Poisoned By Eating Candy.

Clement Jennings Russell, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Russell, died Friday evening after an illness of but two days.

The death of little Clement Russell was due to eating poisoned chocolate candy. The attending physician stated that poisoning from the candy was the cause of death. Some days ago Mr. Russell took home some very nice chocolate candy. All the family ate of it freely, but it seems that Clement was the only one who got hold of a piece that was poisonous.—Spartanburg Herald.

—Southeast Georgian.

Mr. E. A. Kelley, Belvidere, Ill., writes us: "I am an ex-engineer with 22 years active service to my credit. About three years ago my kidneys were affected so that I had to give up my engine. First I was troubled with severe, aching pain over the hips. Then followed inflammation of the bladder, and specks appeared before my eyes. A sample of Foley's Kidney Pills that I tried, so benefited me that I bought more and continued to take them until now I can safely testify they have made me a sound and well man." A few minutes delay in treating some cases of croup, even the length of time it takes to go for a doctor often proves dangerous. The safest way is to keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and at the first indication of croup give the child a dose. Pleasant to take and always cures. Sold by all Druggists.

Author of "Go-Go" Goes to Poorhouse.

Hugh Cannon, who wrote "Go-Go Eyes," "Ain't That a Shame," "Bill Bailey," and other classics of ragtime, was sent to Eloise poorhouse on Tuesday at the age of 26. He told the story of his life in short, expressive sentences. "I quit the cke easy," he said. "Fifteen days in the jail cured me of that. I hit the pipe in New York for a year and stopped that. I went up against the morphine hard and quit, but booze, red, oily booze—that's got me for keeps."

One Truthful Editor.

There lives an editor in the interior of Pennsylvania, "Jim" Sweeney by name, who has a keen sense of humor. Seeking to increase his fortune, Sweeney once wrote to a prospective advertiser, setting forth in attractive fashion, the value of his paper as a medium of publicity. The advertiser was captivated by Sweeney's letter, but desirous of more specific assurances before he invested his money, he wrote to Sweeney, saying that he hadn't heard of the Trumpton Sentinel. "Where does it circulate?" he asked. And, in his illuminating way, Sweeney wrote back: "The Trumpton Sentinel circulates in Europe, Asia, Africa, North and South America, and it's just about all I can do to keep it from going to h—l."—Kansas City Star.
