New Trial for Ralph Clarke.
The Supreme Court has reversed the decision of the Circuit Court in the case of the State against Ralph Clarke. The case will now be sent back for a new trial.
Young Clarke was convicted of housebreaking and larceny, at the September term of court last year, the direct charge being that he entered the store of M. E. Rutland, in the town of Batesburg, in the night time, together with "Dude" Aldridge and Tom McCarty, two other white boys. Aldridge is said to have confessed, as did young McCarty. However, Clark was the only one tried, the other cases being held over.

New Building to Go Up.
It is understood that Mr. Alfred J. Fox will shortly tear down the old Balentine building on Main street, or remove it to the rear, and erect a large brick storebuilding where the present wooden structure stands.
This would greatly improve this property, and no doubt Mr. Fox will find the change a paying investment.

At The Grand.
The programs at the Grand theatre in Columbia, this week have been the best in several weeks. The peculiar diversified performances have been most acceptable, and the audiences have been unusually large. The manager is to be congratulated for his successful efforts in securing the best attractions possible.

Roof's Millinery Opening.
Saturday and Monday will be big days in Lexington. Roof's grand spring opening of Fancy Millinery and Pattern Hats will be held on those days and the women of the entire community for many miles will be here.
Miss Anna Brown, the charming little woman in charge of this department, is almost ready for the big event, and many magnificent hats will be on exhibition. Those who have had Miss Brown to design their hats in the past, know how artistic and beautiful are the hats of her creation, and it is needless to say that her hats this season will be no exception.
The other departments at Roof's are presenting an Easter appearance and never before has the big store been so attractive.

Real Estate Changes Hands.
Mr. C. S. Rauch has purchased from Col. M. D. Harman a large lot just below the law office of Efrid & Dreher, and will shortly commence the erection of a large brick livery and sale stables thereon.

Masonics.
A REGULAR COMMUNICATION of Lexington Lodge No. 152, A. F. M., will be held Saturday, March 19th, 1910, at 7 o'clock, p. m., Brethren are earnestly requested to attend.
By order of the W. M. GODFREY M. HARMAN, Secty.

Alex Ayoub's.
In this issue will be found an advertisement announcing the great Easter sale at Alex Ayoub's, Columbia. When Ayoub puts on a sale it means the saving of hundreds of dollars to the people, and this sale will surpass all previous efforts in bargain giving. The stock is complete, the prices extremely low, and you had better buy now.

Flogged Aged Woman.
The Columbia Record says the penitentiary authorities had a new experience Monday in receiving a wealthy farmer from Marion county for beating a poor helpless white woman who had been cooking for him for the heinous crime of disobeying his orders in leaving his house in his absence. The name of the convict is W. H. Brigman, who is said to have been in numerous cutting and shooting scrapes, but who always managed to buy off his prosecutors.
He had apparently succeeded in hushing the old woman with money, but Solicitor Wells unexpectedly handed out an indictment and he was convicted. Brigman decided to plead guilty, evidently expecting this would result in only a light fine against him, but he was disappointed, for Judge Earnest Gary, who was presiding, gave him 18 months without the privilege of paying a fine.
When asked what he had to say why sentence should not be imposed Brigman said that the reason he flogged the old woman was that she went away against his orders, and that when he returned the house had been burned. When he came back and found the old woman had disobeyed him, other witnesses testified he went out in the yard and cut a stout peach switch and beat her soundly.

Piercing Arrow Sale.
In this issue W. D. Bates, "the man who sells it for less," announces the beginning of a mighty sale at his store this week. "The Piercing Arrow Sale," the greatest sale ever inaugurated in the Carolinas. At this sale thousands of dollars will be saved to the people. Seasonable merchandise will be thrown the market, at prices that will cause the movement of rusty dollars as never before.
Right in the midst of the Easter season—a season when every person throughout the length and breadth of this broad land is looking forward to new Easter wearing apparel, Bates is putting on a sale, and it goes without saying that it will draw people to Columbia from every quarter of the State.
Better get early if you want to be among the first served.
