Knowlton's Hospital in Columbia, where he has just undergone a third operation for appendicitis.

One dozen dollar air rifles, going at 85 cents during the Bazaar Cost Sale.

Dr. Parker, traveling representative of the Murray Drug Co., came over from Columbia on Monday to attend the burial of his friend, Dr. Julian E. Kaufman.

Mrs. W. H. Sills and children, of Batesburg, spent Sunday with the former's brother, D. R. Haltiwanger.

Miss Lizzie Harman has returned from a pleasant visit to relatives in the Dutch Fork.

Commencing Saturday next, Feb. 5, Karl Oswald, trustee, will sell for eight days the remaining stock of goods of T. H. Williams, bankrupt. Don't forget the date and be on hand early.

Mr. J. F. Bachman, a prosperous farmer of the Congaree section, was in town Monday and renewed for his paper another year.

Six alarm clocks to be sold at 75 cents during the cost sale at The Bazaar.

Dr. W. E. Crosson, and Mr. J. Henry Bodie, of Leesville, came down on Monday for the burial of Dr. Julian E. Kaufman.

Col. John Bell Towill, of Batesburg, was here for the burial of Dr. Kaufman.

Listen! Did you know the new store with a stock of new general merchandise is doing the business at Lexington—it is H. N. Kaminer & Co. Mr. S. F. Perry, of Batesburg, was here Monday on matters of business.

Our friends and brother, Capt. Geo. S., and James K. Swygert, of Selwood, were among the prominent Masons in attendance upon the burial of Brother J. E. Kaufman, on Monday.

Mrs. Cattie Caughman is slowly recovering from her recent severe illness much to the pleasure of her many friends.

Mrs. Lillie I. Kaminer, proprietress of the City Hotel, Columbia, came over on Monday to attend the burial of Dr. J. E. Kaufman.

Mrs. James Caughman, who has been quite ill with grip for the past several days, is very much improved.

Mrs. W. J. Beeland, of Macon, Ga., attended the burial of her nephew, Dr. J. E. Kaufman, on Monday.

We call attention to the advertisement of Summer & Boozer, of Chapin, in this issue. They are clever fellows and will treat you right every time.

Mr. William Koon, one of the best citizens in the county residing in the Boiling Springs section, while in town Monday, on business called in and renewed his subscription to The Dispatch.

Grip is prevalent throughout the county and entire families are suffering from the malady in some instances.

Prof. Burkhalter, of Swansea, was in town Saturday and gave us a pleasant call.

WANTED—A partner to take interest in brick plant for the year 1910. Good opening for right man. For further information, apply to Gross Bros., Lexington, S. C. 244p

WANTED—A couple cords of good heart pine wood on subscription at The Dispatch office.

Mr. H. W. Kleckley, a substantial citizen and good man of the river section, was in town Saturday and called in to see us.

You can save dollars by buying a suit now from E. G. Dreher & Co.

Prof. L. A. Sease, of Clemson College, kindly sends us his remittance for another year for which he has our thanks.

Mr. John A. Dreher, of the Selwood section, one of our promptest paying subscribers, while in town on business Saturday, called in and renewed for another year.

E. G. Dreher & Co., are selling all winter suits—both men and boys', at and below cost. Now is the time to save money.

We are glad to say Mr. Roy Barr, son of Mr. T. B. Barr, of Steedman, S. C., has been in Rome, Ga., some two weeks, has a fine position with W. C. Moore & Son. His sister, Miss Daisy, has been with the firm since October. They both are well pleased with Rome and its people. We wish for them joy and success and hope to have them some day again in our midst.

Mrs. Wallace E. Lorick and two daughters, Ruth and Catherine, of Irmo, were the guests of Mrs. Lorick's sister, Mrs. A. M. Harman, for the week-end.

Dr. B. F. Mack, of Leesville, one of the most prominent Masons in the county, was here to take part in the burial of Dr. Kaufman on Monday.

Remember all winter suits and over coats at E. G. Dreher & Co's, must go to make room for spring stock. You can buy a suit at your own price.

Buy your groceries from the old reliable grocer, H. M. Wingard. His stock is always fresh and clean, and his prices right.

Mr. J. Lem Berry, of Pelion, has our thanks for a seven pound yam potato.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bouknight, of Leesville, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Shealy on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dreher, of the Selwood section, were here on Monday.

Cabbage Plants—I receive a fresh shipment of winter-hardened cabbage plants every week. All varieties. H. M. Wingard.

Marriages.

Married on January 30, 1910, at the home of Mr. Getler Taylor and wife, their daughter, Miss Lela Taylor and Mr. J. A. Shumpert, by the Rev. A. R. Taylor. All of Lexington county.

Married, January 12, 1910, at the residence of Mr. John Roof, by Rev. J. A. Cromer, Mr. Lewis Sox and Miss Leola Roof.

Married, January 19, 1910, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. A. Cromer, Mr. D. Pickens Roof and Miss Carrie Kaminer.

AUCTION SALE

6---Desirable Residence Lots---6

In the Town of Lexington, S. C.

Fronting on East Depot Street, Near Court House, Next to Efrid & Dreher's Office

Lots will be sold on very easy terms: One-third cash, balance in two annual installments, purchaser to pay for papers.

One lot fronting 37 feet on Main street in Lexington, running through about 300 feet to Butlert street, with two-story building, small dwelling and barn and stables, and known as the "Ballentine Lot." Terms: One-half cash, balance on terms to suit purchaser.

One lot with two-story brick building, fronting 34 feet on Main street of Lexington, known as the "Craps Building." Terms: One-third cash, balance on easy terms.

Also 50 acres of good farm land, one-fourth mile north of town of Lexington, near Fair grounds; about 25 acres open land, plenty of water. Terms: Cash.

One tract of land containing three acres, just beyond factory pond on Depot street, with good six-room dwelling, known as the "Willie Meetze Place." Terms: One-third cash; balance on terms to suit purchaser.

Sale will commence immediately after Clerk's Sales on Monday, February 7th, 1910.

NO SALE MADE TO NEGROES.

I HAVE IN ADDITION TO THE ABOVE, FOUR RESIDENCE LOTS TO BE SOLD AT PRIVATE SALE

Fronting on Depot and Fort Streets. These Lots were not offered in the recent auction sale, which was a grand success. Lot No. 11, lying near the Methodist church, has a frontage of 150 ft. on Fort St., having 300 ft. depth. and containing about 3-4 acres. Lot No. 12, also near the Methodist church, fronting 150 ft. on Fort St., having a depth of 340 ft. Containing about one acre. Lot No. 10, on Fort St. fronting 97 ft., 178 ft. deep. This is a corner lot, and very desirable location for residence. Lot No. 5, fronting on Depot St. 65 ft. and 171 ft. deep. This lot lies near the Electric Railway survey.

Some of the purchasers of these lots at the auction sale are making preparations to build, which is assurance that this part of town will soon be one of the most valuable in Lexington.

ALFRED J. FOX

Real Estate and Insurance.

Lexington, S. C.