

Three Car Loads Mules

We have been advertising one car a week, but to "open the ball" for the new year, and in order to take care of our rapidly increasing business, we thought best to carry a larger supply this month than ever. We have just unloaded three car loads of very fine mules, one load from Bowling Green, Ky., and two loads from National Stock Yards, Illinois. We have them in all sizes, from the middle class cotton mule to the very finest.

It is a well known fact that mules are high everywhere, but what we agree to do, and do, we give you a better mule for the same money than you can possibly get from dealers who only ship a few loads in the season. The reason is simple: We buy six to ten car loads at a time for the several Gregory Stables and large buyers can get better prices than smaller buyers. We give our customers better mules for the price than they can get at home and our numerous sales to out-of-town customers is evidence enough to that fact. Recent sales went to Saluda, Aiken, Kershaw, Fairfield and Newberry Counties.

Question in Arithmetic

Here's one for your boys:
If the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint, and one paint goes twice as far as another, how much are those two paints worth?
If Devos is worth $1.75 a gallon, how much is the other one worth?
How much is a gallon of paint worth anyhow?
The answer is: Depends on the paint. The reason is: paint isn't always paint. There are true and false paint and shortmeasure.
How much is a short-measure gallon worth? How much is false paint worth?
How much is Devos worth?
There are millions a year in the answer to this last one. The Kaufmann Drug Co.

Three Calls For Bloodhounds.

Sheriff Corley had three calls for bloodhounds during last night—one came from Gilbert, where it is said three houses were broken into by robbers; the second came from nine miles above Leesville, where the Rev. A. W. Miller's barn had been robbed, and the third from Mr. Elzie Long at Summit at an early hour this morning. As the sheriff has no bloodhounds at present, the requests could not be granted, but he left this morning to make an investigation.

The Editor's Valentines.

The senior editor received a number of valentines, among them being one of a comic nature entitled, "Old Teddy Bear." But there were others which more than overbalanced the horrible sight of "Old Tedd" by the sweet messages of love which they bore, one with an arrow piercing the heart, and another from a "true heart," representing a true heart and bearing happy greetings and best wishes.
